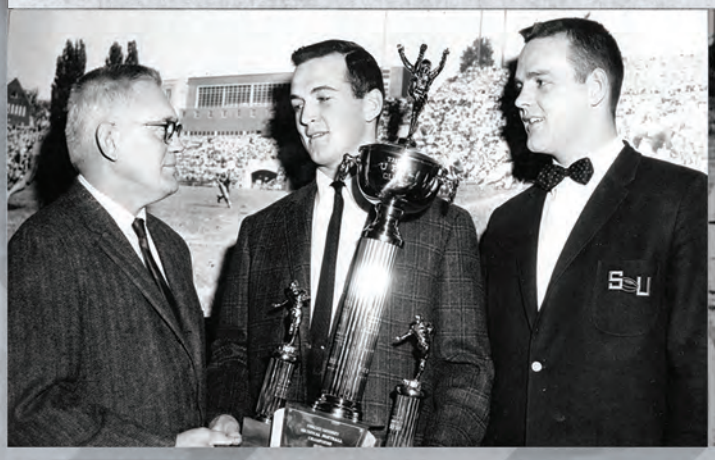
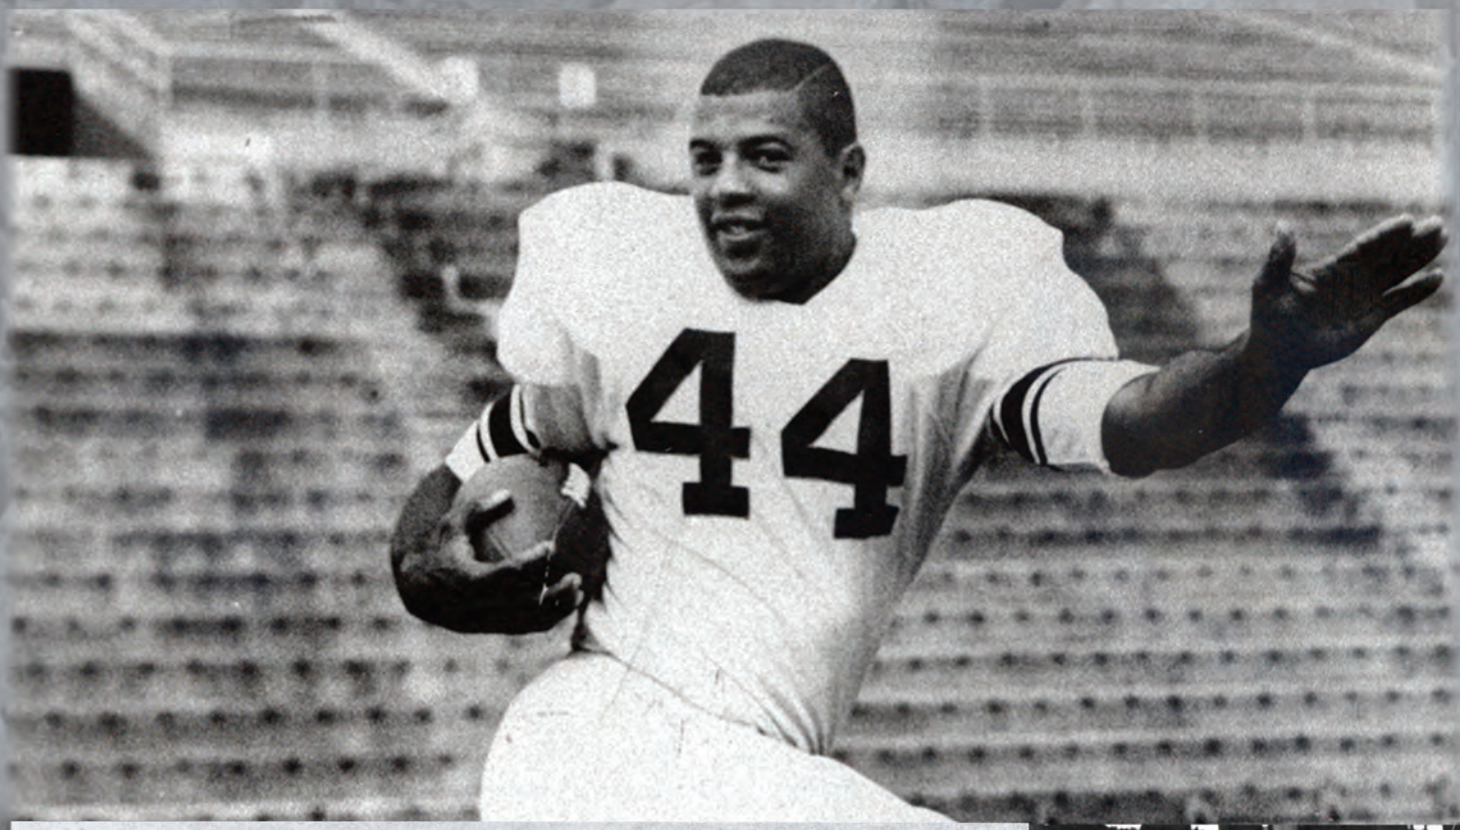
1959 NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

Unbeaten and untied, the 1959 Orange capped an 11-0 season with a 23-14 victory against Texas in the Cotton Bowl. Syracuse dominated its foes both offensively and defensively under the direction of consensus National Coach of the Year Ben Schwartzwalder. The defense allowed a mind-boggling 193 yards rushing in 10 regular-season games. Running back Ernie Davis led an Orange offense that averaged 451 yards per game. Guard Roger Davis, who was selected seventh overall by the Chicago Bears in the 1960 NFL Draft, end Fred Mautino, halfback Gerhard Schwedes and tackle Bob Yates earned All-America honors.



1961 HEISMAN TROPHY WINNER:
ERNIE DAVIS



In 1961, the Civil Rights Act was three years from becoming a reality. It would be four years until the voting rights of all Americans were protected by federal law. But, an unassuming sports hero was about to play an important, yet unintentional, role in the burgeoning civil rights movement. On Dec. 6, 1961, Syracuse University running back Ernest R. Davis was awarded the Heisman Trophy. It was the first time an African-American was honored as college football's best player, even though they had participated in the game since the late 1800s.

As a sophomore, Davis rushed for a team-high 686 yards and scored 10 touchdowns to power Ben Schwartzwalder's 1959 Orange to a 10-0 regular-season record, the nation's No. 1 ranking, and a Cotton Bowl showdown with Texas. With the collective eyes of the college football world focused on Dallas, Davis captured MVP honors, scoring two touchdowns – one on an 87-yard halfback option pass from captain Gerhard Schwedes – and setting up a third to spark a 23-14 Orange triumph.

In 1960, Davis led the squad in rushing again with 877 yards and scored 10 more touchdowns to earn All-America accolades. Davis paced Syracuse on the ground for a third time in 1961, rushing for 823 yards and scoring 15 touchdowns. In the Liberty Bowl, he ran for 140 yards on 30 carries and scored Syracuse's first touchdown, as the Orange rallied from a 14-0 halftime deficit to nip Miami (Fla.), 15-14.

A unanimous selection for his second first-team All-America honor, Davis was then rewarded with the 1961 Heisman Trophy. President John F. Kennedy sent the following telegram to Davis in 1963 after a celebration of Davis' achievements in Elmira, New York:

"Seldom has an athlete been more deserving of such a tribute. Your high standards of performance on the field and off the field reflect the finest qualities of competition, sportsmanship and citizenship. The nation has bestowed upon you its highest awards for your athletic achievements. It's a privilege for me to address you tonight as an outstanding American, and as a worthy example of our youth. I salute you."

Hoping to team the talented Davis with his Syracuse backfield predecessor and NFL rushing king Jim Brown, Cleveland Browns owner Art Modell traded for Davis after Washington selected him with the first overall pick in the annual draft. But before the former Orange stars could suit up together, Davis contracted leukemia and died on May 18, 1963. He was 23 years old.

In the fall of 1979, Davis, who had taken the greatness of Syracuse's No. 44 from Jim Brown and passed it on to Floyd Little, was posthumously inducted into the National Football Foundation's College Hall of Fame. In 2008, "The Express," a motion picture about Davis' life, premiered in downtown Syracuse. Syracuse University has honored Davis in many ways, including the retirement of his No. 44 jersey, erecting a statue of him on the University Quad, building Ernie Davis Hall and celebrating the 50th anniversary of his historic Heisman victory with an event at the New York Historical Society Museum in 2011.

During Syracuse's 130-year football history, more than 100 Orange players have been named All-Americans. Bill Horr became the program's first in 1907 when the legendary Walter Camp selected Horr to his "Second Eleven." Punter Sterling Hofrichter is Syracuse's most recent honoree. In 2019, Hofrichter was recognized by seven selectors, including the FWAA, USA Today and Associated Press. The year before, placekicker Andre Szmyt was honored by 14 selectors and became the ninth unanimous All-American in team history.

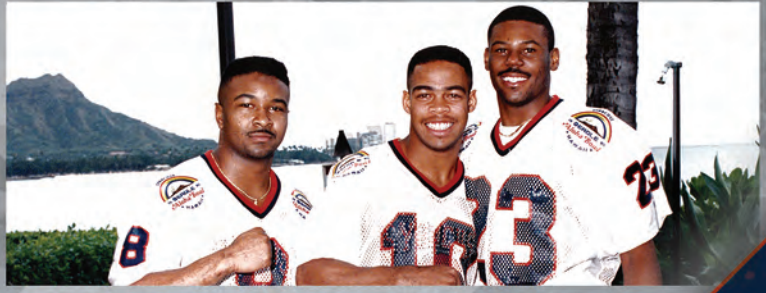
BOWL TRADITION

Syracuse is 16-9-1 in its 26 bowl appearances and has won six of its last seven postseason games, including the 2018 Camping World Bowl. From 1989-96, the Orange won seven consecutive bowl games, the seventh-longest streak in the history of college football. Syracuse has played in 17 different bowl games. The program's .635 winning percentage ranks fifth all-time among schools with at least 15 bowl appearances.

NEW YEAR'S SIX

During its illustrious history, Syracuse has earned invitations to all six games that make up the College Football Playoff – the Rose, Sugar, Orange, Fiesta, Peach and Cotton Bowls.



THE LOUD HOUSE

One of the "Seven Wonders" of the college athletics world, the Carrier Dome was the first stadium of its kind built in the Northeast. Since it opened in 1980, nearly 10 million fans have passed through the building's gates to watch Syracuse football. In 2018, the University announced a $118 million investment in the facility to create a new stadium experience. The renovations, which include a new fixed roof and center-hung scoreboard scheduled for completion this fall, will transform the stadium into one of the finest facilities in all of sports.

FIRST-CLASS FACILITIES

The Ensley Athletic Center and Iocolano-Petty Football Complex stand as symbols of Syracuse University's commitment to providing an exceptional student-athlete experience. Named in honor of three-sport letterwinner Cliff Ensley, the 87,000-square foot Ensley Athletic Center offers a full-sized, indoor, FieldTurf practice field identical to the Carrier Dome. The Iocolano-Petty Football Complex embodies the long and storied tradition of Syracuse football. It features a Dome theater, state-of-the-art player lounge, athletic training and player recovery facilities, a locker room, dining facility, and multiple displays honoring the program's all-time greats.

Student-Athlete Academic Development

The Stevenson Educational Center, located in Manley Field House, is home to the Syracuse Student-Athlete Academic Development staff. The center features a computer lab, tutor rooms, career development suite and meeting rooms for both day and evening study-table sessions.

The educational center team is involved in additional activities designed to enhance academic performance. Orientation programs for incoming student-athletes are held at the beginning of the first semester to aid in the transition from high school to college. Career-planning programs assist those who are undecided on their major course of study. As student-athletes approach the end of their college careers, programs coordinated by the academic development staff help them enter the work force or explore opportunities for graduate school.

One of those programs is the “S Project,” which is designed to provide student-athletes with proactive and continuing education. Through the program, student-athletes develop the skills necessary to excel in the classroom, maximize their athletic ability and prepare for post-collegiate success. The curriculum is centered on four areas – career readiness, financial education, healthy relationships, and wellness and personal development.

Staff members focus on the enhancement of academic performance through the development of study and communication skills, goal-setting, stress and time management, and individual tutoring and mentoring. Academic performance is monitored to ensure NCAA, Atlantic Coast Conference and Syracuse University eligibility rules are met and that progress is being made toward graduation.

SERVING THE COMMUNITY

Giving back to the community is integral to the development of the overall student-athlete. Through the 'Cuse Cares program, Syracuse coaches and student-athletes log thousands of community service hours each year. The Orange football team has been a leader in that regard, earning multiple awards for service. In 2018, linebacker Kielan Whitner was named to the prestigious Allstate AFCA Good Works Team for his commitment to volunteerism. Last season, Syracuse Uplifting Athletes chapter president Sam Heckel was selected to the inaugural Rare Disease Champion Team for his significant and lasting impact on the rare disease community. Football also won the 2016-17 'Cuse Cares Award for community engagement, which included participation in Syracuse's annual St. Baldrick's Day benefitting childhood cancer research, Beads of Courage, Building Men and additional volunteer programs.

ACC TOP SIX FOR SERVICE

Presented annually to six student-athletes at each member institution, the ACC Top Six for Service Award recognizes those who demonstrate outstanding dedication to community service and outreach programs.

Since joining the conference in 2013-14, the Orange football team has had six individuals combine for eight ACC Top Six for Service honors, with former quarterback Zack Mahoney and former offensive lineman Sam Heckel earning the award twice in their careers. Both are past presidents of the Syracuse University chapter of Uplifting Athletes. Heckel was named to the organization's first Rare Disease Champion Team in 2019. Heckel organized two "Lift for Life" events during his tenure as president. The events combined to raise more than $15,000 to benefit the rare disease community.

THIS IS SYRACUSE UNIVERSITY

Syracuse University is a private, international research university with distinctive academics, diversely unique offerings and an undeniable spirit. Located in the geographic heart of New York state, with a global footprint and 150 years of history, Syracuse offers a quintessential college experience, as well as innovative online learning environments.

The scope of Syracuse University is a testament to its strengths. The University offers a choice of more than 200 majors, 100 minors and 200 advanced degree programs through its 13 schools and colleges. Syracuse has more than 15,000 undergraduates and nearly 7,000 graduate students, more than a quarter of a million alumni in 171 countries, and a student population from all 50 states and 127 countries.

Dedicated to preparing its students for a rapidly changing world, Syracuse University consistently ranks among the highest quality international study programs in the country. With seven overseas centers and more than 100 programs within 60 countries, nearly half of Syracuse students study abroad at some point during their academic careers. As a Carnegie classification Research 1 institution, the University offers students hands-on opportunities to conduct research in their fields.

Syracuse has built a reputation as the best university for veterans and military-connected students, who make up more than five percent of the student body. Recently ranked the No. 1 private school for veterans by the Military Times, the University will soon open the state-of-the-art National Veterans Resource Center (NVRC). The NVRC will be dedicated to advancing the social, economic and wellness concerns of the nation's veterans and their families and will serve as the center of veteran life on campus, in the local community, and across Central New York.

SYRACUSE, NEW YORK THE SALT CITY

Located in the heart of New York state, the city of Syracuse and its nearby environs offer a blend of city life and scenic countryside escapes. Among its many attractions, the city hosts an opera company, museums, art houses and a professional theater. Historic Armory Square in downtown Syracuse is filled with restaurants, pubs, and boutique hotel and shopping opportunities, along with the hands-on Milton J. Rubenstein Museum of Science & Technology. To experience some of the unique sites the city has to offer, visitors can travel the Connective Corridor, a three-mile urban design project linking Syracuse University with the city's cultural attractions.

Beyond the city, the area features abundant county and regional parks. The Rosamond Gifford Zoo, Beaver Lake Nature Center, Onondaga Lake Park and Baltimore Woods Nature Preserve offer plenty of recreation and entertainment opportunities.

Syracuse is also home to Destiny USA – a 2.4 million square-foot destination shopping complex. Destiny USA underwent an 850,000 square-foot expansion in 2012 that combines full-priced and value retail with fine dining and entertainment venues. It's the sixth-largest shopping center in the United States and features nearly 250 tenants.

Residents and visitors enjoy the region's four seasons, which allow for various outdoor sports, including cross-country and downhill skiing, snowmobiling, biking, fishing, hiking and canoeing. In addition, more than 40 golf courses are located throughout the greater Syracuse area. For sports enthusiasts, the city is home to the Syracuse Mets, the Triple-A affiliate of the New York Mets, and the Syracuse Crunch AHL hockey team.

A yearly end-of-summer celebration with exhibitions, food and entertainment, the Great New York State Fair draws hundreds of thousands of visitors each year. The area also hosts many other festivals, including the Jamesville Balloon Fest, Taste of Syracuse, New York Blues Fest and the Syracuse Arts & Crafts Festival.

In recognition of the area's many assets, U.S. News & World Report ranked Syracuse No. 54 on its 2019 list of the "125 Best Places to Live in the United States."

The media section of the website (theACC.com/media) offers additional information for use by media members, including access to ACC PhotoShelter, the home for conference and school logos, headshots of players and coaches from select sports and images from ACC events and championships.

ACC MEDIA PORTAL

Highlights & Press Conferences: The ACC and XOS Digital have partnered to provide individual highlight packages from all ACC-controlled regular season football and men's basketball games to approved TV news affiliates for the 2020-21 seasons. Upon the conclusion of each game, highlights will be available for local TV news affiliates to download and use in televised news programming at no cost. Outlets may access the highlights, along with any weekly head coach press conferences, through the ACC Media Portal. This portal replaces the ACC Video Clip Service (AVCS). The use of ACC game highlights provided through the portal remain subject to those restrictions outlined in the ACC News Access Guidelines. Interested affiliates should email licensing@xosdigital.com to register for the ACC Media Portal and for additional information. Approved affiliates will receive a confirmation email along with credentials to access the portal.

ACC Digital License: Per the ACC News Access Guidelines, game footage (station shot or broadcast) may not be distributed through digital platforms without a license. The ACC and XOS Digital now offer a turnkey digital highlight license specifically designed for local TV affiliates. This license covers the use of ACC game footage across official station websites, apps, and social media platforms. Distribution of in-game highlights on any platform during the broadcast window is strictly prohibited, regardless of a digital license. Interested affiliates should email licensing@xosdigital.com to receive more information or to purchase a digital license.

ACC NETWORK

Owned and operated by ESPN in partnership with the Atlantic Coast Conference, ACC Network (ACCN) and its digital platform ACCNX is a 24/7 national network dedicated to ACC sports that launched on August 22, 2019. ACCN features regular-season and tournament games from across the conference's 27 sponsored sports, plus a complement of news, information shows and original programming. ESPN has been televising ACC content since 1979 and has exclusive rights to every conference-controlled game across all sports and championships.

Carriage agreements are in place with the following video providers: AT&T U-Verse, AT&T TV NOW, Cox, DIRECTV, DISH Network, Google Fiber, Hulu Live TV, Optimum, Sling TV, Spectrum TV, Suddenlink, TVision, Verizon Fios, YouTube TV, members of the NCTC, NRTC and Vivicast, among others. All ACCN games will also be available on the ESPN app to authenticated subscribers. Fans interested in learning more about ACCN can visit GetACCN.com.

2020 SEASON OUTLOOK

The optimism generated by Syracuse's strong finish last season, with wins at Duke (49-6) and against Wake Forest (39-30 in OT) in the final three weeks, has been tempered by a long break from college football. The COVID-19 pandemic halted spring ball for the Orange after three practices. The missed time has the squad chomping at the bit to build on last season's November ending.

Not having spring practice or a normal offseason program has been challenging. However, Coach Dino Babers and new coordinators Sterlin Gilbert (offense) and Tony White (defense) have done as much as they can virtually to prepare the Orange to hit the ground running this fall.

In July, the ACC announced an 11-game scheduling model in which all 15 schools, including Notre Dame, will play 10 conference opponents and one non-conference game. The 2020 campaign gets underway on Sept. 12 when the Orange head to Chapel Hill to face North Carolina. Syracuse's home opener is set for Sept. 26 against Georgia Tech.

In addition to the Yellow Jackets, Syracuse will host Duke (Oct. 10), Wake Forest (Oct. 31), Boston College (Nov. 7) and NC State (Nov. 28) in ACC play. To satisfy the non-conference portion of the new format, the Orange maintained their previously scheduled Oct. 17 home matchup with Liberty.

This year's road slate is highlighted by a Friday night game at Louisville on Nov. 20. Syracuse also visits Pittsburgh (Sept. 19), Clemson (Oct. 24) and closes the regular season at Notre Dame (Dec. 5) in addition to the opener at UNC.

Here's a position-by-position look at the 2020 Orange:

Redshirt junior quarterback Tommy DeVito ranked third in the ACC in completion percentage (.632) in 2019. He threw 19 touchdowns against eight interceptions in his first season as Syracuse's starter.

QUARTERBACKS

Starters Returning: 1 • Lettermen Returning: 2

There will be a new voice in the quarterback room with Sterlin Gilbert, the former McNeese State head coach, stepping in as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach. Gilbert's background includes tutoring current San Francisco 49ers signal-caller Jimmy Garoppolo when both were at Eastern Illinois.

Redshirt junior Tommy DeVito returns to the first-string role he played in 2019. In his initial campaign as Syracuse's starter, he tied the program's sophomore record for TD passes (19) and completed 213-of-337 throws (.632) for 2,360 yards.

One of DeVito's greatest strengths is his ball security. He finished last year with a streak of 170 passes without an interception. It is the third-longest active streak in the FBS ranks heading into this season and it ranks second in Syracuse's annals to R.J. Anderson's run of 190 passes from 2002-03 without a pick.

In redshirt senior Rex Culpepper the Orange have an experienced backup. Culpepper flashed his abilities in a 2017 start against Boston College. He completed 24-of-34 passes for 280 yards and two touchdowns that day. Culpepper's 280 passing yards are a record for an Orange quarterback in their first start.

Syracuse needs to cultivate competition to push Culpepper for the backup role. One candidate is redshirt freshman David Summers, who prepped at St. Joseph High School (Conn.).

The coaching staff bolstered the position with two signees this last cycle – Dillon Markiewicz from McKinney North High School (Texas) and JaCobian Morgan, a product of Mississippi's Canton High School. Markiewicz was the fourth-leading passer in Texas and Morgan accounted for 30 touchdowns, including 27 TD passes, as a senior.

RUNNING BACKS

Starters Returning: 0 • Lettermen Returning: 3

Syracuse faces the task of replacing the production of Moe Neal, who completed his collegiate career ranked ninth in all-time rushing yards (2,560) with the Orange. Neal scored seven touchdowns as a senior.

Redshirt senior Abdul Adams, who transferred from Oklahoma and scored two touchdowns in his Syracuse debut at the 2018 Camping World Bowl, is the projected starter. Adams finished third on the squad in rushing yards (336) and had three ground touchdowns in 2019. He was a threat out of the backfield as well with 15 receptions.

Junior Jarveon Howard has accumulated 10 rushing touchdowns in his first two seasons. He is expected to compete with Adams for the bulk of the carries. Howard's 337 yards last fall ranked second on the team behind Neal. Howard ran for 115 yards and a touchdown in Syracuse's 49-6 win at Duke.

Redshirt freshman Jawhar Jordan averaged 7.0 yards per carry in limited action last year. His best performance was at Louisville, where he racked up 223 all-purpose yards as a runner, receiver and kick returner.

Markenzy Pierre, a redshirt junior, is a mainstay on the kick return team. He has 38 career carries as a backup.

A relative newcomer to the mix is redshirt sophomore Cooper Lutz, who moved to running back from inside receiver prior to the start of spring drills.

When Syracuse chooses to employ a fullback, senior Chris Elmore has often gotten the call. A versatile performer, Elmore is a fixture at tight end. He's also seen action on the defensive line.

WIDE RECEIVERS

Starters Returning: 1 • Lettermen Returning: 3

Whose turn is it? Who will be the "next man up" among Syracuse's wideouts?

Each year of the Dino Babers era has featured a new receiving star:

- 2016: Amba Etta-Tawo, 94 receptions
- 2017: Steve Ishmael, 105 receptions
- 2018: Sean Riley, 64 receptions
- 2019: Trishton Jackson, 66 receptions

The heir apparent this season may be junior Taj Harris. A two-year starter at outside receiver, Harris ranked second in catches (37) and receiving yards (559) last fall. He averaged 15.1 yards per catch and posted the second-longest reception in program history when he hauled in a 94-yard TD versus Pittsburgh.

Nykeim Johnson, a senior slot receiver, has 68 career catches. He has appeared with the first string on 11 occasions.

Harris and Johnson are the known quantities. Syracuse's two wide receiver coaches, Justin Lustig (outside receivers) and Reno Ferri (inside receivers) will be tasked with developing additional weapons in the passing game.

Returning letterwinner Anthony Queeley, a redshirt sophomore, is among the contenders for playing time at outside receiver along with classmate Ed Hendrix, who has missed the past two seasons due to injury. Redshirt junior Sharod Johnson and redshirt freshman Courtney Jackson made the spring two-deep at inside receiver.

Gone from the group are Jackson and Riley, who had 66 and 36 catches, respectively, in their final campaigns. Both players signed as NFL free agents. Jackson posted a 1,000-yard season and was a 2019 All-ACC Second Team selection.

Tight end Aaron Hackett caught 23 passes last season, including six touchdowns. His six TD receptions ranked second on the Orange.

Redshirt senior Josh Black logged 39 tackles in 2019. Black is expected to move to defensive end in coordinator Tony White's 3-3-5 scheme.

TIGHT ENDS

Starters Returning: 1 • Lettermen Returning: 3

Position coach Reno Ferri has one of the most talented groups of tight ends the Orange have possessed in recent times. When it comes to executing through the air, the position is not an afterthought.

Senior Aaron Hackett was recipient of the 2019 Bill Maxwell Award as the team's most improved player on offense. He hauled in 23 passes, including six touchdowns, in his first campaign as the starter. Two of his scoring catches came in a win against Western Michigan, a game in which he snagged a personal-best six passes.

If the situation calls for an additional blocker, the offensive coaches typically turn to 288-pound bruiser Chris Elmore, who has eight career starts.

Like Hackett, sophomore Luke Benson made great strides a year ago. He was named a 2019 Pro Football Focus All-Freshman Third Team selection and made the most of his eight receptions, turning three of them into touchdowns. Benson displayed the ability to stretch the field, evidenced by a 70-yard TD reception versus Holy Cross.

Freshmen Maximilian Mang and Steven Mahar Jr. are newcomers to the unit. A native of Nuthetal, Germany, Mang brings a 6-foot-7, 250-pound frame to the group. Mahar Jr. was rated the No. 4 prospect in New York and won a state championship at Aquinas Institute in Rochester.

OFFENSIVE LINE

Starters Returning: 4 • Lettermen Returning: 6

Injuries slowed the development of Syracuse's offensive line last year, but there's good news for the upcoming campaign – four starters are back.

The injuries caused veteran offensive line coach Mike Cavanaugh to tinker with the lineup for most of the season. Once settled, Syracuse employed a formidable front five down the stretch.

Seasoned offensive tackle Airon Servais, a redshirt senior, owns a team-best streak of 37 consecutive starts. A starter at center his first two years, Servais managed that spot for eight games in 2019. When he made the move to left tackle, the unit played its best football. Syracuse averaged 242.3 yards per game on the ground over the final three contests after the change was made.

Guards Evan Adams and Dakota Davis started all 12 games in 2019. Adams completed his career, while Davis is back for his redshirt junior season. Davis was second on the team with 50 knockdowns a year ago.

Redshirt sophomore Carlos Vettorello swapped spots with Servais last season and is projected to start at center.

Another change that helped the unit develop came when Matthew Bergeron was inserted at right tackle for the final five games. Bergeron, who is entering his sophomore year, was named to the 2019 Pro Football Focus All-Freshman Second Team.

The top candidate to replace Adams at left guard is senior Patrick Davis. Redshirt junior Florida transfer Chris Bleich is also a possibility if he's granted immediate eligibility by by the NCAA.

Additional contenders for playing time include sophomore Mark Petry and redshirt freshman Anthony Red at tackle, and redshirt junior Darius Tisdale at guard.

DEFENSIVE LINE

Starters Returning: 1 • Lettermen Returning: 3

Graduation may have hit Syracuse's defensive line the hardest with five letterwinners, including three out of four starters, departing. It was a productive group – defensive ends Kendall Coleman and Alton Robinson combined for 35 sacks and 59 tackles for loss in their careers. Coleman signed a free-agent contract with the Indianapolis Colts, while Robinson was drafted by the Seattle Seahawks.

Redshirt senior Josh Black is the lone returning first-stringer. Black has manned both tackle and end during his Orange tenure. He started all 12 games at nose tackle last season. In new defensive coordinator Tony White's 3-3-5 alignment, Black is expected to take over one of the end positions.

Redshirt senior McKinley Williams has appeared in 39 career games (15 starts), but he was limited to three games a year ago due to a foot injury. He is the front-runner to fill the defensive tackle spot.

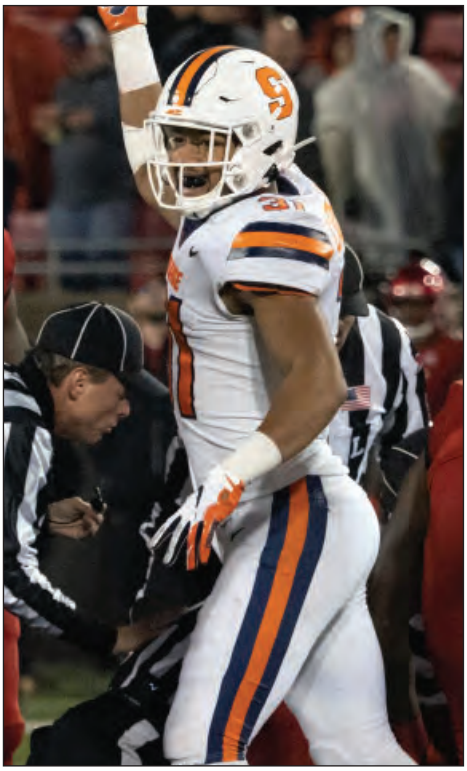
Senior Kingsley Jonathan has banked 7.5 career sacks as a reserve defensive end. He's excelled in pass-rushing situations and now has an opportunity to increase his contributions.

Redshirt sophomore Caleb Okechukwu and redshirt junior Zach Morton should be in the mix at end as well. Okechukwu, who missed all of 2019 with an illness, was a 2018 Under Armour All-American at St. John's College High School in Maryland. Morton played in four games last season.

The coaching staff brought in McNeese State transfer Cody Roscoe over the summer to shore up the edge rotation. A true senior, Roscoe tallied 42 tackles, nine sacks and 10 pass breakups for the Cowboys in 2019.

Senior Chris Elmore and redshirt junior Curtis Harper are options on the interior. Elmore made his debut at defensive tackle in 2019 and had nine stops. Harper tallied two sacks a year ago.

2020 SEASON OUTLOOK



Geoff Cantin-Arku cracked the special teams lineup as a freshman. He is working at middle linebacker along with sophomore Mikel Jones.

Junior defensive back Trill Williams caused three fumbles in 2019. He has 11 starts and 69 career tackles to his credit.

A two-time All-ACC selection, placekicker Andre Szmyt enters 2020 as the FBS career leader in points scored per game (9.6).

LINEBACKERS

Starters Returning: 0 • Lettermen Returning: 4

The Orange prepare for the 2020 campaign having lost its top two tacklers for the third straight year. Lakiem Williams (110 tackles) and Andrew Armstrong (78 tackles) both capped their Syracuse careers with solid seasons and now must be replaced.

The shift to a 3-3-5 scheme adds another linebacker to the Orange alignment.

Mikel Jones had an impressive rookie campaign and earned 2019 Pro Football Focus All-Freshman Third Team recognition. He played in all 12 games and made four starts. Jones' 38 tackles led Syracuse's freshman class. He was slated to compete with sophomore Geoff Cantin-Arku, a Quebec native, at middle linebacker in the spring. Cantin-Arku, rated Canada's No. 3 prospect in the Class of 2019, played nine games last season on special teams.

Redshirt junior Tyrell Richards has experience at both outside linebacker and defensive end. Richards earned the 2019 Joe Szombathy Award as Syracuse's top special teams performer. He opened spring drills as the starting weakside linebacker. Another soild special teams player, sophomore Lee Kpogba, is expected to push Richards for field time.

At strongside linebacker, redshirt freshmen Steve Linton and Ishmael Goulbourne are the top contenders. Both are converted defensive linemen and bring exceptional size to the position. Linton stand at 6-foot-5, while Goulbourne is 6-3. Linton played in three games at defensive end last season.

True freshmen Stefon Thompson, Anwar Sparrow and Marlowe Wax are new to the program. Thompson enrolled in January from Vance High School (N.C.), where he accumulated 162 tackles as a senior.

SECONDARY

Starters Returning: 3 • Lettermen Returning: 5

It took multiple vehicles to transport the defensive backs who ended their Syracuse careers in 2019 to their new homes. The Orange lost six lettermen and three starters. Prominent among the departures were safety Evan Foster, who was third in tackles (76), and cornerback Christopher Frederick, who was responsible for three interceptions.

There is still plenty of talent left in the cupboard, however, led by preseason All-American Andre Cisco at boundary safety. The 2018 ACC Defensive Rookie of the Year, Cisco topped the conference in interceptions in each of his two seasons. He is a candidate for the Jim Thorpe Award as the country's best defensive back and he is the FBS active leader in interceptions (12).

Junior Trill Williams tied for second in the ACC with three forced fumbles and added an interception and a fumble recovery in 2019. A versatile talent, Williams can play corner or safety. He was voted the ACC Defensive Back of the Week after returning a fumble 94 yards for a touchdown in last year's win versus Wake Forest.

Redshirt junior Ifeatu Melifonwu is a returning starter at cornerback. He tied for the team lead with 10 passes defended in 2019.

The new Rover position featured redshirt junior Eric Coley at the top of the spring depth chart. Despite playing a reserve role at safety in 2019, Coley tallied a respectable 48 tackles.

The coaches will likely rely on a slew of redshirt freshmen to fill out the rest of the defensive backfield. Safety Aman Greenwood and cornerbacks Garrett Williams, Neil Nunn and Adrian Cole are the most likely contributors. Williams has the most experience of the bunch, appearing in four games last season covering kicks.

SPECIALISTS

Starters Returning: 2 • Lettermen Returning: 3

The Orange placekicking chores rest on the impressive right foot of redshirt junior Andre Szmyt. A contender for the Lou Groza Award and All-America honors, recognition he received following his freshman campaign, Szmyt is the active FBS leader in average points per game (9.6) and field goals made per game (1.88). He is Syracuse's all-time leader in field-goal percentage, having converted on 47-of-54 (.870) attempts.

Szmyt was a 2019 All-ACC Third Team selection and was voted the ACC Specialist of the Week after connecting on four field goals in Syracuse's victory against Wake Forest.

Two more key components of the field goal unit, long snapper Aaron Bolinsky and holder Nolan Cooney return, as well. Bolinsky, a junior, has contributed after the snap to a punt team that has led the ACC in net average three years running.

With punter Sterling Hofrichter off to the NFL, Cooney has the opportunity to take over. Cooney could handle kickoff duties, too, though freshman James Williams will provide competition for both positions. Williams was rated five stars and the No. 4 punter in the Class of 2020 by Kohl's Kicking.

Sean Riley, Syracuse's all-time leading kick returner, finished up his college career and signed with the New England Patriots in the spring. Special teams coordinator Justin Lustig has a number of players to audition for the spot, including senior Nykeim Johnson, redshirt freshman Jawhar Jordan and redshirt junior Markenzy Pierre.

Riley was also Syracuse's primary punt returner. Lustig could turn to junior Trill Williams, who excelled as a return man at Archbishop Stepinac High School (N.Y.), or Johnson to fill the role.

DINO BABERS

Head Coach • Fifth Season • Career Record: 60-42 (.588)

A proven winner and respected mentor, Dino Babers was named the 30th head football coach at Syracuse University on Dec. 5, 2015. He owns a 60-42 (.588) career record and boasts nearly 40 years of experience in the profession.

Known for his innovative, ultra-fast offense, Babers is in his fifth season on the Syracuse sideline. Since his arrival on campus, Babers has reshaped the culture of Orange football by fostering an atmosphere of fairness, family and accountability. An adherence to those core values has allowed Syracuse's assistant coaches, staff and student-athletes to reach their full potential. On the field, the Babers era has featured record-setting production and a 10-win season in 2018.

In December 2018, Syracuse Director of Athletics John Wildhack ensured the growth of the Orange would continue under Babers by announcing a contract extension that keeps the veteran coach at the helm of the program well into the future.

GROWING THE ORANGE

Babers planted the seeds of Syracuse's revival during his first season in 2016. The Orange knocked off a ranked opponent for the first time in four years, toppling ACC Coastal champion Virginia Tech at home, 31-17. Additionally, he commanded an offense that set or tied more than 40 school records, including new season standards for completions (332) and passing yards (3,855).

Babers' second campaign also featured a signature win, as Syracuse handed 2017 College Football Playoff (CFP) semifinalist Clemson its only defeat of the regular season. The Orange edged the second-ranked Tigers, 27-24. The triumph was on par with the Orange's historic upset of No. 1 Nebraska more than 30 years prior and captured the attention of the nation.

Those flashes of success proved to be harbingers of what was to come in 2018, as Babers guided the Orange to the seventh double-digit win season in program history. The Eastern College Athletic Conference (ECAC) Team of the Year, Syracuse went from four wins to 10 and and posted a 6-2 conference record to finish second to national champion Clemson in the ACC Atlantic Division. The six-win increase matched the 1987 squad for the second-largest improvement from one year to the next in team history, and equaled Florida and Baylor for the best turnaround by a Power-Five team from 2017 to 2018.

The Orange opened the season with four straight wins and ended it with triumphs in six of their last seven games. Their 6-1 closing stretch included a 34-18 victory over West Virginia in the Camping World Bowl, the Orange's first postseason appearance since 2013. Along the way, Syracuse protected its home field by going 6-0 in the Dome, returned to the national polls for the first time in 17 years, and made its debut in the CFP rankings.

Syracuse rose to as high as No. 12 in all three polls during the week of Nov. 11, the program's highest ranking since 1998, and closed the season at No. 15 in the final AP and Amway Coaches polls.

For his efforts, Babers was named the AFCA Region 1 Coach of the Year, the third time he was voted the top coach in the region by his peers in the American Football Coaches Association. A finalist for three 2018 national coach of the year awards, Babers received co-ACC Coach of the Year honors from the Associated Press and was selected as the ECAC Coach of the Year.

Babers' vision for all three phases working together fueled the breakthrough. The Orange featured an electrifying offense, a tenacious defense and superb special teams. Offensively, the Orange ranked 11th nationally in scoring (40.2 ppg) and set the school records for most plays (1,063) and most points scored (523). They tied the all-time program mark with 62 total touchdowns, including a record 38 rushing scores. In 13 games, Syracuse scored 50+ points a school-record five times and topped 40 points on eight occasions.

Syracuse's opportunistic defense served as the perfect complement to the team's high-flying offense. The Orange ranked in the top 10 nationally in five defensive categories: turnovers gained (3rd - 31), interceptions (5th - 18), fumbles recovered (5th - 13), sacks (6th - 3.31 per game) and third-down defense (7th - .286). They also totaled a school-record 43 sacks.

A special teams unit led by All-ACC punter Sterling Hofrichter and Lou Groza Award-winning kicker Andre Szmyt completed the trifecta.

In 2019, Syracuse went 5-7, but finished the season strong, winning two of its last three. The Orange scored 30+ points five times and averaged 40.7 points per contest over the final three games of the year. Syracuse was among the best at taking care of the football in the passing game, finishing second in the ACC for the fewest interceptions thrown (7). Defensively, the Orange ranked fifth nationally in passes defended per game (5.67) and recorded the program's first true-road shutout since 1991 with a 24-0, season-opening victory at Liberty.

Player development has been a hallmark of Babers' Syracuse tenure. He's coached six All-Americans in four seasons. To put that perspective, Syracuse had one All-American in the four years prior to Babers' arrival in Central New York. Szmyt, who led the NCAA in nearly every kicking category in 2018, and safety Andre Cisco, who tied for the national lead in interceptions that season, were the fourth and fifth Orange players, respectively, to earn All-America honors under Babers. In 2019, Hofrichter added his name to that list. The Valrico, Florida native garnered seven All-America nods and became Syracuse's first Ray Guy Award finalist following a campaign in which he ranked No. 3 nationally in net punting average (43.03).

Receivers Amba Etta-Tawo, Steve Ishmael and punt returner Brisly Estime were Babers' first three Orange All-Americans. Quarterback Eric Dungey and receiver Ervin Philips are additional examples of players who flourished with Babers' guidance.

In 2016, Etta-Tawo left an indelible stamp on the program. He set 10 school receiving records in his one year with the Orange. He was an All-ACC First Team choice and was named to four All-America teams.

The following season, Ishmael picked up where Etta-Tawo left off. Ishmael ranked second in the FBS in receptions per game (8.8) and total catches (105). He also finished in the top 10 in receiving yards per game (4th - 112.2) and total receiving yardage (7th - 1,347). Like Etta-Tawo, Ishmael was an All-ACC First Team choice and an All-American, earning recognition from nine outlets, including four of the five NCAA consensus selectors.

Philips caught 179 of his school-record 223 passes in the two seasons he played for Babers. In 2017, Philips and Ishmael combined for an ACC-record 194 catches to close their careers ranked No. 1 and No. 2 on the program's all-time receptions list.

A four-year starter who played three of his collegiate seasons for Babers, Dungey finished his Orange career as the holder of 25 school records. Among the most prominent are the all-time Syracuse marks for passing yards (9,340) and total offense (11,333 yards).

Syracuse has recorded three of the top four season total-offense figures in team history under Dino Babers.

Overall, 20 of Babers' Syracuse pupils have earned All-ACC honors with five – Ishmael, Etta-Tawo, Hofrichter, Cisco and Szmyt – being named to the first team.

Twenty-one of Babers' former Orange players have gone on to sign NFL contracts, including draft choices Zaire Franklin, Chris Slayton, Alton Robinson and Hofrichter.

MAKING THE FALCONS FAST

Babers took over the Bowling Green program in 2014 and led the Falcons to an 18-9 record in his two years there, including victories over three Big Ten teams (Indiana - 2014; Maryland, Purdue - 2015). The Falcons went 8-6 in Babers' first season and captured the MAC East Division championship with a 5-3 league mark. Bowling Green lost the MAC title game to Northern Illinois, but rebounded for a 33-28 win versus South Alabama in the Raycom Media Camellia Bowl, BGSU's first bowl victory since 2004.

In 2015, Bowling Green was 10-3 under Babers and 7-1 against MAC competition to win the MAC East once again. The Falcons got the better of MAC West champion Northern Illinois in the league title game to win BGSU's second conference championship in three seasons. Babers presided over one of the most explosive offenses in the country, as the Falcons ranked in the top 10 nationally in first downs (1st - 389), total offense (4th - 546.8 ypg), passing offense (5th - 366.8 ypg), third-down conversion percentage (5th - .502) and scoring (6th - 42.2 ppg).

Babers mentored 17 All-MAC performers at BGSU, including 11 in 2015. Falcons quarterback Matt Johnson was the recipient of the 2015 MAC Vern Smith Leadership Award, presented to the conference's top football player, and earned MAC Offensive Player of the Year honors. In addition, Johnson finished second nationally in passing yards (4,946), touchdown passes (46) and ranked fifth in passing yards per game (353.3). He set the MAC single-season record for touchdown passes and eclipsed Ben Roethlisberger's conference record for the most passing yards in a season.

Another of Babers' charges – Roger Lewis – also had a standout 2015 campaign. Lewis finished second in the FBS in receiving yards (1,544), third in touchdown catches (16) and fifth in receiving yards per game (110.3). He became the first Falcon since 1994 to earn All-America honors from the Associated Press (third team) and he received second-team recognition from the FWAA.

EXCELLENCE AT EASTERN ILLINOIS

Babers excelled in his first head coaching position, leading Eastern Illinois to a 19-7 record in two seasons, including a 14-1 mark against Ohio Valley Conference (OVC) foes. His 2012 and 2013 Panther teams won the conference championship and earned FCS playoff berths. For his work, Babers was named the OVC Coach of the Year and the AFCA Region 3 Coach of the Year after both seasons.

In 2013, the Panthers finished 12-2, including an 8-0 conference record, and reached the FCS quarterfinals. The Panthers were ranked as high as No. 2 in the polls and led the nation in total yards (589.5) and points per game (48.2). EIU averaged 372.4 passing yards per contest and 217.1 rushing yards per game on its way to outscoring its opponents, 636-270. The offense was diverse with four different receivers totaling at least 700 yards and eight touchdowns apiece, and two running backs who combined for 2,539 yards rushing.

One of those receivers was 2012 Ohio Valley Conference Player of the Year Erik Lora, who set league single-season records with 136 receptions and 1,664 receiving yards. Lora followed up his stellar season with 123 catches for 1,544 yards and a conference-record 19 touchdowns in 2013.

Upon his arrival at EIU in 2012, Babers took a Panthers team that had finished last in the Ohio Valley Conference in 2011 and led them to a first-place finish with a 6-1 league mark. It was just the fourth time in OVC history that a team went from worst to first in the span of a season.

THE $138 MILLION MAN

The cornerstone of Babers' Eastern Illinois teams was quarterback Jimmy Garoppolo, who won the Walter Payton Award (the FCS equivalent of the Heisman Trophy) after throwing for 5,050 yards and 53 touchdowns as a senior in 2013. Garoppolo, now the starter for the San Francisco 49ers, passed for 8,873 yards and 84 scores in his two seasons with Babers to transform himself into a second-round draft pick. After spending his first three NFL seasons with the New England Patriots, Garoppolo was traded to the 49ers in 2017. He signed a $137.5 million contract with San Francisco in February 2018, making him one of the league's highest paid players. In 2019, Garoppolo guided the 49ers to the NFC title and an appearance in Super Bowl LIV.

PROFESSIONAL BUILDING BLOCKS

Prior to taking the helm at Eastern Illinois, Babers spent four seasons at Baylor in various capacities. Before that, he worked for four years at UCLA as assistant head coach, running backs coach and wide receivers coach.

A native of San Diego, California, Babers has also made assistant coaching stops at Pittsburgh, Texas A&M, Arizona, San Diego State, Purdue, Northern Arizona, UNLV and Eastern Illinois. He began his collegiate coaching career as a graduate assistant at Hawaii in 1984. Babers spent the next two seasons in a similar position at Arizona State before landing his first full-time job at Eastern Illinois in 1987.

Babers' time at both Texas A&M and Arizona included stints as the offensive coordinator. In 1998, he directed an Arizona attack that ranked in the top 20 in scoring offense (15th) and total offense (18th). The Wildcats were 12-1 that season and finished fourth in both polls.

Babers has coached or recruited more than 70 NFL players, including 33 draft picks, four All-Pros (Lance Briggs, Matthew Slater, Josh Gordon, Az-Zahir Hakim) and three Pro Bowlers (Briggs, Slater, Gordon).

Thirteen of his protégés have been picked in the first three rounds of the NFL Draft, including six in the first two rounds. Arizona running back Trung Canidate was the first-round choice of the St. Louis Rams in 2000. Along with Jimmy Garoppolo, wide receivers Brian Alford (Purdue), Will Blackwell (San Diego State), Dennis Northcutt (Arizona) and Josh Gordon (Baylor) were selected in the second round.

A 1984 graduate of the University of Hawaii with a bachelor's degree in education, Babers started at three different positions (outside linebacker, strong safety, running back) for the Warriors during his career, while earning Western Athletic Conference All-Academic honors. As a senior, he served as Hawaii's special teams captain and was the squad's leading rusher.

Babers tried out for the BC Lions of the Canadian Football League before an injury in training camp ended his playing career.

Babers, who received his master's degree in education administration and supervision from Arizona State in 1987, and his wife, Susan, have four daughters – Breeahnah, Tasha, Jazzmin and Paris. Jazzmin was a member of the Texas A&M volleyball team from 2012-16. She is married to former Orange offensive lineman Koda Martin. Breeahnah married Vincent Palmieri in June 2018.

JUSTIN LUSTIG

Assistant Head Coach
Special Teams Coordinator/Outside Receivers • Fourth Season

A 2018 Broyles Award nominee as the nation's top assistant coach, Justin Lustig was promoted to assistant head coach by Dino Babers in February 2019. He is in his fourth season with the Orange and his third season as the program's special teams coordinator and outside receivers coach. Lustig served as Syracuse's special teams coordinator and running backs coach in 2017.

Lustig has developed 47 all-conference players during his career. He has worked on the staffs of five teams that reached the NCAA playoffs and coached in three bowl games. He also spent one season as a head coach, winning Division II national coach of the year honors at Edinboro (Pa.) University in 2016.

Since arriving at Syracuse, Lustig's kicking and coverage teams have ranked among the best in college football. The Orange have led the ACC in net punting every year under Lustig and finished in the top 10 nationally in 2019 (3rd - 43.03) and 2017 (10th - 41.3). His 2017 punt team was No. 4 in the country in punt return defense (2.67 ypr) and set the school season record for fewest opponent punt returns (9). Additionally, Syracuse was No. 1 in the conference in kickoff coverage (42.7 net avg.). In 2019, Syracuse ranked fifth in the FBS in punt return defense (1.7 ypr) and surrendered just 17 punt return yards, the fewest in program history.

Lustig's dominant special teams helped propel the Orange to a 10-3 record in 2018. His units contributed two touchdowns (1 punt return, 1 blocked punt return) and the Orange finished sixth overall (No. 2 among Power-Five teams) in ESPN's special teams efficiency ratings.

Lustig has coached five All-ACC players at Syracuse, including four specialists. Chief among them is Andre Szmyt, who captured the 2018 Lou Groza Award as the nation's best placekicker. The third freshman to ever win the award and a unanimous All-American, Szmyt made an ACC-record 30 field goals and became the second kicker to lead the FBS in scoring (11.6 ppg).

Punter Sterling Hofrichter and return man Sean Riley also excelled under Lustig's guidance. The Syracuse career leader in punting yardage, Hofrichter capped his stellar career in 2019 by becoming the first Ray Guy Award finalist in school history and earning All-America honors from seven different selectors. Riley ended his Orange career as the program's all-time leader in kickoff returns (115), kickoff return yardage (2,433) and finished third all-time with 4,358 all-purpose yards. Both players are now in the NFL. Hofrichter was drafted by the Atlanta Falcons and Riley signed a free-agent contract with the New England Patriots.

Specialists aren't the only ones who have benefited from Lustig's teaching. In his first year as Syracuse's outside receivers coach, Lustig oversaw the development of Jamal Custis. Custis was named to the 2018 All-ACC Second Team and signed as a free agent with the Kansas City Chiefs following a breakout campaign in which he more than tripled his career receiving totals. In 2019, Lustig pupil Trishton Jackson, who is now a member of the Los Angeles Rams, was voted to the All-ACC Second Team after he became the first junior in Syracuse history to record a 1,000-yard receiving season.

Before joining the Orange, Lustig was the head coach at Edinboro University where he was named the 2016 D2Football.com Coach of the Year. Lustig inherited an 0-11 team and led the Fighting Scots to a 9-2 record in his only year at the helm. The turnaround was the best in Division II football history. Along with his national coach of the year award, Lustig was voted the Don Hansen Football Gazette Super Region One co-Coach of the Year and the Pennsylvania State Athletics Conference (PSAC) West Coach of the Year.

Prior to becoming the head coach at Edinboro, Lustig made assistant coaching stops at five schools, including four Division I institutions. His most notable achievements came at Ball State where he was the special teams coordinator and running backs coach from 2011-15. The Cardinals played in the 2012 Beef O'Brady's Bowl and the 2014 GoDaddy Bowl during Lustig's time in Muncie.

After starting his coaching career as an assistant at Christopher Newport from 2001-02, Lustig spent the 2003 season as the cornerbacks coach at Villanova. He returned to Christopher Newport for the 2004 and 2005 seasons, working as special teams coordinator, recruiting coordinator and defensive backs coach. His four-year tenure with the Captains featured a USA South Atlantic Conference co-championship and three NCAA Division III playoff berths.

Lustig served as special teams coordinator and running backs coach at Eastern Illinois from 2006-09. He helped EIU to two FCS playoff appearances and coached three 1,000-yard rushers.

Following his stint at Eastern Illinois, Lustig worked for two seasons at Louisiana-Lafayette as the special teams coordinator and running backs coach.

A 1996 graduate of Pennsylvania's Cathedral Prep, Lustig played collegiately at Bucknell. He was a four-year starter at defensive back for the Bison and captained the team as a senior.

Lustig earned his bachelor's degree in English and history from Bucknell in 2000. He received his master's degree in human resource management from George Washington University in 2005.

Lustig and his wife, Beth Ann, have two sons, Samuel and Henry.

STERLIN GILBERT

Offensive Coordinator/Quarterbacks • First Season

Sterlin Gilbert is in his first season as Syracuse's offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach. A Texas native well versed in the veer and shoot, Gilbert has run offenses and coached quarterbacks at the FBS, FCS and high school levels. He was most recently the head coach at McNeese State prior to joining the Orange.

Gilbert previously worked with Syracuse head coach Dino Babers for three seasons. They first joined forces at Eastern Illinois in 2012 and the pair transformed the Panthers into a fast-paced juggernaut behind the play of standout quarterback Jimmy Garoppolo. In his first season, Gilbert directed an EIU offense that ranked sixth in the nation in passing (334.9 ypg), seventh in total offense (470.9 ypg) and eighth in scoring (36.5 ppg). Garoppolo was seventh in the FCS in total offense (318.5 ypg), while receiver Erik Lora set the championship subdivision record for receptions (136) and led the country in receiving yards with (1,664) en route to being named the 2012 Ohio Valley Conference Offensive Player of the Year.

EIU was even better the next season, leading to Gilbert's selection as the 2013 FootballScoop.com FCS Coordinator of the Year. The Panthers led the nation in total offense (589.5 ypg), scoring (48.2 ppg) and ranked second in passing (372.4 ypg). EIU posted a 12-2 record and won the Ohio Valley Conference Championship. Garoppolo, now the starter for the San Francisco 49ers, won the 2013 Walter Payton Award (the FCS equivalent of the Heisman Trophy) as the nation's best player. He led the country and ranked second in FCS single-season history with 5,050 passing yards, while ranking second nationally and fourth in FCS history with 53 touchdown passes. Garoppolo, who was selected in the second round of the 2014 NFL Draft by the New England Patriots, passed for 8,873 yards and 84 touchdowns in his two seasons under Gilbert.

In addition to Garoppolo, five more Panthers were All-OVC First Team choices in 2013, including Lora, who was a two-time consensus All-American. Lora led the nation in receptions with 123, which tied for second in FCS history, trailing only his own record of 136 catches in 2012. Adam Drake was just behind Lora with 85 catches for 1,305 yards and 13 touchdowns to earn All-OVC Second Team recognition. Both signed free-agent contracts with NFL teams.

The EIU ground attack was equally impressive, nearly producing two 1,000-yard rushers. All-OVC First Team selection Shepard Little racked up 1,551 yards and 15 TDS, while All-OVC Second Team performer Taylor Duncan had 988 yards and 10 scores. Tight end Jeff LePak, offensive tackle Dominic Pagliara and guard Collin Seibert rounded out EIU's All-OVC First Team selections and were named All-Americans.

In 2014, Gilbert accompanied Babers to Bowling Green. Gilbert served as co-offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach for a unit that gained 432.9 total yards per game. BGSU achieved that production without starting quarterback Matt Johnson, who was injured and a year later would be named the 2015 Mid-American Conference Offensive Player of the Year. Gilbert mentored backup James Knapke, who threw for 3,173 yards despite only having 10 previous career passing attempts. The BGSU stable of running backs combined for 2,192 yards and 26 TDs, as the Falcons capped the season with a victory over South Alabama in the Raycom Media Camellia Bowl.

Over the next four seasons, Gilbert coached at Tulsa (2015), Texas (2016) and South Florida (2017-18). Standout performances and elite offensive production highlighted each stop. Tulsa wide receiver Keyarris Garrett led the country in receiving (122.2 ypg), while quarterback Dane Evans was seventh nationally in passing (333.2 ypg) in Gilbert's one year with the Golden Hurricane. At Texas, D'Onta Foreman led the FBS in rushing (184.4 ypg) and captured the 2016 Doak Walker Award as the top running back in college football. At USF, the Bulls ranked in the top 25 in eight NCAA statistical categories in 2017 on their way to a 10-2 record. The following year, the Bulls averaged 444.2 yards of total offense and 31.5 points per game to earn a spot opposite Marshall in the Gasparilla Bowl. USF quarterback Quinton Flowers ranked in the top 30 in six NCAA statistics and set the school single-season record with 27 touchdown passes.

Gilbert's track record as a coordinator earned him the head coaching job at McNeese State in 2019. He brought the up-tempo spread to the Cowboys and they responded with a 7-5 season, including four wins in their last five games. McNeese State's offensive output improved in nearly every statistical category from the previous year. The Cowboys averaged 382 yards per game of total offense (+92 yards from 2018), 220 yards passing (+40) and 163 yards a game rushing (+54). They also averaged 26 points per game (+6), passed for 24 touchdowns (+12) and rushed for 12 TDs (+8).

A former standout quarterback himself, Gilbert enjoyed a successful career as a Texas high school coach. He was head coach at his alma mater, San Angelo Lake View, from 2008-10 and earned West Texas High School Coach of the Year honors in his first season. He was also a highly successful offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Temple High School in 2011 and Abilene Cooper High School from 2006-07.

Gilbert began his career as an assistant coach at Springtown High School from 2003-04 before moving for one season to serve as a graduate assistant at the University of Houston.

A three-year starter and two-year captain for Angelo State University, Gilbert led the Rams to back-to-back Lone Star Conference South Division championships. He concluded his college career fourth on the school's all-time total offense record list. In high school, Gilbert was a two-time all-state quarterback and the 1996 district MVP at Lake View, where he also earned Big XII Region All-America and All-West Texas 4A MVP honors.

Gilbert earned his undergraduate degree in kinesiology with a minor in history from Angelo State in 2002.

He is engaged to Teresa Williams and is stepfather to her two children – Sonia and James.

TONY WHITE

Defensive Coordinator • First Season

A disciple of defensive guru Rocky Long and the two-time Scout.com Mountain West Recruiter of the Year, Tony White was hired as Syracuse's defensive coordinator in February 2020. He joined the Orange after serving as the cornerbacks coach and defensive passing game coordinator at Arizona State from 2018-19.

White arrived in Syracuse after a short stint as the Sun Devils' defensive coordinator, a position he was appointed to in December 2019. He ran the defense in ASU's 20-14 victory over Florida State in the 2019 Tony the Tiger Sun Bowl, a game in which the Sun Devils shut out the Seminoles for nearly three quarters and scored a defensive touchdown.

In White's two seasons at Arizona State, the Sun Devils allowed just 13 passing plays of 40+ yards – a marked improvement over the 34 such plays ASU gave up in the two years before White got to Tempe. The Sun Devil secondary made dramatic gains in White's first year, climbing 50 spots in the NCAA's passing defense rankings. That growth continued in 2019, as Arizona State finished the year 12th in the country with 65 passes defended. Three of White's cornerbacks – Kobe White (2019), Jack Jones (2019) and Aashari Crosswell (2018) – were All-Pac-12 Honorable Mention selections.

Before arriving at ASU, White cemented himself as one of the nation's top rising assistant coaches during a nine-year stint (2009-17) under Long at San Diego State. While helping the Aztec secondary consistently rank as one of the elite groups in the nation, White was named the Scout.com Mountain West Recruiter of the Year twice (2011, 2013). He was also recognized as the top recruiter among non-Power-Five schools in 2014 by Rivals.com.

White's tenure coincided with one of the most successful eras in SDSU history. The Aztecs went to eight bowl games in White's nine seasons and won three Mountain West Conference championships (2012, 2015, 2016).

SDSU finished with pass coverage grades ranked 31st or better in three of White's last four years with the Aztecs, according to Pro Football Focus. In 2017, the Aztecs were 11th nationally and first in the Mountain West in total defense (314.5 ypg) and ranked 15th in the country in passing yards allowed (178.7). The strong showing followed a 2016 campaign in which San Diego State led the FBS with 26 interceptions.

One of White's star pupils, Damontae Kazee, was instrumental to the success. Kazee became the first cornerback in conference history to win Mountain West Defensive Player of the Year honors twice, capturing the award in 2015 and 2016. Kazee also garnered 2015 USA Today Second Team All-America recognition and was selected by the Atlanta Falcons in the fifth round of the 2017 NFL Draft.

White also aided the development of cornerback J.J. Whittaker during that period. Whittaker earned All-Mountain West Second Team honors in 2014 and 2015 and was an All-MW Honorable Mention pick in 2013.

In 2015, the Aztecs authored one of the top defensive seasons in program history en route to the Mountain West title. San Diego State ranked second nationally with 23 interceptions and was No. 10 in passing efficiency defense (108.71). The performance came after a 2014 season in which SDSU ranked third in the FBS in defensive passing efficiency (112.1) and surrendered just 10 touchdowns through the air (second among Mountain West schools).

In 2013, White earned Scout.com Mountain West Recruiter of the Year honors for the second time in three seasons. On the field, Whittaker had a breakout first year under White's tutelage. He led the Aztecs with 14 passes defended, good for the fifth in the conference.

The first time White's recruiting prowess was formally recognized was in 2011 when he was tabbed Scout.com's Mountain West Recruiter of the Year. Again the award was coupled with on-field success by his protégés. Both of SDSU's starting cornerbacks, Leon McFadden and Larry Parker, earned first-team all-league honors. Parker, who was named an honorable mention All-American by SI.com, led the Mountain West with seven interceptions to tie for fourth nationally in his first season as a starter. McFadden, who topped the Mountain West in passes defended twice in his career, went on to become a third-round draft pick of the Cleveland Browns in 2013.

White came to San Diego State after spending the 2008 season with Long at New Mexico. White was in charge of the Lobos' linebackers and mentored two all-conference selections (Zach Arnett and Herbert Felder). The 2008 Lobos ranked 26th nationally against the run, 45th in total defense and 46th in scoring defense.

Before moving to Albuquerque, White got his start in the college ranks as the graduate assistant for football operations at UCLA in 2007. White assisted with the day-to-day running of the program, recruiting administration and distributed player information to pro scouts. In 2006, White served as the head football coach at St. Genevieve High School in Panorama City, California, where he led the team to its best record in 13 seasons and coached two first-team All-CIF selections.

As a player, White was a three-year starter and four-year letterman at outside linebacker for Bob Toledo at UCLA from 1997-2000. White made 64 tackles as a senior captain in 2000 and earned the program's N.N. Sugarman Award for Best Leadership. After his collegiate career ended, White played four seasons in the Canadian Football League for the Calgary Stampeders, Ottawa Renegades (now the Redblacks) and Hamilton Tiger-Cats.

A 2002 UCLA graduate, White holds a bachelor's degree in history.

CHRIS ACHUFF

Linebackers • First Season

A seasoned collegiate coach with an additional two years of NFL experience, Chris Achuff was named Syracuse's linebackers coach in March 2020. Achuff joined the Orange after most recently serving as the defensive line coach for the Arizona Cardinals where he worked with former Syracuse superstar and 2019 NFL All-Pro Chandler Jones.

Achuff spent two seasons in Arizona. He was the team's assistant defensive line coach in 2018 and was promoted to defensive line coach in 2019. In Achuff's first year with the franchise, Jones had a team-best 13 sacks as the Cardinals tied for fifth in the league with 49 sacks overall. Jones was even better in 2019. He finished second in the NFL with 19 sacks and tied for the league lead with eight forced fumbles to earn All-Pro First Team honors and his third Pro Bowl invitation. Combined with his 11 sacks in 2016 and 17 sacks in 2017, Jones became the first player in franchise history to record 10+ sacks in four consecutive seasons.

Prior to his time with the Cardinals, Achuff spent the first 19 years of his career at the collegiate level, including stints as the defensive line coach at Baylor (2008-16), Tennessee-Martin (2006-07), Charleston Southern (2005) and Chattanooga (2004).

During Achuff's tenure at Baylor, the Bears won back-to-back Big 12 Conference championships (2012-13) and he coached three All-Americans and 12 all-conference selections. Defensive tackle Phil Taylor was a first-round pick of the Cleveland Browns in 2011. Defensive tackle Andrew Billings was the 2015 Big 12 co-Defensive Player of the Year and Defensive Lineman of the Year, while also being named an All-American. Billings was selected by the Cincinnati Bengals in the fourth round of the 2016 NFL Draft.

Before his nine-year stint in Waco, Achuff worked for two years at UT Martin, helping the Skyhawks win the Ohio Valley Conference (OVC) title and advance to the FCS playoffs with a 9-3 record in 2006. UT Martin led the OVC and ranked 17th nationally in run defense and sixth nationally in total defense en route to its league title that season.

While at Charleston Southern in 2005, Achuff helped the Buccaneers win their first conference championship, while also achieving the first winning record (7-4) in school history. CSU was named the 2005 Division I-AA Team of the Year by College Sports Report. Achuff spent the 2004 season as the defensive line coach at Chattanooga after working for two seasons as a graduate assistant at Penn State (2002-03).

Achuff began his coaching career at his alma mater, Bloomsburg University, in 1998 as a student assistant working with the team's linebackers. Achuff then coached outside linebackers and led the strength and conditioning program at Bryant College in 1999. From there, he moved on to Kutztown University where he was in charge of the linebackers and strength and conditioning for two seasons (2000-01). Achuff spent the 2017 season at Navarro (Texas) Junior College working with the defensive line.

A native of Bellefonte, Pennsylvania, Achuff played linebacker and was a standout on special teams at Bloomsburg (1994-97) where he was a part of four PSAC championship teams.

He and his wife, Kim, have one daughter, Julia, and two sons, Carter and Tyler.

MIKE CAVANAUGH

Offensive Line • Third Season

Mike Cavanaugh, who has spent nearly his entire coaching career mentoring offensive linemen, is in his third season as the Orange's offensive line coach. Cavanaugh owns 15 seasons of Power-Five experience and has developed a host of players who have gone on to successful NFL careers.

In addition to his 32 years of collegiate experience, Cavanaugh spent two seasons (1997-98) in the National Football League as an assistant offensive line and quality control coach with the San Diego Chargers.

Cavanaugh arrived at Syracuse in 2018 and his influence was a key factor in the Orange's success. His work with the front five aided an offense that propelled Syracuse to a 10-3 record and a Camping World Bowl victory over West Virginia. The Orange ranked 11th nationally in scoring (40.2 ppg), tallied 50+ points a school-record five times and scored 40+ points in eight out of 13 games. In addition, the Orange scored a school-record 523 points and generated more than 6,000 yards of total offense for the second time in program history.

Cavanaugh's presence paid immediate dividends in the run game. The Orange increased their rushing average by 37.7 yards per game from 2017 to 2018 and tallied a school-record 38 touchdowns on the ground. Two of Cavanaugh's charges – left tackle Cody Conway and right tackle Koda Martin – received 2018 All-ACC honors and signed free-agent contracts with NFL teams after the season. Conway is a member of the Green Bay Packers, while Martin is with the Arizona Cardinals. A third member of that unit – guard Evan Adams – was a free-agent pickup by the Baltimore Ravens after the 2019 campaign.

In addition to Adams' ascension to an NFL-caliber guard, Cavanaugh oversaw the development of right tackle Matthew Bergeron in 2019. The first true freshman to start a game at tackle for the Orange since 2002, Bergeron made five first-string appearances and earned Pro Football Focus Freshman All-America honors.

Before joining the Orange, Cavanaugh was the offensive line coach from 2015-17 at Nebraska where his units were among the best at protecting the passer. The Cornhuskers ranked in the top 15 in fewest sacks allowed in two of Cavanaugh's three seasons in Lincoln. In 2016, Nebraska surrendered 15 sacks to rank first in the Big Ten and 14th in the country, as the Huskers went 8-4 record and advanced to the Music City Bowl.

The previous season, the Huskers gave up 14 sacks to rank second in the conference and ninth nationally. Cavanaugh's front five helped Nebraska finish in the top three of the Big Ten in scoring offense, passing offense, total offense and third-down percentage. The Huskers also generated 3,000 passing yards and 2,000 rushing yards in the same season for just the third time in program history.

Prior to his Nebraska appointment, Cavanaugh spent 10 seasons (2005-14) as the offensive line coach at Oregon State where the performance of his unit led to record-setting offensive numbers and six bowl appearances. Behind the play of Cavanaugh's group, quarterback Sean Mannion, who completed his career in 2014, set single-season and career Pac-12 records for passing yards. Oregon State's offensive line also cleared the way for several all-conference runners, including Yvenson Bernard and Jacquizz Rodgers, who each produced three 1,000-yard seasons while Cavanaugh was on staff.

Because of the Beavers' success, Cavanaugh's Oregon State players were regularly rewarded for their performance. Andy Levitre, Jeremy Perry and Isaac Seumalo garnered All-America honors, while 23 of his players earned all-conference recognition. Levitre and Seumalo were among the several Beavers who played for Cavanaugh to be drafted into the NFL.

As the offensive line coach at Hawaii rom 1999-2004, Cavanaugh played a key role in directing some of college football's top offenses. The Warriors ranked in the top 10 nationally in total offense three times in Cavanaugh's six seasons. His Hawaii units featured future pros Samson Satele, Adrian Klemm, Kynan Forney and Wayne Hunter, among others.

Before his stint at Hawaii, Cavanaugh made college coaching stops at Ferris State, Sacred Heart, Murray State, Alma College and Wesleyan College (Conn.).

A player at New Haven from 1981-82, Cavanaugh got his coaching start as a graduate assistant at Albany in 1986. That same year, he received his bachelor's degree in physical education from Southern Connecticut State.

Cavanaugh and his wife, Laurie, have two sons – Blair and Shane. Blair Cavanaugh is in his second season as the Orange's special teams quality control assistant.

RENO FERRI

Tight Ends/Inside Receivers • Fifth Season

A veteran coach with strong recruiting ties to New York, New Jersey and the Mid-Atlantic Region, Reno Ferri is in his fifth year with the Orange. He was named tight ends coach by Dino Babers in January 2016 and began overseeing the inside receivers in 2018.

Ferri's work has helped the Orange produce three of the four highest total offense seasons in program history, including the second 6,000-yard campaign in the Syracuse annals in 2018. Additionally, his mentorship has aided in the development of Orange standouts Aaron Hackett, Sean Riley and Ravian Pierce.

In 2019, Hackett blossomed into one of the most productive red-zone threats in the ACC and Riley put a bow on his successful collegiate career. Hackett caught 23 passes, including six touchdowns, on his way to winning the program's Bill Maxwell Award as Syracuse's most improved offensive player. Hackett's six TD catches were second among ACC tight ends and the most for an Orange player at the position since 2011. Riley, who is currently a member of the New England Patriots, snagged 36 passes in his final campaign to finish No. 10 in school history with 119 receptions. Overall, 84 percent (100 out of 119) of Riley's career catches came in the two seasons with Ferri.

In 2018, Ferri's units contributed to a record-setting offense that powered the Orange to a 10-3 record and a Camping World Bowl victory against West Virginia. Syracuse tallied a program-best 523 points and tied the school record with 62 touchdowns. Riley led the team with 64 catches and ranked sixth in the conference in receptions per game (4.9) on his way to All-ACC Third Team honors.

Ferri's guidance of Pierce aided a 2017 Syracuse passing attack that ranked second in the ACC at 294.8 yards per game. Pierce caught 29 passes for 263 yards and four touchdowns, the most receptions for an Orange tight end since Beckett Wales had 35 in 2012.

Ferri arrived at Syracuse in 2016 after spending the previous five seasons at Towson where he worked with the running backs, fullbacks and tight ends. He was also the recruiting coordinator for the Tigers from 2011-15.

In Ferri's three seasons as running backs coach, Towson averaged more than 230 yards rushing per game and posted an overall record of 29-10. In 2013, the Tigers ran for more than 240 yards per contest en route to a 13-3 record and an appearance in the FCS title game.

Under Ferri's guidance, the Towson ground attack shattered virtually every school record. His 2013 stable of backs rushed for a school-record 3,830 yards and scored 55 touchdowns. In 2011, Ferri's first year leading the unit, the group averaged 229.9 yards per game, a mark that led the Colonial Athletic Association (CAA).

Individually, Ferri coached four Towson ball carriers who earned All-CAA honors and three FCS All-Americans. In 2013, former Baltimore Ravens running back Terrance West set the FCS season records for rushing yards (2,509) and rushing touchdowns (41). West was a first-team All-American and was named the CAA Player of the Year. As a freshman in 2011, West led the FCS with 29 rushing scores. He was tabbed the CAA Offensive Rookie of the Year and captured the Jerry Rice Award as the top freshman in FCS football. West entered the NFL Draft after his junior year and was selected by the Cleveland Browns in the third round. Ferri pupils Tyler Wharton and Emmanuel Holder also earned All-America honors during that time.

Prior to his stint at Towson, Ferri spent six seasons at Akron. He joined the Zips In 2004 as a graduate assistant coach for offense. The following year, he served as Akron's director of football operations and was part of a Zips staff that guided the team to the 2005 Mid-American Conference (MAC) title and a berth in the Motor City Bowl.

Ferri was promoted to wide receivers coach in 2006 and was named running backs coach the following season, a position he held for three years. During that time, he mentored All-MAC selection Bryan Williams and Dennis Kennedy. In 2008, Kennedy ran for 1,321 yards, the third-best season rushing total in Akron history at the time, and set the school season records for both rushing touchdowns (17) and total touchdowns (18).

Ferri was Akron's recruiting coordinator from 2005 to 2009, leading an effort that resulted in Akron landing the No. 1 class in the MAC three years running from 2005-07.

A native of Youngstown, Ohio, Ferri is a 2000 graduate of the U.S. Military Academy. A three-year letterwinner at running back, he was a member of the first Army West Point team to compete in Conference USA. As a rookie in 1996, Ferri was part of a nationally-ranked Black Knights squad that was 10-2 and played Auburn in the Independence Bowl.

After earning his bachelor's degree in general management with a minor in systems engineering, Ferri began his coaching career in 2000 as a graduate assistant at West Point.

A first lieutenant in the U.S. Army from May 2000 to March 2002, Ferri served as a fire direction officer and battalion survey officer. He also previously worked as a consultant for British Petroleum. A systems engineer, Ferri and his team designed and implemented a web-based tracking system for BP to monitor the 16,000 vessels responding to the Deep Water Horizon oil spill in the Gulf of Mexico.

Ferri and his wife, Rebekah, have four children – Giana, Zola, Sofie and Reno III.

MIKE LYNCH

Running Backs • Fifth Season

A versatile coach who has taught every position on offense, Mike Lynch is in his third season as Syracuse's running backs coach. In addition to tutoring the team's ball carriers, Lynch was Syracuse's offensive coordinator from 2018-2019. He served as the Orange's co-offensive coordinator and offensive line coach in 2016 and 2017.

Overall, Lynch is in his ninth season working with Dino Babers and his fifth season with the Orange.

In his first year as sole offensive coordinator, Lynch directed a 2018 Syracuse attack that propelled the program to its first double-digit win season in 17 years and the No. 15 final ranking in the Associated Press Top 25 and Amway Coaches polls. Behind record-setting quarterback Eric Dungey, the Orange ranked 11th nationally in scoring (40.2 ppg) and set the school records for most plays (1,063) and most points (523) in a season. Additionally, the Orange tied the all-time program mark with 62 total touchdowns, including a record 38 rushing scores. After the season, Lynch pupil Dontae Strickland signed as a free agent with the Arizona Cardinals.

In 2019, Syracuse tallied 30+ points five times and averaged 40.7 points per contest over the final three games of the season. The Orange were among the best at taking care of the football in the passing game, finishing second in the ACC for the fewest had passes intercepted (7). Running back Moe Neal was Syracuse's leading rusher for the second straight year and completed his career ninth in program history with 2,560 rushing yards.

When Lynch first arrived in Central New York, he served as the Orange's co-offensive coordinator and offensive line coach for two seasons. During that time, he laid the foundation for the program's breakout 2018 campaign. In 2017, the Orange were third in the ACC in total offense (456.3 ypg) and second in passing (294.8 ypg). Lynch's work with the offensive line paved the way for four 500+ yard total offense games. Offensive tackle Jamar McGloster, now a member of the CFL's Ottawa Redblacks, signed a free-agent contract with the San Francisco 49ers after the season.

Lynch's first year at Syracuse in 2016 marked the dawn of a new era for the program. The transition from a run-based scheme to the up-tempo spread favored by Babers resulted in more than 40 school records being set. Among them were new season standards for completions (332) and passing yards (3,855). The play of Lynch's unit was critical to the production. The Orange front five protected a collection of quarterbacks who ranked 11th nationally in passing at 321.3 yards per game.

Lynch came to Syracuse after helping run one of the most explosive offenses in college football at Bowling Green. As the co-offensive coordinator, as well as the offensive line and running backs coach for the Falcons in 2015, Bowling Green ranked in the top 10 nationally in first downs (1st - 389), total offense (4th - 546.8 ypg), passing offense (5th - 366.8 ypg), third-down conversion percentage (5th - .502) and scoring offense (6th - 42.2 ppg). The unit powered the Falcons to the Mid-American Conference (MAC) title and an appearance in the 2015 GoDaddy Bowl.

Lynch's tutelage helped produce seven 2015 All-MAC selections on offense, including linemen Alex Huettel (second team), Jacob Bennett (second team) and running back Travis Greene (first team). Huettel earned All-America honors from Phil Steele and was selected to participate in the 2016 East-West Shrine Bowl.

Before adding co-offensive coordinator and offensive line coach to his duties, Lynch served as Bowling Green's running backs coach in 2014. That season, he mentored the trio of Greene, Fred Coppet and Andre Givens. The threesome combined for 2,192 yards and 26 touchdowns on the ground to help the Falcons capture the MAC East Division crown and win the inaugural Raycom Media Camellia Bowl.

Prior to his stint at Bowling Green, Lynch was an assistant coach from 2005-13 at Eastern Illinois. He spent his final two years at EIU as the running backs coach under Babers and coached two 1,000-yard rushers. All-Ohio Valley Conference honoree Jake Walker ran for 1,133 yards and 12 touchdowns in 2012. The following season, Shepard Little was named to the All-OVC First Team after rushing for 1,551 yards and 15 scores.

Most of Lynch's first six years at EIU were spent coaching the wide receivers. While in that position, he guided the career of 2006 All-American Micah Rucker and led several productive units, including a 2011 Panther receiving corps that accounted for 20 of the team's 34 touchdowns.

Lynch got his first taste of coaching in 1999 as a restricted earnings coach at Montana. After a year with the Grizzlies, Lynch spent five seasons at Utah State. While with the Aggies, he coached three tight ends who signed with NFL teams. Chris Cooley, a two-time Pro Bowler, was the third-round selection of the Washington Redskins in the 2003 NFL Draft, while J.R. Suguturaga (Miami Dolphins) and Casey Poppinga (Pittsburgh Steelers) both signed free-agent contracts.

A Roseville, California native, Lynch was an offensive lineman for Sierra Junior College before finishing his collegiate career at Montana in 1997 and 1998. The Grizzlies combined to win 16 games with Lynch on the roster and reached the Divsion I-AA (now FCS) playoffs both seasons.

Lynch holds a bachelor's degree from Montana and a master's degree in secondary education from Utah State. He married the former Emily Schilling in June 2011. The couple has two children – Madison and Will.

NICK MONROE

Safeties/Nickelbacks • Fifth Season

Nick Monroe, who has won conference championships at each of his previous coaching stops, is in his fifth year with the Orange. He joined the staff in 2016 and served as Syracuse's secondary coach for two seasons before narrowing his focus to the Orange's safeties and nickelbacks in 2018.

Over the past two seasons, Monroe has co-directed a Syracuse pass defense that has thrived on creating turnovers. The Orange have intercepted 31 passes in 25 games (1.24 per game) since the start of 2018, including a streak of 17 straight games with a pick from Aug. 31, 2018 to Sept. 21, 2019. The streak tied for the third-longest in major college football since 2004.

In 2018, Monroe's first year in his current role, Syracuse's defensive backfield was fifth nationally in interceptions (18). His unit was directly responsible for 11 picks, including an FBS-leading seven by freshman Andre Cisco. The takeaways contributed to a 111-46 advantage in points off turnovers, as the Orange went 10-3 and won the 2018 Camping World Bowl. Cisco was recognized as one of the top safeties in America. He was voted the ACC Defensive Rookie of the Year and became the first true freshman in program history to earn All-America honors.

Cisco continued to flourish as a sophomore in 2019. He led the conference for the second year in row with five interceptions and ranked fourth nationally in interceptions per game (0.6). Cisco also tied for third in the ACC in passes defended per game (1.11) on his way to All-ACC Second Team honors. As a team, the Orange ranked fifth nationally in passes defended per game at 5.67 per contest.

In addition to his mentorship of Cisco, Monroe worked with Evan Foster from 2016-19. A three-year starter at strong safety, Foster concluded his career No. 9 among Syracuse defensive backs with 234 career tackles.

Prior to coming to Syracuse, Monroe served as the secondary coach at Bowling Green from 2010-15. He consistently produced units that ranked among the nation's best and helped the Falcons to four straight bowl games and two Mid-American Conference (MAC) titles. Monroe's guidance also helped turn Jude Adjei-Barimah into a contributor in the National Football League. A defensive back for Bowling Green from 2011-14, Adjei-Barimah played 23 games (eight starts) for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers from 2015-16.

When Monroe arrived at Bowling Green in 2010, he inherited an inexperienced unit that featured four new starters. In two seasons, he molded them into one of the stingiest defensive backfields in the country. Featuring All-MAC performers BooBoo Gates and Cameron Truss, the 2012 Falcons ranked 13th nationally in passing defense (190.1 ypg) to help lift the team to an 8-5 record and an appearance in the Military Bowl.

The following season, the Bowling Green secondary was even better. The Falcons finished sixth in the FBS against the pass (170.9 ypg) and Gates earned All-MAC First Team honors for the second year in a row. As a team, Bowling Green won its first conference championship since 1992 and played Pittsburgh in the 2013 Little Caesars Pizza Bowl.

In 2014, his first season working for Dino Babers, Monroe successfully oversaw the maturation of safety Brian Sutton and the development of two young cornerbacks. Sutton's production skyrocketed from the previous season. He finished second on the team with 102 tackles after making 43 stops the year before. In addition, rookie cornerbacks Nick Johnson and Clint Stephens combined for nine interceptions. The unit also featured Adjei-Barimah, who recorded 82 tackles. The quartet was critical to Bowling Green's success. The Falcons won the MAC East title and defeated South Alabama in the inaugural Raycom Media Camellia Bowl.

In 2015, Bowling Green posted a 10-4 record, won the MAC championship for the second time in three seasons, and earned a berth in the GoDaddy Bowl. Monroe's defensive backfield once again helped the Falcons soar, finishing eighth in the FBS with 20 interceptions, including a team-high six picks by cornerback Alfonso Mack.

Before his stint at Bowling Green, Monroe coached defense for six years at Colgate University. He coached the outside linebackers from 2004-05 before shifting to secondary coach in 2006. In 2009, he was promoted to co-defensive coordinator and helped implement a scheme that stymied the opposition. The Raiders led the Patriot League and finished 29th nationally in total defense (308.2 ypg) that year. Colgate was 9-2 and held seven of its opponents to 20 points or less. Monroe also served as the team's recruiting coordinator for five seasons.

In his last three years with the Raiders, Monroe mentored four first-team All-Patriot League selections (Uzi Idah, Wayne Moten, Chris Ekpo, Cody Williams) and one second-team honoree (Moten). In addition, defensive back Demitri Diamond was named the 2009 Patriot League Rookie of the Year.

Colgate won a pair of Patriot League titles (2005, 2008) while Monroe was on staff and made two Division I-AA (now FCS) playoff appearances.

Prior to his time at Colgate, Monroe was the secondary coach in 2002 and 2003 at Allegheny College. He helped the Gators capture the 2003 North Coast Athletic Conference (NCAC) championship and earn a berth in the NCAA Division III playoffs.

Monroe was a four-year letterwinner at cornerback for St. Cloud State University in Minnesota. He earned his undergraduate degree in marketing from the school in 2001.

Nick and his wife, Nicole, have a son, Wyatt.

VINSON REYNOLDS

Defensive Line • Fifth Season

A dynamic recruiter and teacher, Vinson Reynolds was named the Orange's defensive line coach in January 2016. He coached the defensive tackles exclusively from 2017-19 before assuming responsibility for leading the entire unit again in 2020.

Reynolds' work with Syracuse's trenchmen has been a primary factor in the Orange's rise to becoming one of the most disruptive defenses in college football. Syracuse has 56 takeaways the past two seasons (2.2 per game) and owns a +22 turnover margin over that span. The Orange are one of two FBS teams (Arizona State is other) to rank in the top 15 in average turnover margin in both 2018 and 2019. Syracuse was fifth in 2018 (+1.0) and No. 13 in 2019 (+0.75).

When Reynolds arrived at Syracuse in 2016, he molded a young defensive line that featured future NFL Draft selection Chris Slayton and two freshman starters at defensive end. The results showed the following season, as his group of interior linemen contributed to a Syracuse defense that allowed 6.4 fewer points, 28.3 fewer rushing yards and 57.1 fewer total yards per game than the year before.

The growth continued in 2018. Syracuse ranked in the top 10 nationally in five defensive categories, including turnovers gained (3rd - 31), fumbles recovered (5th - 13) and sacks (6th - 3.31 per game). The performance helped spur the Orange to a 10-3 record and a Camping World Bowl victory over West Virginia. Slayton flourished as the anchor of the front seven. He earned an invitation to the East-West Shrine Bowl after the season and was drafted by the New York Giants.

In 2019, Syracuse led the ACC and ranked 11th nationally with 12 fumble recoveries. Reynolds protégé Kenneth Ruff recovered two loose footballs to tie for team-high honors.

During his time with the Orange, Reynolds has also made his mark on the recruiting trail. He has used his Midwest connections to open a pipeline to Syracuse, particularly from the state of Michigan. He also served as the primary recruiting coach for ESPN 300 quarterback Tommy DeVito.

Reynolds joined the Orange after serving as the defensive line coach at Western Michigan from 2013-15. At WMU, he was part of a staff that engineered one of the most impressive turnarounds in FBS history. Reynolds and the WMU coaches transformed the Broncos from a 1-11 team in 2012 into a program that earned consecutive bowl berths in 2014 and 2015. The 2015 Broncos were 8-5 and defeated Middle Tennessee 45-31 in the Bahamas Bowl, the first bowl victory in school history.

In 2014, Reynolds directed a Western Michigan defensive line that recorded 17 of the team's 29 sacks. The unit was part of a Bronco defense that finished third in the Mid-American Conference (MAC) in points allowed per game. Reynolds also was recognized for his recruiting prowess that year. Rivals.com named him to its list of the top 10 recruiters from schools outside the Power Five and American Athletic Conference (formerly known as the Big Six). That year Reynolds helped solidify, what was at the time, the website's highest ranked class (No. 58) in MAC history.

Prior to his stint in Kalamazoo, Reynolds mentored the defensive linemen at Central Michigan where he helped the Chippewas to a win over Western Kentucky in the 2012 Little Caesars Pizza Bowl. The group included Pittsburgh Steelers and Buffalo Bills defensive end Leterrius Walton, who was selected in the sixth round of the 2015 NFL Draft.

Before making the move to CMU, Reynolds was the defensive line coach at Central Oklahoma in 2010. He also previously worked as a graduate assistant and defensive quality control coach at Oklahoma State for head coach Mike Gundy. Oklahoma State made appearances in the 2008 Holiday Bowl and 2010 Cotton Bowl while Reynolds was on the OSU staff.

Reynolds started his coaching career in 2006 as the defensive line coach at Division III University of Wisconsin-Platteville.

In addition to his collegiate experience, Reynolds has completed two NFL internships. In 2015, he gained critical coaching skills and perspective with the Baltimore Ravens under John Harbaugh. During the summer of 2016, Reynolds worked with head coach Chuck Pagano and the staff of the Indianapolis Colts.

A Detroit, Michigan native, Reynolds played his college football at Northern Illinois from 2000-03. He was named to the All-MAC First Team at defensive end as a senior after totaling 76 tackles, including 15 for a loss, and six sacks.

Reynolds earned his undergraduate degree from Northern Illinois in 2004. He received his master's degree in adult education from Wisconsin-Platteville in 2007.

Reynolds and his wife, Cynthia, have three sons – Eric Coley, Josiah Reynolds and Jeremiah Reynolds. Eric Coley is a redshirt junior defensive back for the Orange.

The Reynolds family (L-R): Josiah, Vinson, Cynthia, Eric Coley and Jeremiah.

CHIP WEST

Cornerbacks • First Season

Chip West was hired as Syracuse's cornerbacks coach in February 2020. An award-winning recruiter with more than 20 years of college coaching experience, West came to Central New York after most recently serving as the cornerbacks coach at Marshall in 2019.

In West's one season at Marshall, the Thundering Herd posted an 8-5 record and earned a berth in the Gasparilla Bowl. He mentored 2019 All-Conference USA First Team honoree Chris Jackson, who finished his career as Marshall's all-time leader in pass breakups, and was selected by the Tennessee Titans in the 2020 NFL Draft.

Prior to joining the Thundering Herd, West was the co-defensive coordinator and cornerbacks coach at Charlotte in 2018 and held the same positions at Howard University in 2017. At Charlotte, West helped run a 49ers unit that ranked second nationally in first downs allowed (197), ninth in rushing defense (105.7 ypg) and 22nd in total defense (337.3 ypg).

From 2010-15, West worked as the cornerbacks coach at Virginia. In addition to guiding the careers of multiple Cavaliers who went on to play in the NFL, West made his mark on the recruiting trail. In February 2014, Rivals.com and Scout.com each named West its Atlantic Coast Conference Recruiter of the Year. Three years prior, West was tabbed the ACC Recruiter of the Year for 2011 by 247Sports.com and he was one eight finalists for the organization's national recruiter of the year award. Named Virginia's recruiting coordinator after the 2012 season, West spearheaded an effort that landed the Cavaliers numerous highly-rated prospects during his six seasons in Charlottesville, including two of the nation's top-10 recruits. Virginia signed three top-30 classes with West on staff.

As effective as West was on the recruiting circuit, he was equally as successful as a position coach for the Cavaliers. West mentored two-time All-ACC First Team selection Chase Minnifield, who played in the NFL with the Washington Redskins. He also coached New York Jets cornerback Maurice Canaday and Ras-I Dowling, who was a second-round pick in the 2011 NFL Draft by the New England Patriots. The Virginia secondary also featured Rodney McLeod, who won a Super Bowl with the Philadelphia Eagles.

A Hampton, Virginia native, West was the assistant head coach, defensive backs coach and recruiting coordinator at Old Dominion for three seasons (2007-09) before joining the Virginia staff. In 2009, ODU went 9-2 in its first season as an FCS program.

Before his stop at Old Dominion, West coached at James Madison from 2004-2006. He oversaw the JMU defensive backs, most notably developing free safety Tony LeZotte, a 2005 All-American and the Atlantic 10 Conference Defensive Player of the Year. The Dukes won the Division I-AA (now FCS) national championship in 2004 – West's first season on staff – and finished 13-2. In 2006, JMU returned to the FCS playoffs, losing in the first round at Youngstown State.

In 2003, West served as the defensive backs coach at Fordham when the Rams were 9-3. His first full-time coaching assignment was at Colgate, where he worked as the wide receivers coach for four years (1999-2002). The Raiders shared the 2002 Patriot League title, posting a 9-3 overall record and a 6-1 league mark. Colgate led the Patriot League that season in total offense, averaging 392.5 yards per game, including 215 yards a game passing. In 1999, Colgate won the Patriot League title and reached the Division I-AA playoffs.

West began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at West Virginia from 1997-98. He worked with the defense and was part of the staff that helped the Mountaineers earn invitations to the Carquest and Insight.com bowls.

A standout player at Virginia's Kecoughtan High School, West earned All-CIAA honors as a wide receiver at Livingstone College. He received his bachelor's degree in computer information systems from Livingstone in 1993 and earned a master's degree in physical education from West Virginia in 1999.

West and his wife, Patrice, are the parents of five children – Zoe, David, Gwen, Justin and Jada.

SEAN EDINGER

Assistant AD/Athletic Performance • Fifth Season

Sean Edinger is in his fifth year as the football program's assistant athletics director for athletic performance. Appointed to the position in January 2016, Edinger is responsible for designing training programs to increase the conditioning, speed, strength and agility of Syracuse's football student-athletes.

Edinger's work has led to dramatically improved results in the team's performance testing. In February 2019, a total of 17 Orange players ran sub-4.6 in the 40-yard dash compared to four when Edinger first arrived. The team's strength gains have been equally as impressive. Thirty-five players squatted at least 500 pounds in 2019, up from 14 Edinger's first year. On the bench press, 18 were able to lift more than 350 pounds compared to 10 in 2016.

Syracuse's increased strength and speed have translated onto the football field, as the Orange recorded their first 10-win season in 17 years in 2018.

Prior to joining the Orange, Edinger served as the director of strength and conditioning at Bowling Green for two seasons, overseeing the strength and conditioning programs for BGSU's 18 sports. Edinger previously held a similar position at Eastern Illinois from June 2012 until 2014 when he accompanied Dino Babers to Bowling Green.

Before his stint at Eastern Illinois, Edinger was the head strength coach at Central Missouri. Edinger was directly responsible for all aspects of the Mules' strength and conditioning program. He also previously worked as the head strength coach for football and volleyball at Haskell Indian Nations University in Lawrence, Kansas in 2008.

A graduate assistant at Missouri for two seasons, Edinger worked with the Tiger volleyball and tennis teams. He also assisted with the football strength and conditioning program, helping players prepare for pro days and professional combines.

Edinger has trained a host of collegiate standouts who have gone on to play professional football. Since Edinger got to Syracuse, 21 Orange players have signed NFL contracts, including draft picks Zaire Franklin, Chris Slayton, Alton Robinson and Sterling Hofrichter.

At Central Missouri, Edinger worked with quarterback Eric Czerniewski, who won the 2010 Harlon Hill Trophy as the top player in Division II football. Edinger's stint at Eastern Illinois included coaching current San Francisco 49ers quarterback Jimmy Garoppolo and record-setting receiver Erik Lora. NFL receivers Gehrig Dieter, Roger Lewis, linebacker Gabe Martin and 2015 Mid-American Conference Player of the Year Matt Johnson are just of few of Edinger's successful Bowling Green protégés.

Edinger is a 2006 graduate of the University of Kansas. He earned his master's degree from Missouri in 2008. Edinger is SCCC certified through the Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Coaches Association (CSCCa) and holds a USA Weightlifting Level 1 Performance certification. A member of the U.S. National Karate Team for five years, Edinger has more than 30 years of experience in the martial arts.

Sean Edinger and Dino Babers have worked together since 2012 when Babers was hired as the head coach at Eastern Illinois.

RYAN BARTOW

Director of High School Relations

Ryan Bartow was hired as Syracuse's director of high school relations in February 2020. Bartow held the same position at Oregon in 2018 and worked as a scout for the coaching technology company XOS Digital immediately prior to his arrival in Central New York.

Bartow is responsible for managing the recruiting interactions between Syracuse University, prospective student-athletes, and the staffs of the high schools they attend. He evaluates prospects to determine their position on the program's recruiting board and assists in hosting prospects and their families during campus visits.

At XOS Digital, Bartow was the company's West Coast scout. He evaluated prospects for XOS's recruit database and generated reports for college program subscribers. He also maintained client relationships and conducted sales meetings with prospective clients.

Bartow spent the 2018 season as the director of high school relations at Oregon. He was with the Ducks for two recruiting cycles and helped Oregon land the Pac-12's No. 1 classes in 2019 and 2020. Bartow's responsibilities included evaluating prospects, updating Oregon's recruiting boards, coordinating travel for in-home visits and serving as a guide for campus tours.

Prior to his time in Eugene, Bartow covered the recruiting scene for 12 years. He served as the lead college football recruiting reporter for 247Sports.com from 2013 to 2017. Before that, he was the associate editor and recruiting analyst for Clemson's Rivals site (TigersIllustrated.com) from 2006-13. Bartow started out covering the North Carolina basketball, football and recruiting beats for TarHeelIllustrated.com from 2005-06.

Bartow graduated with a bachelor's degree in English from the University of Wisconsin-Oshkosh in 2003.

AUSTIN BEEHNER

Director of Video Operations

Austin Beehner returned to the Syracuse football staff as the director of video operations in March 2013. He previously served as a video operations intern for the Orange during the spring of 2012, while completing his undergraduate degree in sport management at SUNY Cortland.

As Syracuse's director of video operations, Beehner is responsible for managing the internal video network, preparing game and practice film for coaches and student-athletes, supervising interns, and managing a staff of student camera operators.

Prior to rejoining the Orange, Beehner was the football video operations assistant at Ohio State from June 2012 through the end of the football season. He recorded, imported and edited game and practice film, managed the department's student assistants, and provided technical support for coaches and student-athletes. He also helped produce opponent breakdowns and self-scouting films for the Buckeyes.

In his first stint at Syracuse, Beehner was responsible for gathering and editing game and practice film. He also produced individual player highlight films and the 2012 senior banquet video.

KATIE BERARDI

Administrative Assistant for Dino Babers

Katie Berardi became the administrative assistant for head coach Dino Babers in August 2016. She is the primary liaison between Babers and Syracuse University staff, faculty, administration, the business community and the general public.

Prior to her current appointment, Berardi worked as the football program's office coordinator from 2007-16. She managed the daily operations of the Iocolano-Petty Football Complex and provided administrative support to assistant coaches, the director of player development, the assistant athletics director for athletic performance and the director of football operations. Berardi also served as a liaison with NFL scouting departments and the NCAA Eligibility Clearinghouse.

Berardi is a Syracuse University alumna. She received her bachelor's degree from the school in 2006.

Katie and her husband, John, reside in Jamesville with their son, Giovanni.

KEITH CATON

Assistant Strength & Conditioning Coach

Keith Caton joined the Orange staff as an assistant strength and conditioning coach in January 2018. Caton came to Syracuse after serving as the director of athletic performance for football at Indiana from 2016-17.

Caton has worked 15 bowl games in his career, including the 2018 Camping World Bowl in his first season with the Orange.

Overall, Caton has 20 years of experience in the profession with additional stops at Baylor (2012-15), Western Kentucky (2011-12), Missouri (2005-10), Elon (2003-04), Auburn (2001-03) and Southern Miss (1999-2001).

Prior to his arrival in Bloomington, Caton was Baylor's director of football athletic performance. The Bears posted a 40-12 record in his four seasons, including three straight 10-win campaigns.

At Western Kentucky, Caton worked with football and led all aspects of the strength and conditioning programs for baseball and track & field.

Caton was named assistant strength and conditioning director at Missouri in August 2005. In addition, he served as the director of the Mizzou Performance Club. He assisted with football and led the design and implementation of the strength and conditioning programs for baseball and wrestling.

In January 2004, Caton was promoted to head strength and conditioning coach at Elon, where he oversaw the development of all varsity sports.

Caton graduated from Auburn with an educational specialist degree in 2003. While there, he assisted with football, baseball, softball and oversaw equestrian.

A four-year player for Southern Miss from 1995-99, Caton helped the Golden Eagles to two bowl appearances. He remained at the school after his playing days as a strength and conditioning graduate assistant from June 1999 to May 2001. Caton received his undergraduate degree in exercise physiology from Southern Miss in 1999. He earned his master's degree in coaching and sports administration in 2001.

In 2016, Caton was awarded the title of Master Strength and Conditioning Coach by the Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Coaches Association (CSCCa), the highest honor in the profession. He is SCCC certified and also holds a USA Weightlifting Level 1 Performance certification.

A Mobile, Alabama native, Caton and his wife, Adriene, have three children – Kade, Weslie and Kole.

SUPPORT STAFF

BLAIR CAVANAUGH

Quality Control (Special Teams)

Blair Cavanaugh joined the Orange staff in February 2019. The son of Syracuse offensive line coach Mike Cavanaugh, Blair is in his second season as the Orange's quality control coach for special teams.

Before coming to Syracuse, Cavanaugh was a graduate assistant at Ball State from 2017-18. He helped coach the Cardinals wide receivers, including 2018 All-MAC selections Riley Miller and Justin Hall. Cavanaugh also made a brief stop at Nebraska as an offensive staff volunteer.

Cavanaugh played his college football at Portland State and Oregon State. A wide receiver himself, Cavanaugh began his career with Oregon State and was a member of OSU's 2012 Alamo Bowl and 2013 Hawaii Bowl teams. In 2012, he was named Oregon State's Offensive Scout Team Player of the Year. Cavanaugh played his final two seasons at Portland State and helped the Vikings to the 2015 FCS playoffs.

Cavanaugh earned his bachelor's degree in social science from Portland State in 2016.

BRITNEY CLARKE

Assistant Director/ Student-Athlete Academic Development

Britney Clarke joined Syracuse's Student-Athlete Academic Development staff as an academic coordinator in 2015. She was promoted to assistant director in 2018.

Clarke monitors and tracks the initial and continuing eligibility of football student-athletes and works with the Orange women's tennis team. She assists in all aspects of academic support, including arranging tutors, academic monitoring and reporting, advising, and orientations. She is responsible for keeping coaches informed of student-athletes' academic progress, the APR and eligibility concerns. Additionally, Clarke works with other Student-Athlete Academic Development staff members to implement life-skills programming.

Prior to coming to Syracuse, Clarke was an academic counselor at Arizona from 2013-15. While with the Wildcats, she worked with the women's track & field and gymnastics teams, ensuring those 100-125 student-athletes met NCAA eligibility requirements.

Before being promoted to full-time, Clarke completed an internship from May to July 2013 in the Arizona Academic Services Department. In that role, she developed a campus-level transitions course for first-year student-athletes. The course focused on identifying transferrable skills and expanding upon their identities as athletes.

Clarke began her academic counseling career as a graduate assistant at Stephen F. Austin from July 2012 to May 2013.

A 2012 University of Miami graduate, Clarke was a multi-event athlete for the Hurricanes track & field team for four seasons. She competed in both the pentathlon and heptathlon, finishing eighth in the pentathlon at the ACC Indoor Track & Field Championship as a senior.

Clarke received her bachelor's degree in exercise physiology from Miami. She earned her master's degree in higher education from Arizona in 2015.

KRAMER COOK

Director of Recruiting Operations

Kramer Cook was promoted to director of recruiting operations in October 2018. Cook joined the Orange staff as a recruiting quality control assistant in November 2016 and served as Syracuse's assistant director of recruiting before assuming his current position.

Cook is in charge of Syracuse's efforts to identify and attract the nation's top football prospects.

Before his arrival in Central New York, Cook served as the football recruiting and technology analyst at Coastal Carolina. He was elevated to that position in July 2016 after working as the Chanticleers' senior recruiting and technology intern for a year. In those roles, Cook coordinated the program's on-campus recruiting efforts, managed official visits for prospective student-athletes, and led tours for recruits and their families. Additionally, he implemented a comprehensive training program for incoming freshmen to aid in their development as student-athletes. He also oversaw the social media content for the Chanticleers' Twitter, Facebook, Instagram and Snapchat accounts.

Prior to his time at Coastal Carolina, Cook was a graduate assistant coach at Robert Morris University in Chicago. From 2013-14, he worked with the team's defensive line and placekickers. Cook also assisted in the development of rush schemes and game plans for the Eagles, who boasted the No. 1 rushing defense (75.8 ypg) in the NAIA in 2014. Cook organized the scout team offense each week and served as the team's head of recruitment for all junior-college prospects.

Cook graduated from the University of Wisconsin-Eau Claire in 2012 with a bachelor's degree in psychology and a minor in coaching. In addition, he holds two graduate degrees from Robert Morris, one in sport administration and one in business administration.

JUSTIN DiTOLLA

Assistant AD/Compliance

Justin DiTolla was appointed assistant athletic director for compliance at Syracuse University in August 2017. He serves as the compliance liaison for the football, field hockey and softball programs.

DiTolla is responsible for the day-to-day compliance operations of all three teams to ensure adherence to NCAA, Atlantic Coast Conference and University rules and regulations. In addition, he is responsible for the comprehensive rules education program for coaches, student-athletes, boosters, athletic department staff and other University officials.

Before coming to Syracuse, DiTolla was the assistant director of compliance at UCLA from September 2013 to July 2017. There he worked with the football, softball, men's volleyball, women's water polo, and men's & women's golf programs. He implemented agent and amateurism programming to ensure student-athletes maintained their eligibility while exploring professional careers in sports. He also oversaw the transfer process for all incoming and outgoing student-athletes.

DiTolla began his career as a compliance intern at Oregon from October 2011 to September 2013. He earned his undergraduate degree in business with an emphasis on finance from the University of San Diego in 2011. He was a member of the 2007 USD football team that won a share of the Pioneer League title.

SHAWN EMMONS

Assistant Director/Video & Technology

Shawn Emmons assumed the role of assistant director of video and technology in 2018. He is in his eighth season on the Syracuse staff. Emmons previously spent three years as the team's assistant video coordinator. He started with the Orange as a video operations intern in 2013 and 2014.

Emmons is responsible for managing the football program's video network. He imports and categorizes self-scouting and opponent scouting footage for the coaching staff. He also supervises a team of interns who film practices and games, and assists in the creation of team recruiting and highlight videos.

Prior to his full-time appointment, Emmons was responsible for providing sideline and end-zone practice and game film. He also cataloged and edited opponent film.

Emmons completed his bachelor's degree in sport management at SUNY Fredonia in 2013. He also holds an associate's degree from Tompkins Cortland Community College.

KYLE FETTERLY

Head Equipment Manager

Kyle Fetterly has been the head equipment manager at Syracuse University since 1983. He is responsible for all athletics equipment purchasing, reconditioning, maintenance and inventory control.

Fetterly previously worked as the Orange's assistant equipment manager and as a student equipment manager. He is certified by the Athletic Equipment Managers Association (AEMA) and has been involved with the organization since entering the field. He's served on various boards, including Nike, Schutt, Bike, Brine and Champion in an effort to enhance the protective equipment for all sports. He is a frequent speaker at national and regional AEMA workshops. Fetterly has staffed 15 bowl games for the football team, including the 2018 Camping World Bowl.

Fetterly, who lives in Liverpool, earned his bachelor's degree in retail management from Syracuse in May 2009.

DAVID GETTIS

Quality Control (Offense)

Former NFL receiver David Gettis is in his third year as a quality control coach for the Orange. Gettis played two seasons for the Carolina Panthers and also spent time with the Washington Redskins, Tampa Bay Buccaneers and the Canadian Football League's Winnipeg Blue Bombers during his pro career.

A collegiate standout at Baylor from 2006-09, Gettis played for Syracuse head coach Dino Babers for two seasons when Babers was Baylor's wide receivers coach.

Gettis finished his college career ranked seventh at Baylor in career receiving yards (1,555), tied for eighth all-time in receptions (116) and eighth in kick return average (22.7).

A 2009 All-Big 12 Honorable Mention choice, Gettis was selected by the Carolina Panthers in the sixth round of the 2010 NFL Draft. He played a combined 17 games for the Panthers from 2010-12. As a rookie in 2010, he tallied 37 receptions for 508 yards and a team-high three touchdown catches. He also returned eight kickoffs for 145 yards.

In 2015, Gettis returned to Baylor to complete his undergraduate degree and spent the 2015 football season as a student coach for the Bears. He worked as a graduate assistant on Coach Jim Grobe's Baylor staff the following year.

Gettis received his first full-time coaching job in 2017, serving as the wide receivers coach for the University of Texas Permian Basin.

A native of Los Angeles, California, Gettis holds a bachelor's degree in health, kinesiology and leisure studies from Baylor.

GINO GIGLIOTTI

Quality Control (Recruiting)

Gino Gigliotti joined the Orange recruiting staff in 2019 and was promoted to recruiting quality control assistant in March 2020. Gigliotti aids in the program's initiatives to attract the best possible student-athletes to Syracuse University.

Gigliotti's previous experience includes a two-year stint at Coastal Carolina. He was hired as a recruiting and video technology intern for Chanticleers in 2017 and spent the 2018 season as a recruiting analyst. Gigliotti's duties included organizing recruiting schedules for coaches, watching and evaluating game film, assisting with official visits and helping maintain Coastal Carolina's recruiting board.

In addition to his work with the Chanticleers, Gigliotti was a manager and defensive quality control coach for SUNY Cortland in 2016. He analyzed practice and game film, signaled in defensive plays from the sideline during games, and led the film distribution to Red Dragon players and coaches.

A Cortland graduate, Gigliotti holds a bachelor's degree in sport management.

SUPPORT STAFF

TRAVIS GREENE

Graduate Assistant (Offense)

The all-time leading rusher at Bowling Green, Travis Greene is in his third season as a graduate assistant at Syracuse. Greene joined the Orange in February 2018 as an offensive quality control coach before shifting to his current position.

Greene was a running back for the Falcons for three seasons. He rushed for a school-record 3,852 yards, including 1,299 yards and 15 touchdowns as a senior captain in 2015 to help BGSU capture the Mid-American Conference (MAC) title in their second year under Dino Babers. Greene previously set the Bowling Green single-season rushing record with 1,594 yards in 2013.

A two-time All-MAC selection, Greene helped the Falcons to two conference titles, three MAC championship game appearances, and a victory in the 2014 Raycom Media Camellia Bowl. He was voted MVP of the 2015 league championship game after running for a career-high 183 yards and two touchdowns versus Northern Illinois.

Greene signed with the Washington Redskins as an undrafted free agent in May 2016. He was also briefly a member of the Canadian Football League's Ottawa Redblacks.

Greene received his bachelor's degree in liberal arts from Bowling Green in 2015. He is pursuing a master's degree in instructional design, development and evaluation at Syracuse.

Greene's brother, Trent, was previously a defensive graduate assistant for the Orange from 2017-19.

BRANDON HALL

Assistant Athletic Trainer

A graduate assistant athletic trainer for the Orange from 2013-15, Brandon Hall rejoined the Syracuse Sports Medicine Department in October 2016 as an assistant athletic trainer for football.

Hall's first full-time athletic training position after earning his master's degree in exercise science from Syracuse was at the College of William & Mary in 2015-16. He worked with a variety of sports for the Tribe, including baseball, track & field and cross country.

A Massachusetts native and University of New Hampshire graduate with a bachelor's degree in athletic training, Hall holds certifications in several manual therapy and rehabilitative interventions, including the Graston Technique and Blood Flow Restriction Therapy (BFRT). He is also a certified Corrective Exercise Specialist (CES).

At New Hampshire, Hall was a four-year member of the UNH men's rowing team that competed in the ECAC and at multiple national regattas. Hall has volunteered his athletic training services at the Boston Marathon for the last six years. He is an active member of the National Athletic Trainers Association (NATA), College Athletic Trainers Society and New York State Athletic Trainers Association.

DEBBIE HILLS

Office Coordinator

Debbie Hills joined the football administrative staff as office coordinator in September 2019. As the program's first public contact, she manages the daily operations of the Iocolano-Petty Football Complex and provides administrative support to the assistant coaches and the director of player personnel.

Prior to her current appointment, Hills held positions within Syracuse University at the Office of Alumni Relations, Kappa Alpha Theta Sorority, the football office and the Martin J. Whitman School of Management.

Hills earned her bachelor's degree in elementary education and French in 1994 from SUNY Potsdam. She also holds a master's degree in education from the school.

Debbie and her husband, Mark, reside in Manlius with their four children – Sarah, Scott, Lauren and Brian.

JEFF LePAK

Offensive Analyst

A member of Dino Babers' Syracuse staff from 2016-18, Jeff LePak rejoined the Orange in February 2020. He is in his first season as the team's offensive analyst. LePak returned to Central New York after spending the 2019 season as the inside receivers coach at McNeese State.

In his role as analyst, LePak supports the offensive coaching staff in implementing game plans and practice preparation. He is responsible for reviewing game film and providing analytical assessments of opponents, as well as self-scouting reports of Syracuse's own personnel, schemes and tendencies. Additionally, LePak provides administrative support to the recruiting department in the form of player evaluations and management of the offensive recruiting board.

LePak held multiple positions during his first stint with the Orange. He was hired as Syracuse's operations and recruiting assistant in February 2016. Later that year, LePak became the program's special teams quality control coach, a position he held through the end of the 2018 season. The Orange fielded some of college football's best coverage units and led the ACC in net punting in each of LePak's two full seasons working with Syracuse's special teams.

At McNeese State, LePak was a member of an offensive staff that helped the Cowboys improve dramatically in nearly every statistical category from the previous year. In 2019, McNeese State saw an increase in total yards per game (+92 yards from 2018), passing yards per game (+40), rushing yards per game (+54), points per game (+6) and touchdown passes (+12). Additionally, LePak pupil Cyron Sutton set the McNeese State single-season record with 67 receptions.

A star tight end for Babers at Eastern Illinois, LePak started his coaching career as a graduate assistant under Babers in 2015 at Bowling Green. LePak worked with the team's tight ends and was part of a staff that led the Falcons to the Mid-American Conference title and a berth in the GoDaddy Bowl.

A Belton, Texas native, LePak was a wide receiver at Baylor from 2010-12 before transferring to EIU. LePak caught 81 passes for more than 1,000 yards and nine TDs in two seasons with the Panthers, including 51 catches and eight TDs in 2013. A team captain as a senior, LePak was a two-time All-Ohio Valley Conference First Team selection. He earned All-America honors in 2013 after helping the Panthers reach the FCS quarterfinals.

LePak graduated with a bachelor's degree in psychology from Eastern Illinois in 2014.

JENNIFER LOCEY

Academic Coordinator

Jennifer Locey has been a coordinator for the Syracuse's Student-Athlete Academic Development staff since April 2017. She tracks and monitors the initial and continuing eligibility of football and women's soccer student-athletes.

In her role as academic coordinator, Locey assists in all areas of academic support including: academic monitoring and reporting, advising, and orientations. She is responsible for keeping coaches informed of student-athletes' academic progress, the team APR and eligibility concerns.

Before she started working with women's soccer, Locey was also department's tutorial coordinator. She hired, trained and supervised a staff of roughly 100 tutors and instructional assistants. She also scheduled and maintained all student-athlete tutorial appointments.

Locey came to Syracuse after working as a learning specialist and tutorial coordinator at Ole Miss. Prior to that, she served as an assistant academic advisor for the football and men's golf teams at Central Florida.

Locey received her bachelor's and master's degrees – both in education – from the University of Miami in 2014 and 2015, respectively.

ALISON MITCHELL

Assistant Athletic Trainer

Alison Mitchell was hired as an assistant athletic trainer for football in 2020. Prior to joining the Orange, Mitchell served as an athletic training intern for the University of Michigan football program during the 2019-20 academic year.

In addition to her stint with the Wolverines, Mitchell's previous experience includes a 2019 summer athletic training internship with the Carolina Panthers and two years as a graduate assistant athletic trainer for the University of South Carolina.

At South Carolina, Mitchell worked with the Gamecocks' football team in the summer of 2018. She also provided athletic training services to Columbia's Heathwood Hall Episcopal School and South Carolina State University during that time. Mitchell was the primary athletic trainer for SCSU's volleyball, track & field and softball teams, while assisting with other sports as necessary.

Mitchell is a member of several professional athletic training organizations, including the National Athletic Trainers Association (NATA). Her certifications include Graston Module I, Mulligan Concept Manual Therapy for the Lower Body and Spine, and Mental Health First Aid.

The recipient of multiple professional and postgraduate scholarships, Mitchell earned her bachelor's degree in athletic training in 2017 from Salisbury University, where she worked with five teams as an undergraduate athletic trainer. During her final semester at Salisbury, Mitchell completed a five-month internship with the Navy men's lacrosse program. She graduated from South Carolina in 2019 with a master's degree in advanced athletic training.

MIKE MORRISON

Assistant Director/Athletic Communications

Mike Morrison rejoined the Syracuse Athletic Communications staff in August 2005 and became the primary media contact for the football program in 2015. Since he began overseeing the football media relations operation, Morrison has successfully promoted six All-Americans, including 2018 Lou Groza Award winner Andre Szmyt.

In addition to football, Morrison has worked with the Orange men's lacrosse, men's soccer, women's basketball and softball teams during his career. In 2011, Morrison was part of the media relations staff that was recognized by the Football Writers Association of America (FWAA) with "Super 11" status for excellence in sports information.

Prior to his full-time appointment, Morrison worked in the Syracuse office as a student assistant and intern from 2002-04. During the 2004-05 academic year, he was the assistant sports information director at George Washington University. At GW, Morrison served as the media coordinator for the 2004 Atlantic 10 Men's Soccer Championship and 2005 Atlantic 10 Women's Basketball Championship.

A graduate of Ithaca College, Morrison received his bachelor's degree in sports information and communication from the school in 2002. He earned his master's degree in public relations from Syracuse University in 2003.

Morrison's publications work has been recognized by the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA). His 2008 Syracuse men's soccer media guide was voted eighth nationally. In addition, Morrison served on the group's membership services committee for five years.

Morrison has worked four bowl games and several NCAA championship events during his tenure, including the 2002, 2010 and 2015 NCAA Men's Basketball East Regionals at the Dome, and the 2008, 2009 and 2013 NCAA Men's Lacrosse Championships.

Morrison resides in Liverpool with his wife, Cheri, and their two sons, Kellan and Sean.

DAVID ORLOFF

Graduate Assistant (Defense)

David Orloff is in his third season as a graduate assistant for the Orange. Orloff came to Syracuse in February 2018 as a defensive quality control coach before shifting to his current position.

Prior to joining the Syracuse staff, Orloff served as a defensive and special teams graduate assistant at UNLV from 2015-17. He was an undergraduate assistant coach at San Jose State from 2010-14.

During his time at UNLV, Orloff worked as the defensive coordinator for the 2017 New Era Bowl, an all-star game featuring a mix of Japanese and American-born football players and coaches. Orloff's responsibilities for the Rebels included scripting defensive practice periods, organizing the scout team offense and special teams units, and breaking down film.

Orloff earned his bachelor's degree in mathematics from San Jose State in 2015. He holds a master's degree in special education from UNLV and is pursuing a second master's degree in instructional design, development and evaluation at Syracuse.

TIM PIKE

Head Athletic Trainer for Football

Tim Pike was named head athletic trainer for the Syracuse football program in 2017. He manages all phases of athletic training for the Orange, including the treatment of injuries, rehabilitation and game coverage.

Pike has 13 seasons of college football experience. Before joining the Orange, Pike served as the head athletic trainer at Marshall from 2014-2016.

At Marshall, Pike oversaw a sports medicine staff of nine full-time employees. His primary sport assignment was football where he coordinated all athletic training aspects for the Thundering Herd.

Prior to his stint at Marshall, Pike spent seven seasons as the head athletic trainer for football at Eastern Kentucky. In addition to working with the Colonels' football team, Pike supervised EKU's athletic training graduate assistants and managed secondary insurance needs for all student-athletes.

Pike got his start as a student athletic trainer at the University of Kentucky, covering men's soccer, baseball and assisting with football, from 1998-2001. He also served as a graduate assistant at North Carolina from 2001-03.

Outside of collegiate athletics, Pike's experience includes providing athletic training services and working as a clinical supervisor. While in Kentucky, he lent his expertise to area high schools, St. Catharine College and the Lexington Horsemen indoor football team.

A noted speaker, Pike has presented on numerous topics at athletic training conventions and symposiums during his career. He holds several professional certifications and memberships.

Pike earned his undergraduate degree in exercise science from Kentucky in 2001. He received his master's degree in exercise and sport science with an emphasis on athletic training from North Carolina in 2003.

Pike and his wife, Kelli, have two sons – Kaleb and Kamden.

LAURENE PORILLO

Administrative Specialist for Recruiting

As the administrative specialist for recruiting, Laurene Porillo supports the football staff in its efforts to attract the best possible talent to Syracuse University. She helps maintain the recruiting database and assists in the coordination of official and unofficial visits. Porillo also serves as the liaison for incoming student-athletes and their families during the admissions process.

Porillo, who joined the football staff in 2003, received her associate's degree from SUNY Canton. Prior to joining the football office, Porillo held various administrative positions in the legal, business and real estate fields.

She and her husband, Nick, reside in Liverpool. They have two children, Matthew and Meghan.

JACK POTENZA

Graduate Assistant (Defense)

Syracuse alum Jack Potenza is in his first season as a defensive graduate assistant. Potenza served as a recruiting office assistant and student coach for the Orange as an undergraduate.

A native of Fairfield, Connecticut, Potenza was a two-sport athlete in football (quarterback) and lacrosse (midfielder) at St. Lawrence University before transferring to Syracuse.

Upon arriving in Central New York, Potenza spent the 2018 season assisting Director of Recruiting Operations Kramer Cook with prospect summaries and analysis. In 2019, he was assigned to defensive line coach Vinson Reynolds and assisted in the planning of defensive individual and scout team practice periods. He also created film breakdowns and tendency reports of opposing offensive linemen for the Orange front four.

In addition to his work at Syracuse, Potenza also has experience at the professional level. In 2018 and 2019, he spent the summer as a Washington Redskins training camp intern.

Potenza holds a bachelor's degree in economics from Syracuse. He is enrolled in the instructional design, development and evaluation graduate program.

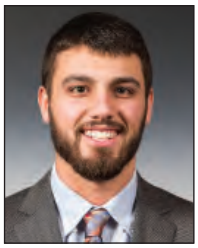
JIM SCHLENSKER

Head Equipment Manager for Football

Jim Schlensker joined the Syracuse equipment staff in 1994 and was promoted to head equipment manager for football in January 2011.

His primary responsibilities include gameday preparation of equipment and locker room facilities for both home and away contests, as well as office duties. Schlensker is responsible for football equipment purchasing and reconditioning, maintenance and inventory control. He has staffed 10 bowl games for the Orange, including the 2018 Camping World Bowl.

Schlensker came to Syracuse from Northwestern. The Fort Wayne, Indiana native is a 1990 graduate of St. Joseph's College. He is certified by the Athletic Equipment Managers Association (AEMA).



DAVID SCORZELLI

Assistant Strength & Conditioning Coach

David Scorzelli has been a member of the Syracuse football strength and conditioning staff since 2016. He was promoted to assistant strength and conditioning coach in February 2018 after serving as an intern for two seasons.

Prior to joining the Orange, Scorzelli was a speed/strength and conditioning intern for Coastal Carolina in 2015. There he worked with Chanticleer football, men's basketball and volleyball student-athletes. Scorzelli educated them on appropriate training, exercise techniques and assisted them with recovery modalities.

A Certified Strength and Conditioning Specialist (CSCS), Scorzelli graduated from Harding University with a bachelor's degree in exercise and sports sciences. In 2019, Scorzelli received his SCCC certification from the Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Coaches Association (CSCCa).

BRYAN SHEPHERD

Quality Control (Defense)

Bryan Shepherd, who served as cornerbacks coach for North Dakota State's 2017 FCS national championship team, is in his third season as a quality control coach at Syracuse.

A 2015 NDSU graduate, Shepherd served on the coaching staff at his alma mater for two seasons. He worked as a defensive assistant in 2016 and was promoted to full-time cornerbacks coach in February 2017.

In first season on the staff, Shepherd worked with NDSU's defensive backs in addition to coordinating the scout team offense and special teams. In 2017, Shepherd mentored a collection of cornerbacks who helped the Bison rank first nationally in total defense (237.4 ypg), second in passing efficiency defense (93.12) and third in interceptions (22). Overall, NDSU went 14-1 and defeated James Madison to win its sixth FCS national title.

Before joining the coaching staff, Shepherd was a defensive back for the Bison's first three FCS national championship teams (2011-13). He went on to play for the Washington Redskins in the 2014 preseason as an undrafted free agent. In 2015, he spent time with the Montreal Alouettes of the Canadian Football League.

A native of Olathe, Kansas, Shepherd attended the University of Nebraska Omaha for two years before transferring to North Dakota State. He earned his bachelor's degree in university studies from NDSU in 2015.

SEAN TETER

Assistant Strength & Conditioning Coach

Sean Teter was named an assistant strength and conditioning coach for football in February 2018. He came to Syracuse after serving as the head strength and conditioning coordinator at Central Missouri for six years.

At Central Missouri, Teter was responsible for implementing the strength and conditioning programs for all 17 of the school's intercollegiate sports. He directly supervised football, men's and women's basketball, baseball, softball, men's and women's golf, wrestling and bowling.

Teter worked with two national championship teams during his stint in Warrensburg. The Mules men's basketball team captured the NCAA Division II title in 2014 and the Jennies women's soccer team won it all in 2017.

Teter joined the Central Missouri staff in December of 2010 as a graduate assistant in strength and conditioning before leading the department.

Prior to working at Central Missouri, Teter was a strength and conditioning intern at MidAmerica Nazarene University in Olathe, Kansas.

A two-year football letterman at Butler Community College, Teter transferred to Kansas and earned his bachelor's degree in sports science from KU in 2010. He graduated from Central Missouri in 2016 with a master's degree in physical education.

Teter is SCCC certified through the Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Coaches Association (CSCCa) and holds a USA Weightlifting Level 1 Performance certification.

DAN WEBB

Assistant Strength & Conditioning Coach

A strength and conditioning intern during the 2018 season, Dan Webb was promoted to assistant strength and conditioning coach for football in the spring of 2019.

Webb previously worked as the director of strength and conditioning for the Akron football program from 2012-14. He spent the 2011 season as a graduate assistant for the Zips.

From 2008-10, Webb was a member of the strength and conditioning staff at Michigan, serving one year as an intern and two seasons as an assistant coach. During that time he trained student-athletes from multiple sports, including football, men's ice hockey and wrestling.

Prior to joining the Akron staff, Webb worked at Strength In Motion in Syracuse. He taught proper Olympic lifting techniques, nutrition and customized training programs for his clients. Among the athletes he worked with were select members of the Orange men's basketball team.

Webb has a bachelor's degree in kinesiology and fitness development from SUNY Cortland and a master's degree in sport science and coaching from Akron. He is a member of the National Strength and Conditioning Association (NSCA) and is a Certified Strength and Conditioning Specialist (CSCS).

SUPPORT STAFF

BRAD WITTKE

Director of Operations

Brad Wittke was named Syracuse's director of football operations in January of 2016 after serving in the same capacity for head coach Dino Babers at Bowling Green in 2015.

Wittke is responsible for the day-to-day operations of the Orange program, including budget management, capital projects, travel, meals and the team calendar. He has a role in most non-coaching decisions and serves as director for the Dino Babers Summer Football Camp series.

In December 2018, Wittke was in charge of logistics for Syracuse's appearance in the Camping World Bowl. He oversaw all details and arrangements for the players, staff, student staff and staff families when the team shifted its operations from Syracuse to Orlando, Florida for the final week of game preparation. Those responsibilities included coordinating travel, hotel accommodations, meals, practices and the team's participation in bowl-sponsored events.

Addiitonal highlights of Wittke's tenure include working closely with Nike to design the uniforms the Orange debuted in 2019 and leading several major projects to enhance Syracuse's football facilities. For more than a year, Wittke and Nike conducted extensive research to create a design that combined the rich history of Syracuse football with Nike's advanced performance technology, resulting in a uniform kit that drew rave reviews from players, fans and media alike. He also oversaw the upgrades made to the surfaces of the Ben Schwartzwalder and Maury Katz Practice Fields and spearheaded the redesign of multiple spaces utilized by Orange student-athletes and staff, including the player lounge, Ferguson Auditorium, parts of the Michael M. Bill '58 Locker Room, the weight room and the Ensley Athletic Center.

Wittke's stint at Bowling Green marked his return to the college ranks after three seasons in the front office of the Arena Football League's Pittsburgh Power. Before joining the Power, Wittke gained collegiate team operations experience at both Eastern Illinois and Arizona State.

While at Arizona State, Wittke served as an operations assistant for the men's basketball program. His responsibilities included film exchange, high school relations, recruiting travel and other duties.

At Eastern Illinois, Wittke was a graduate assistant for New Student Programs. Late in his time there, Wittke became a football scouting assistant where he aided in film analysis of future opponents and self scouting. Wittke also worked as an intern for PlayNextLevel.com while in Charleston.

Wittke began his Arena Football League tenure as an operations assistant with the Power shortly after the conclusion of the 2011 season. He assisted on all projects related to football operations, gameday experience and player personnel. He also coordinated travel and player accommodations.

The following year, Wittke was promoted to director of player personnel. He oversaw all decisions related to the recruitment and signing of players from July 2012 through the 2014 season. In that position, Wittke expanded the organization's scouting and recruitment initiatives and retooled a roster that improved by 11 wins from 2013 to 2014.

A 2009 Arizona State graduate with a degree in management, Wittke holds a master's degree in sport administration from Eastern Illinois.

Wittke and his wife, Jane, reside in Clay with their son, Brooks.

Wittke's father, Roy, is the Orange football program's director of player personnel.

ROY WITTKE

Director of Player Personnel

A fixture in college football for four decades, Roy Wittke assumed the role of director of player personnel in 2020 after serving as Syracuse's director of player development for four seasons. Wittke is in charge of roster management and acts as the primary liaison between the program and University personnel, including the Student-Athlete Academic Development staff. Additionally, he oversees the team's community outreach programs and serves as an advisor to the Syracuse University chapter of Uplifting Athletes.

During Wittke's tenure, the Orange received AFCA Academic Honorable Mention status each season until the AFCA discontinued the recognition in 2018. Additionally, the team earned the 2016-17 'Cuse Cares Award for its outstanding commitment to community service.

Several players have been individually recognized for their civic engagement activities during Wittke's time at Syracuse. Linebacker Kielan Whitner was selected to the 2018 AFCA Allstate Good Works Team for his dedication to community service and enriching the lives of others. Former Uplifting Athletes chapter presidents Zack Mahoney and Sam Heckel were named finalists for the Uplifting Athletes Rare Disease Champion Award. Heckel was also voted to the inaugural Uplifting Athletes Rare Disease Champion Team in 2019. The trio all received the ACC's Top Six for Service Award at least once during their careers.

Prior to joining the Orange, Wittke was Bowling Green's recruiting coordinator (2015) and director of operations (2014) under Dino Babers.

Before making the transition from coach to administrator, Wittke spent 33 years on the sidelines. He coached 19 seasons at Eastern Illinois, 17 of which were spent as the offensive coordinator in two separate stints under head coach Bob Spoo.

As the architect of the Panthers offense from 1990-2002, Wittke helped EIU win 82 games and make five FCS playoff appearances. He is best known for developing former Dallas Cowboys Pro Bowl quarterback Tony Romo during that period. Under Wittke's direction, Romo was named Ohio Valley Conference Player of the Year three times and captured the 2002 Walter Payton Award as the best player in Division I-AA (now FCS). Wittke was honored as the AFCA Division I-AA Assistant Coach of the Year in Romo's senior season of 2002, as the Panthers ranked fourth in the nation in scoring (35.3 ppg) and fifth in total offense (452.6 ypg).

Wittke coached 14 players who earned All-America honors and numerous all-league selections in both the Ohio Valley Conference and Gateway Football Conference during his first stint at EIU. In addition, three of his offensive units ranked among the top five in EIU single-season history for both total offense and scoring.

After the 2002 season, Wittke worked as the offensive coordinator at Arkansas from 2003-05. He spent one season each at Arizona State (2006) and Northern Illinois (2007). In 2003, he helped the Razorbacks to the Independence Bowl. Wittke coached in the 2006 Hawaii Bowl with Arizona State.

Wittke returned to Eastern Illinois as offensive coordinator in 2008. His second go-around with the Panthers included tutoring another NFL quarterback – Jimmy Garoppolo. The second-round pick of the New England Patriots in 2014, Garoppolo earned Ohio Valley Conference Newcomer of the Year honors in 2010 despite only eight starts. Garoppolo continued his development under Wittke in 2011 and, like Romo, eventually went on to win the Walter Payton Award as the top FCS player as a senior in 2014.

After the 2011 season, Wittke made the move to administration, serving as EIU's director of operations under Babers from 2012-13.

In addition to his stops at Eastern Illinois, Arkansas and Northern Illinois, Wittke's coaching résumé includes stints at his alma mater, the University of Wisconsin-Eau Claire (1979-81), Montana State (1982-84) and Central Missouri State (1985-89).

Wittke is a 1982 graduate of Wisconsin-Eau Claire. He and his wife, Patty, have three children – sons Brad and Jeff, and daughter Bekah. Brad Wittke is Syracuse's director of football operations.

PACKED HOUSE

• A raucous crowd of 50,428 fans were on hand for Syracuse's home opener versus top-ranked Clemson on Sept. 14. It was the ninth Carrier Dome sellout for football and the eighth gathering of 50,000+ in the stadium's history, which dates back to 1980.
• The game marked the first time Syracuse sold out a conference game as either a member of the BIG EAST or ACC.

Largest Dome Crowds

Date	Opponent	Attend
Sept. 20, 1980	Miami (Ohio)	50,564

HACKETT HITS PAYDIRT

• TE Aaron Hackett had six touchdown catches in 2019. He ranked second on the Orange in TD receptions behind WR Trishton Jackson and earned Syracuse's Bill Maxwell Award as the team's most improved offensive player.
• For perspective, Hackett totaled one TD in 21 games played entering the season.
• Hackett's six scores were the most for an Orange tight end since Nick Provo led the team with seven during the 2011 campaign.

Most TD Receptions (ACC Tight Ends)

Rk.	Player, Team	No.
1.	Marshon Ford, UL	7
2.	Aaron Hackett, SU	6
3.	Dalton Keene, VT	5

	Cary Angeline, NCST	5

BREAKIN' UP IS HARD TO DO

• The Orange defense had 68 passes defended (13 INT, 55 PBU) in 2019, which tied for 15th nationally.
• Syracuse averaged 5.67 passes defended per game, which was fifth. The performance marked the first time since 2005 the Orange averaged better than 5.0 passes defended per game.
• CB Christopher Fredrick (3 INT, 7 PBU), CB Ifeatu Melifonwu (2 INT, 8 PBU) and S Andre Cisco (5 INT, 5 PBU) led the way with 10 each.

Most Passes Defended Per Game (FBS)

SECOND-HALF SURGE

• Syracuse allowed 12.6 points per game after halftime compared to 18.1 prior to intermission during the 2019 season.
• Over the last eight games of the year, the unit was even better, limiting the opposition to an average of 10.8 points an outing following the break.
• The Orange did not allow a second-half touchdown in four out of its last eight games (vs. Holy Cross, at NC State, vs. Pittsburgh, at Duke).

Syracuse was 5-7 overall in Dino Babers' fourth season as head coach. The Orange were 3-1 in non-conference play, including a 24-0 shutout at Liberty in the season opener. They won two of their last three games, however, a four-game losing streak in the middle of the season caused the team to just miss bowl eligibility.

The campaign featured several standout individual performances, none more impressive than P Sterling Hofrichter who earned All-America honors from seven different media outlets and organizations. A 2019 Ray Guy Award finalist, Hofrichter ranked third in the FBS with a 43.03 net average. He was a key component for an Orange coverage team that set the program single-season record for fewest punt return yards allowed (17).

Six Orange performers received All-ACC honors from the league: Hofrichter (first team), S Andre Cisco (second team), WR Trishton Jackson (second team), PK Andre Szmyt (third team), LB Lakiem Williams (third team) and DE Alton Robinson (honorable mention).

All-American Sterling Hofrichter led the ACC in touchback percentage (2.9) and was a finalist for the Ray Guy Award as the nation's top punter.

INTERCEPTION-FREE

• From Sept. 28 against Holy Cross to Nov. 30 against Wake Forest, Syracuse went 202 pass attempts without throwing an interception. The Orange's interceptionless streak ended when backup QB Clayton Welch was picked off in the first quarter against the Demon Deacons.
• QB Tommy DeVito finished the campaign with a personal interception-free stretch of 170 throws, which is the third-longest among active FBS signal-callers entering the 2020 season. In the Syracuse annals, DeVito's streak ranks second to only R.J. Anderson's 190 straight passes without a pick from 2002-03.
• The last DeVito interception happened on his final throw versus Holy Cross. Over the last seven games of 2019, DeVito completed 62.9 percent (107-170) of his passes for 1,126 yards and eight touchdowns.

NEAL JOINS 2000-YARD RUSHING CLUB

• RB Moe Neal became the 23rd player in program history to amass 2,000 career rushing yards with his 36-yard effort against Holy Cross on Sept. 28. Additionally, the Gastonia, North Carolina product closed his career ninth on the Orange's all-time rushing list with 2,560 career yards.
• Syracuse ranks fifth among FBS schools for the most 2,000-yard rushers. Oklahoma (32) has the most, followed by Nebraska (30), Ohio State (27) and Oklahoma State (25).
• Prior to Neal, the last Orange ball carrier to reach the milestone was RB Prince-Tyson Gulley. Gulley ran for 2,063 yards from 2010-14.

BABERS CROSSES THE CENTURY MARK

• Head coach Dino Babers coached the 100th game of his career on Nov. 16 at Duke. In his first eight seasons as a sideline leader at Eastern Illinois, Bowling Green and Syracuse, Babers has worked 102 games and holds an overall record of 60-42 (.588).
• Babers coached 49 games in his first four seasons with the Orange. Only eight coaches in program history have led Syracuse out onto the gridiron more times than Babers: Ben Schwartzwalder (247 games), Paul Pasqualoni (167) Dick MacPherson (116), Frank Maloney (78), Frank O'Neill (77), Ossie Solem (63), Vic Hanson (59) and Doug Marrone (50).

TURNOVER TALE

• For the second consecutive season, Syracuse ranked in the top 15 of the FBS in average turnover margin.
• In 2019, the Orange committed 16 turnovers, while gaining 25 (+9), for an average margin of +0.75. That figure was good for 13th nationally.
• In 2018, Syracuse was even better. Led by a defense that recorded 31 takeaways, including 18 interceptions, the Orange tied Ohio University for No. 5 in average turnover margin (+1.0).
• Syracuse and Arizona State were the only two FBS programs to rank in the top 15 of the statistic both seasons. The Sun Devils tied for 11th in 2018 and were No. 6 in 2019.

POINT SZMYT

• PK Andre Szmyt capped the 2019 season as the FBS leader in career points scored per game (9.6). His scoring average is slightly less than a point better than Wake Forest PK Nick Sciba (8.7) and Clemson RB Travis Etienne (8.7) who enter 2020 tied for second.
• In the Syracuse record book, Szmyt is No. 5 in career kicking points (241).
• Szmyt has at least one made field goal in 22 out his 25 career games. He's booted multiple field goals on 16 occasions.
• An All-ACC Third Team selection, Szmyt made 17 out of 20 (.850) field goals and hit 39-of-40 (.975) PATs to lead the Orange with 90 points. He ended the season by making eight consecutive field goals.

LIBERTY	0

LYNCHBURG, Va. – No. 22 Syracuse (1-0) smothered Liberty (0-1) by the score of 24-0 in the first meeting between the two teams. The Orange defense registered eight sacks, four takeaways and held the Flames to minus-4 yards rushing. Defensive linemen Kendall Coleman and Josh Black had two sacks apiece to lead the charge, and Syracuse's eight quarterback sacks were one short of the school record. Running backs Moe Neal, Abdul Adams and Jarveon Howard all scored rushing touchdowns. The shutout was the 44th for the Orange in a season-opening game and the first for the team in a true road game since a 24-0 blanking of Tulane in 1991. With the victory, the Orange extended their winning streak in season openers to six. Linebacker Lakiem Williams paced the defense with 11 tackles, including 1.5 sacks. Quarterback Tommy DeVito made his first career start and distributed the ball to eight different receivers, completing 17-of-35 passes for 176 yards. For Liberty, the loss ended the Flames' four-game home winning streak and spoiled the debut of head coach Hugh Freeze, who coached the game from a hospital bed in the press box.

SYRACUSE	10
NC STATE	16

RALEIGH, N.C. – NC State (4-2, 1-1 ACC) scored the game's first 16 points and held off a fourth-quarter Syracuse rally for a 16-10 victory. The Orange (3-3, 0-2 ACC) had an opportunity to win in the final minute, but their drive stalled in Wolfpack territory and time ran out. Quarterback Tommy DeVito set a career high with 29 completions and recorded his second 300-yard passing game of the season. Wide receiver Trishton Jackson caught nine balls for 106 yards and scored Syracuse's only touchdown on a 2-yard grab in the fourth quarter. It was Jackson's third straight game with a TD catch. Linebacker Andrew Armstrong led a strong defensive effort, finishing with a personal-best 14 tackles. He also intercepted a pass. NC State linebacker Louis Acceus tied Armstrong for game-high tackling honors with 14 stops, including three of the Wolfpack's eight sacks. NC State's only touchdown came on a pass from wide receiver Thayer Thomas to running back Trent Pennix after Thomas received a lateral. The Wolfpack improved to 6-1 in home games against the Orange.

PITTSBURGH	27
SYRACUSE	20

SYRACUSE, N.Y. – The Orange outscored Pittsburgh 14-3 in the second half, but Syracuse (3-4, 0-3 ACC) couldn't overtake the Panthers (5-2, 2-1 ACC) and lost, 27-20. Backup quarterback Clayton Welch threw two second-half touchdown passes, including a 94-yarder to receiver Taj Harris that tied for the second-longest pass play in program history. Welch was also Syracuse's leading rusher (36 yards). The Pitt defense sacked Syracuse quarterbacks nine times. Starter Tommy DeVito absorbed six of those blows before exiting the game in the third quarter in favor of Welch. The loss ended Syracuse's six-game winning streak in Friday night games.

SYRACUSE	17
FLORIDA STATE	35

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. – Florida State running back Cam Akers tied the Syracuse opponent record with four rushing touchdowns to lead the Seminoles (4-4, 3-3 ACC) past the Orange, 35-17. Akers finished with 144 yards rushing. He scored 26 of FSU's 35 points. Syracuse (3-5, 0-4 ACC) got rushing TDs of its own from Moe Neal and Abdul Adams, while quarterback Tommy DeVito did not throw an interception for the third game in a row to extend his number of pass attempts without a pick to 95. Neither team turned the ball over, ending Syracuse's FBS-leading, 21-game streak with at least one takeaway. Linebacker Lakiem Williams posted his second double-digit tackle game of the season, making a team-best 11 stops.

SYRACUSE	49
DUKE	6

DURHAM, N.C. – Syracuse (4-6, 1-5 ACC) scored 21 points off Duke turnovers in the third quarter, including a 48-yard interception return for a touchdown by safety Andre Cisco, and rolled to a 49-6 win over Duke (4-6, 2-4 ACC) at Wallace Wade Stadium. The 43-point margin of victory was the Orange's largest against an FBS opponent since thumping Buffalo 63-7 in 2000. Syracuse held the Blue Devils to 279 yards of offense on 85 plays (3.3 avg.). Duke's longest play from scrimmage was a 25-yard pass from Quentin Harris to Aaron Young. Four different runners had touchdowns for the Orange, including Moe Neal and Jarveon Howard who each rushed for 115 yards. Linebacker Lakiem Williams posted his third straight double-digit tackle game with 14 stops, including one quarterback sack, to lead the Orange defense.

SYRACUSE FOOTBALL CHRONOLOGY

Coached by Bobby Winston, the 1890 Syracuse football team was the first Orange squad to play a full season. The team posted a 7-4 record.

1889
On Nov. 23, Syracuse traveled to Rochester for its first intercollegiate football game. Wearing pink and blue uniforms, Syracuse lost 36-0 to finish the season 0-1.

1890
Orange was adopted as the school color and Syracuse's athletic teams are henceforth known as "Orange" or "Orangemen." Bobby Winston became the program's first head coach. The Orange defeated the Syracuse Athletic Association 14-0 in the season opener for their first football victory en route to a 7-4 record.

1891
The Orange defeated Rochester (18-16) and the Syracuse Athletic Association (22-10) in its final two games to finish with a 4-7 record in William Galbraith's only year as head coach.

1892
The only season in Syracuse football history with no wins when at least two games were played. The Orange went 0-8-1 under coach Jordan C. Wells.

1893
Without an official coach, the Orange finished the season with a 4-9-1 record. The team posted triumphs against Syracuse High School, Hamilton College, Onondaga Academy and Cazenovia.

1894
In his only season as Syracuse's head coach, George H. Bond led the Orange to a 6-5 record.

1895
The Orange secured their first real home field, as Syracuse went from playing in parks throughout the city to playing at The Oval, which was a space located behind the Hall of Languages. The Orange recorded their first victory against rival Colgate, winning by the score of 4-0.

1896
The Orange played their first opponent from outside New York state, losing to Williams College, 24-6.

1897
The Colgate "Hoodoo" was born when a newspaper reporter sympathetic to the Raiders' cause tackled an Orange player who was on his way to scoring the winning touchdown. The game ended in a 6-6 tie.

1898
The Orange posted an 8-2-1 record, outscoring their opponents 192-69 under the direction of head coach Frank E. Wade.

1899
Syracuse finished 4-4 in the final season of head coach Frank E. Wade's three-year tenure.

1900
Edwin Sweetland, a Cornell grad, was hired as head football coach and to start the crew program. He guided the Orange to a 7-2-1 record, including six shutouts. Sweetland later coached against Syracuse as the head coach at Colgate.

1901
Success builds for the program, as the Orange closed the season with a 7-1 record. The lone loss came against Lafayette, 5-0.

1902
A 23-0 shutout of rival Colgate was an important win for the Orange, as they cruised to a 6-2-1 record. Other big victories were against the Onondaga Indians, Amherst and Williams.

1903
The program gained momentum as its budget increased to $5,500. Jason B. Parish and Ancil D. Brown served as co-coaches and led the Orange to a 5-4 record.

1904
In Dr. Charles P. Hutchins' first season as head coach, Syracuse finished 6-3. In a victory against Manhattan, the Orange put 144 points on the board, a team record that still stands.

1905
The Orange recorded six shutouts and finished the season with an overall record of 8-3 in Dr. Charles P. Hutchins' second and final year at the helm.

1906
Head coach Frank J. (Buck) O'Neill was hired. He piloted the Orange to a 6-3 record in the team's last season at The Oval. On Nov. 17, the Orange handed Lafayette its only loss of the year, 12-4.

1907
The Orange opened Archbold Stadium, a 20,000-seat venue, with a 28-0 victory against Hobart. The stadium provided the Orange with one of the finest facilities of its time. Once called the "Eighth Wonder of the World," Archbold was just the third concrete stadium built in the United States. A 22-0 victory against Hamilton on Oct. 26 was the program's 100th win. Marquis (Bill) Horr became the program's first All-American when he was named to Walter Camp's "Second Eleven."

1908
Howard Jones was hired as head coach. The Orange posted a 6-3-1 record and along the way played their first Western Conference (now Big Ten) opponent, beating Michigan, 28-4. Bill Horr became the first Syracuse player to be named a first-team All-American when he was recognized by Walter Camp for the second year in a row.

1909
Syracuse went 4-5-1 during the first of two seasons for head coach T.A.D. Jones, who took over the program after his brother, Howard, left after one year to become the head coach at Yale.

1910
In its 22nd season of intercollegiate football, Syracuse finished 5-4-1. T.A.D. Jones ended his two-year tenure as head coach with a 9-9-2 overall mark. Caspar Whitney included center Harry Hartman and tackle Rudy Probst on his "Honor List" in Outing Magazine. Taking into account the opinions of both Eastern and Western coaches, Whitney's selections were considered a more accurate representation of the nation's top players than many of the Eastern-centric All-America teams compiled at the time.

1911
First-year head coach C. DeForest Cummings led the Orange to a 5-3-2 season, including a 6-0 shutout of Ohio State and a 12-11 upset of Pop Warner's Carlisle team that featured the legendary Jim Thorpe. End A. Harry Kallett earned Walter Camp Third Team All-America honors. Rudy Probst and quarterback Preston Fogg were named to Caspar Whitney's "Honor List."

1912
After opening the season with a 12-0 victory against in-state rival Hobart, Syracuse was 4-5 in C. DeForest Cummings' last season as head coach. Rudy Probst received All-America honors for the third time, earning "Second Eleven" kudos from Walter Camp.

1913
Buck O'Neill, who led the program to a winning season in 1907, returned to coach the Orange. He guided Syracuse to six wins, its highest total since 1908.

1914
The Orange opened the year 2-0 and posted a 5-3-2 overall record. Among the victories was an 81-0 rout of Hamilton, the third-largest margin of victory in program history. Guard Harold White and halfbacks Tam Rose and Marcus Wilkinson garnered "Honor List" plaudits from Caspar Whitney.

1915
Syracuse's first powerhouse team finished 9-1-2, recording seven shutouts and outscoring the opposition, 331-16. Syracuse was invited to the Rose Bowl to play Washington, but declined because an earlier West Coast trip (the first by an Eastern school) to Oregon State had used up the program's travel budget. Guards Christopher Schlacter and Harold White were both named All-Americans.

1916
In his only season, head coach William Hollenback led Syracuse to a 5-4 record. The Orange scored more than 50 points in three of their five victories, including a 73-0 shutout of Ohio University.

1917
All-America tackle Alfred Cobb captained the Orange gridders to an 8-1-1 record. Syracuse closed the year with six consecutive wins.

1918
The Orange were 5-1 with four shutouts in Buck O'Neill's penultimate season as head coach. Joe Alexander earned the first of his three consecutive first-team All-America awards. Louis Usher, Joe Schwarzer and Willard Ackley also received All-America recognition.

1919
All-American Joe Alexander and the Orange finished 8-3 in the last year of Buck O'Neill's tenure as head coach. O'Neill was the Syracuse sideline leader for a total of eight seasons (1906-07, 1913-15, 1917-19).

1920
Team captain Joe Alexander received All-America honors for the third straight year. He and first-year head coach John Meehan guided the Orange to a 6-2-1 record. Alexander was enshrined in the College Football Hall of Fame in 1954. Tackle Bertrand Gulick turned in the first of his two All-America campaigns.

1921
Syracuse recorded its ninth straight winning season. Led by All-American Bertrand Gulick, the Orange went 7-2. Gifford Zimmerman was the first player in team history to wear the fabled No. 44. The number remained in circulation until it was retired in 2005, but was not worn after 1998.

1922
Third-year coach John Meehan led the Orange to a 6-1-2 record. The team's only loss was a 21-14 decision to Pittsburgh. The season saw the beginning of the Penn State series, which started with a scoreless tie at the Polo Grounds in New York City. Roy Simmons Sr. was the squad's quarterback, marking the start of a relationship between the Simmons family and Syracuse University Athletics that continues to this day. After his playing career concluded in 1924, Simmons coached the Orange lacrosse and boxing teams, as well as served as an assistant football coach. Roy Simmons Jr. was Syracuse's men's lacrosse coach from 1971 through 1998, taking the reins of the program from his father when he retired in 1970. Roy Simmons III is the men's lacrosse team's current director of operations. Future College Football Hall of Fame coach Lynn "Pappy" Waldorf earned second-team All-America honors at tackle.

1923
All-America end Evander (Pete) MacRae was part of an Orange defense that allowed only 19 points and posted seven shutouts. Syracuse went 8-1 with its only loss a 16-7 defeat against rival Colgate.

1924
The Orange won eight games (8-2-1 overall) for the second consecutive year and defeated Boston College for the 200th victory in program history on Oct. 18. Lynn "Pappy" Waldorf was named an All-American for the third time.

1925
Clarence Thomas became the first quarterback to wear the storied No. 44. He led the team to an 8-1-1 record in C.W.P. Reynolds' first year as head coach. The defense posted a school-record six consecutive shutouts. End Vic Hanson was an Associated Press Third Team All-American.

1926
Behind Vic Hanson, the Orange outscored their opponents 225-59 on their way to a 7-2-1 record. Hanson earned All-America honors again and captained the basketball team during the winter months. Hanson is the only athlete enshrined in both the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame and College Football Hall of Fame.

1927
In his first year as head coach, Lew Andreas led Syracuse to four straight wins to start the season and a 5-3-2 overall record.

1928
After a 3-0 start, the Orange finished the year with a 4-4-1 mark. The team scored a season-high 58 points in a win against Johns Hopkins on Oct. 13.

1929
Lew Andreas, who was Syracuse's basketball coach from 1924 through 1950, completed his three-year stint as football coach by guiding the Orange to a 6-3 season. Syracuse played the first night game in the East, beating Hobart, 77-0.

1930
Vic Hanson returned to Syracuse to coach the Orange after playing briefly in the New York Yankees farm system, highlighting his multi-faceted athletic ability. The Orange went 5-2-2 in Hanson's first year and end George Ellert was named an All-American.

1931
Syracuse outscored its foes 238-56 en route to a 7-1-1 season that featured seven straight wins to open the year.

1932
A 4-4-1 season included the program's 250th victory, a 27-6 win against Oglethorpe on Nov. 5.

1933
After a 3-0 start that included dominant wins against Clarkson and Ohio Wesleyan, Syracuse closed the season with a 4-4 record under fourth-year head coach Vic Hanson.

1934
All-America tackle James Steen led the Orange to a 6-2 record. Syracuse's six victories included back-to-back shutouts of Penn State and Michigan State.

1935
The Orange won six games for the second year in a row and finished the season 6-1-1. Senior guard Ed Jontos became Syracuse's first pro football draft pick when he was selected 45th overall by the New York Giants in the 1936 NFL Draft.

SYRACUSE FOOTBALL CHRONOLOGY

1936
The Orange defeated Clarkson to start the season, but lost their final seven games. Vic Hanson concluded his Syracuse coaching tenure with a seven-year record of 33-21-5.

1937
Ossie Solem succeeded Vic Hanson as head coach and led the team to a 5-2-1 mark. After starting 3-0, Syracuse made its first appearance in the Associated Press college football poll, debuting at No. 17 on Oct. 18 after defeating Cornell.

1938
Wilmeth Sidat-Singh, one of the first African-American quarterbacks to play college football, led Syracuse to a stunning 19-17 comeback win against Cornell and a 5-3 overall record. Among Sidat-Singh's teammates were Olympic sprinter and legendary announcer Marty Glickman, and the great Michigan State coach Hugh "Duffy" Daugherty. Sidat-Singh was also a star for the Orange on the basketball court. His basketball jersey was retired in February 2005.

1939
Syracuse went 3-3-2 and won its last two games. The defense set a team record, holding opponents to a 33.3 percent completion rate on forward passes.

1940
The Orange beat NYU 47-13 on Oct. 12. The game was played at Yankee Stadium in the Bronx in front of 8,000 people. The victory was part of a 3-4-1 campaign for fourth-year coach Ossie Solem.

1941
The Orange posted a 5-2-1 record and returned to the national rankings, checking in at No. 18 in the AP poll after a 27-20 triumph at Wisconsin. The Syracuse special teams unit set the school record for most punt return yards (662).

1942
Winning the first five games of the season, the Orange were ranked as high as 15th in the AP poll and went on to finish with a 6-3 record.

1943
Syracuse University suspended intercollegiate sports due to World War II.

1944
The Orange concluded the year with a 2-4-1 record, including playing a game against Boston College at historic Fenway Park.

1945
Ossie Solem ended his eight-year Syracuse coaching stint, guiding the Orange to a 1-6 record. He finished with a 30-27-6 overall coaching mark.

1946
Future College Football Hall of Famer Clarence L. "Biggie" Munn served as Orange head coach and went 4-5 in his only year at the helm. Munn later coached at Michigan State. The Orange program enjoyed its 300th win, a 28-7 victory against Temple.

Legendary running back Jim Brown was voted Syracuse's first unanimous All-American as a senior in 1956.

Reaves Baysinger became head coach and promptly changed the Orange's uniform from a blue jersey with orange numbers to white to go along with khaki moleskin pants. He led Syracuse to a 3-6 record.

1948
In the second and final year for head coach Reaves Baysinger, the Orange amassed a 1-8 record. The team's only win was a 13-9 season-opening victory against Niagara.

1949
Ben Schwartzwalder was hired as head coach after five consecutive losing seasons. Schwartwalder won four games in his first year, including a 35-7 triumph over rival Colgate.

1950
A 5-5 season featured a four-game winning streak in the middle of the year. Avatus Stone set the school record (since tied) by intercepting three passes in a 27-7 win versus Penn State.

1951
Syracuse enjoyed its first winning season since 1942, logging a 5-4 mark. The Syracuse defense forced a school-record nine turnovers against Lafayette. Off the field, Howard Jones and Buck O'Neill were the first individuals associated with the program to be inducted into the College Football Hall Fame.

1952
Tackles Robert Fleck and William Skyinskus earned All-America honors, leading Syracuse to a 7-2 record and its first bowl appearance. Syracuse lost to Alabama 61-6 in the Orange Bowl. Future Pro Football Hall of Fame center Jim Ringo concluded his three-year Orange career.

1953
Robert Fleck moved to guard and earned his second consecutive All-America award as the Orange finished 5-3-1 during head coach Ben Schwartzwalder's fifth season in charge.

1954
A halfback from Long Island, well down the preseason depth chart, was issued jersey No. 44. His name was Jim Brown. Syracuse finished 4-4 and won three of its last four games.

1955
The Syracuse defense shined, allowing 35 completions on 95 pass attempts – still team records for the fewest season completions and attempts by the opposition. Jim Brown earned All-America honors in his second season and the Orange finished with a 5-3 record. They were ranked as high as No. 18 in the AP poll.

1956
With a bowl bid on the line in the regular-season finale versus Colgate, Jim Brown scored a then NCAA-record 43 points in Syracuse's 61-7 victory. The Orange completed the regular season 7-1, earning an invitation to the Cotton Bowl, where it lost 28-27 to TCU. Brown broke the Syracuse single-season rushing record with 986 yards and became the first unanimous All-American in school history. Brown went on to a Hall of Fame career with the NFL's Cleveland Browns after he was the sixth overall selection by the Browns in the 1957 NFL Draft. In 1995, Brown was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame.

1957
All-America end Dick Lasse led Syracuse to a 5-3-1 record. The Orange recorded the 350th win in team history with a 26-9 victory against Nebraska.

1958
Tackle Ronald Luciano, a future Major League Baseball umpire, earned All-America honors. The Orange posted an 8-2 record behind a defense recorded four shutouts and allowed just 59 points during the season. Syracuse lost to No. 5 Oklahoma 21-6 in the Orange Bowl.

NATIONAL CHAMPIONS
Undefeated, untied and national champions, the Orange capped an 11-0 season with their first bowl win, a 23-14 victory over Texas in the Cotton Bowl. Syracuse enjoyed its finest year on the gridiron, pulverizing foes both offensively and defensively. The defense allowed a mind-boggling 193 yards rushing in 10 games (19.3 ypg). On offense, the Orange averaged 451 yards a game. The team featured five All-Americans, including guard Roger Davis, who was the seventh overall selection by the Chicago Bears in the 1960 NFL Draft.

1960
Halfback Ernie Davis earned one of his two first-team All-America honors for the 7-2 Orange. Syracuse spent two weeks ranked No. 1 in the UPI poll. The team won its first five games to extend its school-record winning streak to 16 games before a home loss to Pittsburgh on Oct. 29 ended the run. The Philadelphia Eagles selected fullback Art Baker with the 14th overall pick in the 1961 NFL Draft.

Ernie Davis won the Heisman Trophy, becoming the first African-American to receive college football's most prestigious award. Along the way, he broke Jim Brown's career rushing record and led the Orange to an 8-3 season, capped by a Liberty Bowl win against Miami (Fla.). Davis, who was later enshrined in the College Football Hall of Fame, was the top pick in the 1962 NFL Draft. He died of leukemia less than two years later.

1962
The Orange began the year 1-3, but recovered to finish 5-5. End Walt Sweeney was a first-round selection by the AFL's San Diego Chargers in the 1963 draft.

1963
The Orange won seven of their last eight contests to finish 12th in the UPI poll with an 8-2 record. John Mackey began his NFL career as a tight end for the Baltimore Colts, where he eventually played in two Super Bowls. In 1992, Mackey was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

1964
Sophomore halfback Floyd Little, who was recruited to Syracuse by Ernie Davis, earned All-America honors from three selectors in his first season. Center Pat Killorin also received All-America accolades. The team went 7-4 and made an appearance in the Sugar Bowl, losing to LSU, 13-10. The program celebrated its 400th win – a 38-6 victory against Kansas – on Sept. 26.

1965
All-Americans Floyd Little (halfback), Charles Brown (defensive halfback) and Pat Killorin (center) led the Orange to a 7-3 record. Syracuse was 19th in the final UPI poll and won five of its last six games. Little led the nation in all-purpose yards (1,990), punt return average (23.5) and touchdowns scored (19).

1966
Halfback Floyd Little and fullback Larry Csonka, the greatest one-two running punch in Orange history, powered the team to an 8-3 record and a Gator Bowl berth. Little set a Syracuse bowl-game record with 216 yards rushing, while Csonka added 114 in an 18-12 loss to Tennessee. Little, Csonka and tackle Gary Bugenhagen earned All-America honors. Little was selected by the Denver Broncos with the sixth pick in the 1967 NFL/AFL Draft.

1967
Larry Csonka earned All-America honors for the second year in a row after rushing for 1,127 yards and eight touchdowns to propel Syracuse to an 8-2 record. The Miami Dolphins selected Csonka, who went on to be enshrined in both the College and Pro Football Halls of Fame, with the eighth pick in the 1968 NFL/AFL Draft.

1968
The Orange rose to No. 10 in the national polls and finished with a 6-4 record. Defensive halfback Anthony Kyasky, defensive end Lou Gubitosa and defensive tackle Art Thoms earned All-America honors. Thoms was the 22nd overall selection by the Oakland Raiders in the 1969 NFL/AFL Draft.

1969
The Orange were 5-5 with back-to-back shutouts of Arizona and Navy in November. Against Penn State, Greg Allen set the single-game record for most individual punt return yards with 172.

1970
Facing a boycott by a group of Black players, Syracuse was outscored 100-29 in its first three games, but rebounded to win six of its last seven contests. The "Syracuse Eight," as the group was called by the media, sat out the season calling for the equal treatment of players and a diverse coaching staff. On the field, All-America defensive tackle Joe Ehrmann led the Orange to a 6-4 record.

1971
All-American Tommy Myers intercepted a Syracuse single-season record eight passes during a 5-5-1 campaign in which a 28-24 win against West Virginia gave the program its 450th victory.

1972
The Syracuse streak of 22 consecutive non-losing seasons came to an end. The Orange lost at West Virginia in the season finale to finish 5-6. Defensive tackle Joe Ehrmann was the 10th overall pick in the 1973 NFL Draft by the Baltimore Colts.

1973
Ben Schwartzwalder retired after a 2-9 season. Schwartzwalder led the Orange to a 153-91-3 record in 25 years as head coach. He was enshrined in the College Football Hall of Fame in 1982. Guard Dave Lapham was voted an Associated Press Third Team All-American.

1974
Syracuse started Coach Frank Maloney's seven-year tenure with a 23-15 triumph against Oregon State, but lost nine of its last 10 to close the season 2-9.

1975
All-American Ray Preston led the Orange to a 6-5 record and was invited to play in the East-West Shrine Bowl. Preston enjoyed a nine-year (1976-84) NFL career as a linebacker for the San Diego Chargers.

1976
After a 3-8 campaign, Associated Press Honorable Mention All-American Tim Moresco played in the last American Bowl. He intercepted a pass for the victorious North squad.

1977
Syracuse posted its second winning season under Frank Maloney, going 6-5, including four consecutive victories to end the year.

1978
Joe Morris set the school freshman rushing record with 1,001 yards. It was a performance that included a then-school season record four consecutive 100-yard games. In the final game at Archbold Stadium, Morris ran for 203 yards to power the Orange to a 20-17 victory against nationally-ranked Navy. Syracuse bid farewell to Archbold having compiled a 261-104-20 record at the facility.

THE SYRACUSE 8

In 1970, a group of Syracuse University football team members, known today as the "Syracuse 8," showed extraordinary courage and commitment by calling for the equal treatment of student-athletes and a diverse coaching staff. As talented scholarship athletes, these men were aware of the potential consequences of their actions. Despite this risk, they took a strong, principled stand. When their calls for action were not honored, they made the difficult decision to leave the team and give up a game they loved and the potential professional success it could bring.

Although mistakenly dubbed the "Syracuse 8" by media reports in 1970, the group included nine individuals: Gregory Allen '72, Richard Bulls '73, John Godbolt '73, Dana Harrell '71, G '73, John Lobon '73, Clarence "Bucky" McGill '72, A. Alif Muhammad '71, Duane Walker '80 and Ron Womack '71.

At a special ceremony in October 2006, former Syracuse University Chancellor and President Nancy Cantor awarded these former Orange football players the University's Chancellor's Medal.

"These events celebrate the courage and determination of the 'Syracuse 8' to stand up for their values and principles, even in the face of great personal sacrifice," Cantor said. "These alumni are emblematic of the values we want for our students and for ourselves when we face critical issues of justice and equality. Their courage stands today as a beacon and lesson for all of us as we continue to strive for a more just University, community and society."

The group was also recognized at halftime of the Orange's game against Louisville. During the ceremony the group was presented with their Syracuse letterman's jackets, which they never received after leaving the team.

In 2005, several of the players returned to campus for a panel discussion on the events surrounding the "Syracuse 8." Following that event, Art Monk '80 led an effort to create a special University committee to consider, and ultimately plan, a formal recognition and honoring of the group. Committee members included Monk, Gregory Allen '72, Dave Bing '66, Peter J. Estrada '82, Daryl Gross, Carmen Harlow '78, John L. Johnson, Floyd Little '67, John Lobon '73, Larry Martin, Angela Y. Robinson '78, Diane M. Weathers '71, Barry L. Wells and Roosevelt R. "Rick" Wright Jr. G'93.

Today, the "Syracuse 8" Courage Award is presented annually to a student-athlete who has overcome a socially, economically or otherwise disadvantaged background or serious injury and, in the opinion of his or her coaches and teammates, has demonstrated uncommon bravery or highly principled behavior in the face of adversity.

With the razing of Archbold Stadium and the construction of the Carrier Dome, Syracuse spent the entire season on the road playing "home" games in the Meadowlands, Buffalo and Ithaca. Despite the obstacles, the Orange went 7-5 and defeated McNeese State in the Independence Bowl with future NFL players Joe Morris, Art Monk, Bill Hurley, Craig Wolfley, Gary Anderson and Jim Collins leading the way. Monk was the 18th overall selection in the 1980 NFL Draft by the Washington Redskins.

1980
The dawn of a new era began on Sept. 20 with the opening of the Carrier Dome. Joe Morris scored four touchdowns and racked up 300 all-purpose yards as the Orange christened their new home with a 36-24 win against Miami (Ohio). An all-time Syracuse record-crowd of 50,564 witnessed the event. The Orange were 5-6 in Frank Maloney's last year as head coach.

1981
Down-easterner Dick MacPherson arrived on the scene, replacing Frank Maloney as head coach. MacPherson guided the Orange to a 4-6-1 mark in his first year, including consecutive wins against Boston College and West Virginia to end the season. Running back Joe Morris concluded his career as Syracuse's all-time leading rusher. He and kicker Gary Anderson both earned All-America honors.

1982
Ben Schwartzwalder, the winningest coach in Syracuse football history, was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame. On the field, defensive tackle Michael Charles was named a first-team All-American for the 2-9 Orange.

1983
The Orange turned in their first winning season since 1979, going 6-5 in Dick MacPherson's third year as head coach. In addition, Syracuse hit a program milestone by winning its 500th game, 14-7, against Navy.

1984
Syracuse native Tim Green earned the first of two consecutive first-team All-America certificates at defensive tackle. Green and his teammates grabbed the nation's attention with a 17-9 home victory against No. 1 Nebraska during a 6-5 season.

1985
Syracuse began a run of seven bowl appearances in eight seasons, earning a spot opposite Maryland in the Cherry Bowl. Syracuse lost to the Terps 35-18 to close the year with a 7-5 record. Defensive tackle Tim Green was named a first-team All-American for the second year in a row. Green, who was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 2001, was the 17th overall selection in the 1986 NFL Draft by the Atlanta Falcons.

1986
After an 0-4 start, the Orange won five of their final seven games to set the stage for a remarkable 1987 season.

The 1990 Orange earned the program's fourth consecutive bowl berth and defeated Arizona 28-0 in the Aloha Bowl in Honolulu, Hawaii.

Dick MacPherson's bunch ended the regular season with an undefeated 11-0 record and earned a trip to the Sugar Bowl, Syracuse's first New Year's Day bowl bid since 1965. Auburn's Win Lyle kicked a last-second field goal to force a 16-16 tie, the first deadlock in Sugar Bowl history. Consensus All-American Don McPherson finished second in the Heisman race, but won several other player of the year awards. Nose guard Ted Gregory was also a consensus All-American. MacPherson was the consensus pick for national coach of the year and the Orange finished No. 4 in both polls.

1988
Syracuse put together consecutive double-digit win seasons for the first time, capping a 10-2 campaign with a decisive 23-10 victory against LSU in the Hall of Fame Bowl. Defensive back Markus Paul was named a first-team All-American by four selectors (AP, FWAA, Sporting News, Football News).

1989
Syracuse football observed its 100th birthday and earned a third straight bowl invitation. This time John Biskup hit a last-minute field goal to edge Georgia 19-18 in the Peach Bowl to cap an 8-4 season. Center John Flannery and wide receiver Rob Moore earned first-team All-America recognition. Moore entered his name in the 1990 NFL Supplemental Draft and was selected first overall by the New York Jets.

1990
The Orange finished the regular season with a 6-4-2 record and garnered an invitation to the Aloha Bowl in Honolulu. Syracuse put the finishing touches on its third straight bowl win by shutting out Arizona, 28-0. The Wildcats had not been blanked in 19 seasons (214 games), the second-longest streak in NCAA history at the time. Center John Flannery was named a first-team All-American for the second year in a row.

1991
Assistant coach Paul Pasqualoni replaced Dick MacPherson as head coach when MacPherson left to coach the NFL's New England Patriots. The Orange also joined the BIG EAST Football Conference after spending years as an Eastern independent. Pasqualoni led the Orange to a 10-2 record, a perfect 5-0 BIG EAST mark, and a 24-17 win against Ohio State in the Hall of Fame Bowl on New Year's Day. Qadry Ismail earned first-team All-America honors as a kick returner and became the school's first two-sport All-American since Jim Brown. Ismail's second All-America award was for track & field.

1992
Paul Pasqualoni and the Orange again won 10 games and made their second straight New Year's Day bowl appearance, knocking off Colorado 26-22 at the Fiesta Bowl in Tempe, Ariz. It was the fifth straight bowl victory for Syracuse, the second-longest postseason winning streak in the country at the time behind Florida State. Tight end Chris Gedney was a unanimous All-America selection.

1993
Another year, another winning season. The Orange finished with a 6-4-1 overall mark. Breaking records was a regular occurrence during the campaign. Marvin Graves set new standards in almost every passing and total offense category, while Shelby Hill, Pat O'Neill and Kevin Mitchell also etched their names in Syracuse's record book.

1994
In keeping with the tone of the recent past, the Orange recorded an eighth straight winning season, finishing 7-4 overall. The passing combination of Kevin Mason to Marvin Harrison was prominent throughout the year, while the return of linebacker Dan Conley for a sixth season of competition after numerous knee surgeries was a story of perseverance and dedication.

A young Syracuse team posted a 9-3 record and a victory over Clemson in the Gator Bowl. The emergence of Donovan McNabb and his chemistry with receiver Marvin Harrison provided thrills and records, as Harrison established himself as one of the all-time great receivers and return men at Syracuse. Harrison was the 19th overall pick in the 1996 NFL Draft by the Indianapolis Colts. Defensively, cornerback Kevin Abrams earned first-team All-America honors.

1996
Despite an 0-2 start, the Orange won a share of the BIG EAST title once again and were among the nation's elite. An eight-game winning streak in the middle of the season resulted in another bowl bid. Syracuse beat Houston in the Liberty Bowl for its seventh consecutive postseason victory, which was the nation's longest bowl winning streak at the time. Cornerback Kevin Abrams received first-team All-America plaudits for the second year in a row.

Syracuse won its first outright BIG EAST championship, clinching the crown with a 33-18 triumph at Miami (Fla.). After starting the year 1-3, a 30-19 victory against Tulane ignited an eight-game winning streak. A 35-18 loss to Kansas State in the Fiesta Bowl did not detract from the fact the Orange were one of six teams to receive a Bowl Alliance bid. Safety Donovin Darius was a first-team All-America selection.

1998
After a 34-33 loss to eventual national champion Tennessee in the opener, the Orange defeated the previous year's national title winner, Michigan, the following week. From there, Syracuse went 7-3 to win its second outright BIG EAST title and third conference championship in a row. The Orange earned a Bowl Championship Series (BCS) berth in the first season of the BCS and lost to Florida in the Orange Bowl – Donovan McNabb's last game. McNabb was selected with the second overall pick by the Philadelphia Eagles in the 1999 NFL Draft, the highest a Syracuse quarterback has ever been taken. Kick returner Kevin Johnson earned first-team All-America honors.

1999
Syracuse earned a bowl invitation for the fifth straight year and the 11th time in 13 seasons. The Orange were 7-5 in the last year of the millennium and closed the century with a 20-13 victory against Kentucky in the Music City Bowl. All-America linebacker Keith Bulluck was selected in the first round (30th overall) of the 2000 NFL Draft by the Tennessee Titans. The University recognized the program's All-Century Team at the final home game versus Temple.

2000
Syracuse ran its streak of consecutive winning seasons to 14 with a 6-5 record. Cornerback Will Allen was taken with the 22nd overall pick in the first round of the 2001 NFL Draft by the New York Giants.

2001
Syracuse recorded its 15th straight winning season, posting a 10-3 record and topping Kansas State in the Insight.com Bowl. Unanimous All-American Dwight Freeney was selected in the first round of the 2002 NFL Draft, marking the fifth consecutive year that a Syracuse player heard his name called in the opening round.

2002
The Orange's string of winning seasons came to an end as Syracuse finished 4-8. The team played two triple-overtime games, including a 50-42 victory against No. 8 Virginia Tech. Quarterback Troy Nunes ended his time on The Hill ranked in the top five on 10 different school record lists. Linebacker Clifton Smith and punter Mike Shafer also concluded fine careers. In November, former quarterback Donovan McNabb was named to the University's Board of Trustees.

2003
Running back Walter Reyes established single-season records for rushing touchdowns (21) and total touchdowns (22) in leading the Orange to a 6-6 record. Receiver Johnnie Morant, defensive tackle Christian Ferrara and offensive tackle Kevin Sampson entered Syracuse's NFL Draft fraternity.

2004
Walter Reyes capped his college career as the program's second-leading rusher with 3,424 yards. The Orange earned a bowl berth for the first time since 2001, losing the Champs Sports Bowl 51-14 to Georgia Tech in Paul Pasqualoni's last game as head coach. Offensive tackle Adam Terry was chosen by the Baltimore Ravens in the second round of the 2005 NFL Draft.

2005
Head coach Greg Robinson, who also served as defensive coordinator, took over the program. Syracuse went 1-10, but boasted one of the most improved defenses in the country. The Orange jumped 69 spots in the NCAA statistical rankings in passing defense (90th to 21st) and went from 101st to 57th in total defense. Free safety Anthony Smith led a group of four seniors who were selected in the 2006 NFL Draft. Smith was picked in the third round by the defending Super Bowl champion Pittsburgh Steelers.

2006
Freshman Delone Carter emerged as a capable ball carrier during a 4-8 season. Carter ran for 713 yards, the second-best total for a first-year player in school history. Cornerback Tanard Jackson and linebacker Kelvin Smith were selected in the 2007 NFL Draft.

2007
The Orange went 2-10, but defeated nationally-ranked Louisville in a shootout, 38-35. Receiver Mike Williams had a touchdown reception in nine straight games, while the kick return duo of Max Suter and Mike Holmes also had big years. The pair keyed an Orange unit that led the BIG EAST in kickoff return average (24.8). Suter paced the FBS ranks with a nation-best 1,299 kickoff return yards.

2008
The world premiere of "The Express," the life story of Heisman Trophy winner Ernie Davis, was held in downtown Syracuse prior to the Orange's game against Penn State. On the field, Syracuse was 3-9 in Greg Robinson's final year as head coach. The team's biggest win was a last-minute, 24-23 victory at Notre Dame. Running back Curtis Brinkley established a Syracuse season record for consecutive 100-yard rushing games (5) and was one of four Orange players to sign with NFL teams after the season. Fullback Tony Fiammetta earned Pro Football Weekly All-America honors.

Doug Marrone returned to his alma mater to serve as the program's 28th head coach. Marrone brought in Syracuse native Greg Paulus to quarterback the Orange after a stellar four-year basketball career at Duke. Paulus led the Orange to a 4-8 record in his only season. Punter Rob Long and defensive tackle Arthur Jones earned All-BIG EAST First Team honors. Jones was selected in the fifth round of the 2010 NFL Draft by the Baltimore Ravens after helping the Orange rank sixth nationally in sacks and 13th in rushing defense.

2010
In his second year at the helm, Doug Marrone led Syracuse back to the postseason. The Orange went 8-5 and beat Kansas State in the inaugural New Era Pinstripe Bowl. Behind linebackers Doug Hogue and Derrell Smith, the Orange ranked seventh nationally in total defense. Running back Delone Carter paced the offense, rushing for 1,233 yards in his final season, including 198 yards against Kansas State to win Pinstripe Bowl MVP honors.

2011
The Orange got off to a 5-2 start, but lost its last five games to finish 5-7. Quarterback Ryan Nassib recorded the best statistical passing season in school history to that point, setting program records for completions (259), attempts (415), yards (2,685) and matching the record for touchdown passes (22). Defensive end Chandler Jones used a standout season to garner the attention of pro scouts. Jones was the first pick of the New England Patriots (21st overall) in the 2012 NFL Draft. Jones, Nick Provo, Andrew Tiller, Antwon Bailey and Justin Pugh were named first-team All-BIG EAST.

2012
In its last year in the BIG EAST, Syracuse won a share of the conference championship and finished 8-5 overall. The Orange captured their second Pinstripe Bowl title in three years, beating West Virginia, 38-14. Quarterback Ryan Nassib surpassed his previous team-record totals, completing 294-of-471 passes for 3,757 yards and 26 touchdowns. Receiver Alec Lemon, offensive tackle Justin Pugh and safety Shamarko Thomas earned first-team All-BIG EAST honors, while Nassib was a Pro Football Weekly All-American. Pugh, Nassib and Thomas were all selected in the 2013 NFL Draft.

Scott Shafer replaced Doug Marrone as head coach after Marrone was hired by the Buffalo Bills. Syracuse was 7-6 in its first year as a member of the Atlantic Coast Conference and defeated Minnesota in the Texas Bowl. Six members of the Orange earned All-ACC honors, including Jay Bromley and Marquis Spruill, who were both selected in the 2014 NFL Draft. Bromley was a third-round pick by the New York Giants. Spruill went in the fifth round to the Atlanta Falcons.

Syracuse opened the year with victories against Villanova and Central Michigan, but finished the season 3-9 in Scott Shafer's second year as head coach. The Orange were stout defensively, ranking 26th nationally in total defense. Linebacker Cameron Lynch (third team), offensive tackle Sean Hickey (third team) and punter Riley Dixon (honorable mention) received All-ACC plaudits.

2015
The Orange started the year 3-0 for the first time since 1991, but lost their next eight games. A 20-17 victory against Boston College in Scott Shafer's last game as head coach ended the slide, resulting in a 4-8 record. Punter Riley Dixon became the first player in school history to earn All-ACC First Team honors. Dixon was drafted in the seventh round of the 2016 NFL Draft by the Denver Broncos.

2016
Syracuse set or tied more than 40 school records on offense in Dino Babers' first season as head coach. A 31-17 home victory over No. 17 Virginia Tech highlighted a 4-8 season and gave Central New York a glimpse of what Babers' high-octane, spread offense was capable of. Receiver Amba Etta-Tawo had a monster season, catching 94 passes for 1,482 yards and 14 touchdowns. Return man Brisly Estime led the NCAA in punt return average (17.7) and closed his career as the ACC's all-time leader in that category with a four-year mark of 18.0 yards per return. Etta-Tawo earned All-ACC First Team plaudits from both the media and coaches. He also garnered four All-America nods, including second-team honors from Sporting News.

2017
For the second straight season, Syracuse secured a marquee home win, shocking No. 2 Clemson, 27-24. However, injuries at key positions and five losses by nine points or less contributed to another 4-8 finish. Linebacker Zaire Franklin served as a team captain for the third year in row, a first for a Syracuse player in the modern era. Receiver Steve Ishmael caught a school-record 105 passes for 1,347 yards to close his career as the program's all-time leader in receiving yardage (2,891). Position-mate Ervin Philips ended his Orange career with a team-record 223 catches. The 2017 Walter Camp Connecticut Player of the Year, Philips snagged 89 balls, teaming up with Ishmael for an ACC-record 194 combined receptions. Ishmael was a unanimous All-ACC First Team selection and was picked to nine All-America teams. Franklin was selected in the seventh round of the 2018 NFL Draft by the Indianapolis Colts.

2018
Syracuse reclaimed its place on college football's national stage, posting a 10-3 record and finishing No. 15 in the country in both polls. The Orange were unbeaten (6-0) at home and went 6-2 versus conference opponents to finish second in the ACC Atlantic Division behind eventual national champion Clemson. Syracuse earned its first bowl berth since 2013, capping the year with a 34-18 Camping World Bowl triumph against West Virginia. The Orange set school records for points scored (528), rushing touchdowns (38) and sacks (43). Eleven players earned All-ACC honors, including first-team selections Andre Cisco (S), Sterling Hofrichter (P) and Andre Szmyt (PK). Cisco and Szmyt were named All-Americans, with Szmyt earning unanimous first-team distinction. He also won the Lou Groza Award as the nation's best kicker. Quarterback Eric Dungey closed his spectacular career with 25 school records to his name. In addition, the Orange had a player selected in the NFL Draft for the second year in a row. Defensive tackle Chris Slayton was picked in the seventh round by the New York Giants.

2019
A season-opening shutout of Liberty and wins in two of their last three games highlighted a 5-7 season for the Orange. Sterling Hofrichter capped his stellar career by earning All-America honors and setting the program record for career punting yardage (11,651). Wide receiver Trishton Jackson became the first Syracuse junior to record a 1,000-yard receiving season. Defensively, safety Andre Cisco followed up his sensational rookie season by leading the ACC again in interceptions with five, while linebacker Lakiem Williams logged an ACC-best 110 regular-season tackles. Hofrichter (first team), Jackson (second team), Cisco (second team), Williams (third team), placekicker Andre Szmyt (third team) and defensive end Alton Robinson (honorable mention) were named all-conference. Additionally, Robinson and Hofrichter were selected in the NFL Draft. Robinson was picked in the fifth round (148th overall) by the Seattle Seahawks and Hofrichter was taken in the seventh round (228th overall) by the Atlanta Falcons.

COLLEGE FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME

Founded in 1951 by the National Football Foundation, the College Football Hall of Fame immortalizes the greatest of the amateur gridiron.

With 18 inductees, Syracuse is one of the most well-represented schools in the Hall. The Orange rank second behind Pittsburgh (25) for the most honorees among ACC programs.

Originally slated to be built on the Rutgers University campus – home of the first college football game in 1869 – the Hall ultimately found its first home in Kings Mill, Ohio in 1978. The Ohio location closed in 1992 and the Hall relocated to South Bend, Indiana where it resided from 1995 to 2012. In 2014, the College Football Hall of Fame opened in Atlanta where it is home to approximately 1,250 enshrinees.

Syracuse coaches Frank O'Neill and Howard Jones were members of the first induction class in 1951. Three years later, in 1954, three-time All-American Joe Alexander became the first Orange player inducted. Receiver Art Monk is the program's most recent honoree. Monk was enshrined in 2012.

Art Monk was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 2012 in recognition of a standout career that included leading the Orange to a victory in the 1979 Independence Bowl.

Don McPherson celebrated his College Football Hall of Fame induction with friends and former teammates on Nov. 1, 2008 versus Louisville.

ALL-CENTURY TEAM

Syracuse University's All-Century Football Team featured a Heisman Trophy winner and nine College Football Hall of Famers. The team was comprised of players from eight different decades, including several Orange standouts who showcased their talents in the NFL. Donovan McNabb, Marvin Harrison and Daryl Johnston were just a few of many All-Century honorees who went on to professional football stardom.

The team was announced on Oct. 27, 1999 following a selection process that included more than 6,000 fan votes. The criteria for selecting the team included all players who significantly impacted Syracuse football with special consideration for those who were members of the College Football Hall of Fame, All-Americans or who played in the NFL. Nominees were selected by three prominent figures associated with the Orange football program: Sports Information Director Emeritus Larry Kimball, former Syracuse Newspapers Sports Editor Arnie Burdick and former player, coach and administrator Joe Szombathy.

"Being selected to this elite team typifies the tremendous success that Syracuse football achieved throughout the 20th century. Some of these athletes are among the greatest to ever play college football. It was an honor for us to recognize their talents and contributions at our final home game of the century," former Syracuse Director of Athletics Jake Crouthamel said.

Members of the All-Century Team were honored at halftime against Temple on Nov. 6, 1999.

RETIRED NUMBERS & JERSEYS

Since Syracuse University began fielding an intercollegiate football team in 1889, only one number (44) and six jerseys have been retired. The No. 44 was worn by 25 Orange standouts, including Jim Brown, Ernie Davis and Floyd Little. The jerseys belonged to six of the greatest players in Syracuse football history not to wear 44 – Larry Csonka, John Mackey, Donovan McNabb, Don McPherson, Joe Morris and Tim Green.

THE LEGEND OF 44

Like tailbacks at USC, quarterbacks at Brigham Young and linebackers at Penn State, the running back position at Syracuse has a rich tradition of greatness. Much of that excellence has revolved around one jersey number – 44.

On Nov. 12, 2005 the number was retired. A No. 44 jersey is displayed in the Dome rafters, honoring the legends who wore it.

Beginning with Gifford Zimmerman in 1921, 25 players sported the number during their careers. Rob Konrad was the last in 1998. Three of the most famous to don the historic digits – Jim Brown, Ernie Davis and Floyd Little – are enshrined in the College Football Hall of Fame and rank among the finest runners to ever play the game.

Over time, the number's significance has extended beyond athletics and has come to represent something special for Syracuse University students, alumni, faculty and staff. It is an iconic and irreplaceable part of the school's fabric. Just how much does the No. 44 mean to the University and local community? For starters, the University zip code was changed from 13210 to 13244 several years ago. In 1988, when the University switched phone systems, the exchange was changed from 423 to 443. Thirty years later, in 2018, the tradition continued with a new way to pay tribute to the number. That fall, Orange Central featured the University's first 44th milestone reunion, bringing the Class of 1974 back together during Syracuse's annual homecoming and reunion weekend.

A committee has been established to oversee No. 44. Under very special circumstances, the committee can permit a current student-athlete to wear it.

RETIRED NUMBERS & JERSEYS

39 • LARRY CSONKA, FB

Years: 1965-67 • Jersey Retired: 2007

Csonka led the Orange in rushing twice. He was named the 1967 ECAC Player of the Year and ranks fifth on Syracuse's all-time rushing list (2,934 yards). Csonka went on to play for the NFL's Miami Dolphins and New York Giants. He was a member of the 1972 Dolphins team that went undefeated. Csonka was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1987. Two years later, in 1989, he was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame.

88 • JOHN MACKEY, TE

Years: 1960-62 • Jersey Retired: 2007

Mackey is known as perhaps the greatest tight end of all-time. He led the Orange in receiving yardage in 1961 and 1962. Mackey went on to become an All-Pro for the Baltimore Colts. A five-time Pro Bowler, he was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1992. Mackey died in 2011 at the age of 69. Each year since 2000, the John Mackey Award has been presented to the nation's top collegiate tight end.

5 • DONOVAN McNABB, QB

Years: 1995-98 • Jersey Retired: 2013

McNabb led the Orange to three straight BIG EAST titles from 1996-98. He was fifth in the Heisman Trophy balloting as a senior and holds the school records for most career touchdown passes (77) and touchdowns responsible for (96). A four-time All-BIG EAST First Team selection, McNabb was taken second overall by the Philadelphia Eagles in the 1999 NFL Draft. He was a six-time Pro Bowler in his 11 years with the franchise and played a total of 13 NFL seasons.

9 • DON McPHERSON, QB

Years: 1983-87 • Jersey Retired: 2013

McPherson authored one of the best seasons in school history in 1987. The Heisman Trophy runner-up, McPherson won the Maxwell (Most Outstanding Player) and Davey O'Brien (Most Outstanding Quarterback) awards after guiding the Orange to an 11-0-1 record. His 164.3 passer rating led the NCAA and stands as the Syracuse single-season record. McPherson played seven professional seasons in the NFL and CFL. He was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 2008.

47 • JOE MORRIS, RB

Years: 1978-81 • Jersey Retired: 2018

Morris holds or shares 15 school records, including the single-game (252 yards), single-season (1,372 yards in 1979) and career (4,299 yards) rushing records. He posted three 1,000-yard rushing seasons and earned All-America honors in 1979 and 1981. Morris was drafted by the New York Giants in 1982 and played eight seasons in the NFL. He was a two-time Pro Bowl selection and helped the 1986 Giants win the franchise's first Super Bowl.

72 • TIM GREEN, DT

Green was the first defensive player to have his jersey retired by the program. A member of Syracuse's All-Century team, Green tallied a school-record 45.5 sacks and 341 career tackles, the most by a down lineman in team history, from 1982-85. He was a two-time CoSIDA Academic All-American and a Rhodes Scholarship finalist before going on to a successful NFL career with the Atlanta Falcons. An accomplished broadcaster, author and lawyer, Green was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 2001.

CONSENSUS ALL-AMERICANS

MARQUIS (BILL) HORR

Tackle • 1908

The first All-American in the history of Syracuse football, Horr anchored a young offensive line on a team that opened newly-built Archbold Stadium with a win against Hobart in 1907. The next year, Horr led the Orange to a 6-3-1 record and the first victory in school history against a team from the Western Conference (now Big Ten) when Syracuse topped Michigan 28-4 in the season finale. At the 1908 Summer Olympics in London, Horr won the silver medal in the Greek-style discus throw and the bronze in the free-style discus throw. Horr served as the head football coach at Northwestern in 1909 and the head coach at Purdue from 1910 to 1912, compiling a career record of 9-14-2.

HAROLD WHITE

Guard • 1915

White and fellow All-American Christopher Schlacter were the guards on a line that helped Syracuse's offense overpower its opponents by the combined score of 331-16 in 1915. The Orange scored more than 30 points on five occasions and topped the 70-point mark in victories against Mount Union (73-0) and Rochester (82-0). The team finished with an impressive 9-1-2 record and was invited to play Washington in the Rose Bowl, but declined because an earlier West Coast trip (the first by an Eastern school) to Oregon State had used up the travel budget. Standing 6 feet 6 inches tall and weighing more than 270 pounds, White was one of the largest players of his era and captained the Orange in 1916.

ALFRED COBB

Tackle • 1917

A 1917 team captain, Cobb was the anchor for an offensive line that propelled the Orange to an 8-1-1 record, including six straight wins to end the season. Cobb played in the early days of the NFL, when it was still known as the American Professional Football Association (APFA). He suited up for the Akron Pros and the Cleveland Bulldogs. In 1920 with Akron, Cobb was a member of the very first NFL championship team. Over three APFA/NFL seasons, Cobb played in 21 games as a lineman, starting 16 of them.

J.A. (JOE) ALEXANDER

Guard/Center • 1918, 1919

Alexander and Ernie Davis are the only two players in Orange history to earn multiple consensus All-America honors. Alexander starred for Coach Frank O'Neill's teams from 1918-20. He also captained the lacrosse team for one season. Nicknamed "Doc," Alexander graduated from medical school and began practicing in New York City. He specialized in lung treatment and helped found one of the first tuberculosis centers in New York. For seven seasons (1921-27), he played in the National Football League on weekends while practicing medicine. A center in the NFL's early days for the Rochester Jeffersons (1921-22), Milwaukee Badgers (1922) and New York Giants (1925-27), Alexander was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1954.

LOUIS USHER

Tackle • 1918

Usher and fellow offensive lineman Joe Alexander anchored the line for the 5-1 Orange in 1918. Usher went on to play professional football for five years for the Rochester Jeffersons, Chicago Stanleys, Chicago Bears, Hammond Pros and Kenosha Maroons. He was tragically killed on Jan. 1, 1927 in an automobile accident near Calumet City, Illinois.

EVANDER (PETE) MacRAE

End • 1923

MacRae led the Orange to an 8-1 overall record in 1923, including seven straight shutouts. The three-year football letterwinner was also the starting center for the Syracuse basketball team. After playing professional basketball for the Syracuse All-Stars, he returned to the University as an assistant basketball coach.

VIC HANSON

End • 1926

A three-sport star in football, basketball and baseball, Hanson was a consensus All-American on the gridiron in 1926 after leading the Orange to a 7-2-1 record. That winter, Hanson powered the Orange basketball team to a 19-1 mark. Following his college career, Hanson played briefly with the Cleveland Rosenblums in the American Basketball League and then formed the Syracuse All-Americans basketball team. The New York Yankees also signed Hanson upon his graduation from Syracuse in 1927 and he played one year in their farm system. Hanson served as head football coach of the Orange from 1930 to 1936, compiling a record of 33-21-5. He is the only player enshrined in both the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame and College Football Hall of Fame.

JIM BROWN

Halfback • 1956 *

Brown set the Orange record for average yards per carry (6.2) in 1956 and broke the single-season rushing record with 986 yards. Against Colgate that season, he established school marks for rushing touchdowns (6) and points scored in a game (43). After leaving Syracuse, he played for the NFL's Cleveland Browns from 1957 to 1965 and scored 106 touchdowns. He was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1971 and College Football Hall of Fame in 1995. In addition to football, Brown excelled at basketball, lacrosse and track. He is a member of the National Lacrosse Hall of Fame and was an All-American midfielder on the Orange's undefeated 1957 team. Brown is considered by many to be the greatest athlete of all-time. During the 2020 CFP National Championship Game, he was crowned the No. 1 player of college football's first 150 years by ESPN.

ROGER DAVIS

Guard • 1959 *

Nicknamed "Hound Dog" because of his love for training hunting dogs, Davis helped fellow All-American Ernie Davis rush for 883 yards in 1959. He was a member of a Syracuse unit that led the country in total offense (451.5 ypg) on its way to winning the national championship. Davis played pro football for the Chicago Bears, Los Angeles Rams and New York Giants. He was a starter at right guard for the Bears in 1963 when they won the NFL championship.

Halfback • 1960, 1961 *

Nicknamed the "Elmira Express" by sportswriter Al Mallette, Davis powered Syracuse to a 26-5 record from 1959-61. As a sophomore in 1959, Davis scored two touchdowns against Texas in the Cotton Bowl to help the Orange complete a perfect season and capture the program's only national championship. Two years later, Davis became the first African-American and only Syracuse player to win the Heisman Trophy. He was selected first overall by the Washington Redskins in the 1962 NFL Draft and traded to Cleveland. Davis was diagnosed with leukemia the following summer and died in 1963 at the age of 23 without ever playing a professional game. The Browns retired his No. 45 jersey shortly after his death, and Davis was posthumously inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1979. In 2008, he was the subject of the Universal Pictures film "The Express," starring Dennis Quaid, Rob Brown and Charles S. Dutton. The film was based on the non-fiction book "Ernie Davis: The Elmira Express" by Robert C. Gallagher.

CONSENSUS ALL-AMERICANS

LARRY CSONKA

Fullback • 1967 *

Csonka led the Orange in rushing twice and was named the 1967 ECAC Player of the Year as a senior. He teamed with halfback Floyd Little to form the most potent rushing duo in school history. Csonka holds the Orange record for most carries in a game (43 vs. Maryland in 1967) and ranks fifth on Syracuse's career rushing list (2,934 yards). He recorded two 200-yard rushing games for the Orange, including 204 yards against Cal in 1967. Csonka went on to play for the NFL's Miami Dolphins and New York Giants. He was a member of the 1972 Dolphins team that went undefeated. Csonka was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1987. Two years later, in 1989, he was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame. In 2007, Syracuse retired Csonka's No. 39 jersey.

TIM GREEN

Defensive Tackle • 1985 *

Green was named the ECAC co-Player of the Year in 1985 and ranks first on Syracuse's career sacks list with 45.5. He remains the program's top tackler among down linemen with 341 career stops. Green played for the NFL's Atlanta Falcons and was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 2001. After his playing career ended, Green became a commentator for the NFL on FOX. A best-selling author and lawyer, Green won the NCAA Silver Anniversary Award, given annually to six former student-athletes for distinguished career accomplishments on the 25th anniversary of their college graduation, in December 2011. In 2019, Green became the first defensive player in program history to have his jersey retired.

TED GREGORY

Nose Guard • 1987

Gregory was a force during Syracuse's 11-0-1 season in 1987. He captained a defense that allowed more than 21 points just once in 12 games. He was a finalist for the Lombardi Award, which at the time recognized the most outstanding lineman or linebacker in major college football. Gregory completed his four-year career with 242 tackles, third all-time among Orange defensive linemen, and 17 sacks. He went on to play in the NFL for the New Orleans Saints.

DON McPHERSON

Quarterback • 1987 *

The Heisman Trophy runner-up in 1987, McPherson won the Maxwell (Most Outstanding Player), Davey O'Brien (Most Outstanding Quarterback) and Johnny Unitas Golden Arm (Most Outstanding Senior Quarterback) awards. His 164.3 passer rating that season led the NCAA and stands as an Orange record. He also set the school single-season marks for most yards per pass attempt (10.2) and most yards per completion (18.1). Upon graduating from Syracuse, McPherson spent seven seasons in the NFL and CFL. After retiring from football in 1994, he joined the staff of Northeastern University's Center for the Study of Sport in Society before becoming the first executive director of the Sports Leadership Institute at Adelphi University. McPherson was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 2008. Syracuse retired McPherson's No. 9 jersey in 2013.

JOHN FLANNERY

Center • 1990

With Flannery as the anchor of the offensive line from 1987-90, Syracuse posted a four-year record of 36-10-3, including a 3-0-1 record in bowl games. A native of Pottsville, Pennsylvania, Flannery started at left guard for Syracuse in 1987 before shifting to center. He was a three-time All-American, earning first-team honors in both 1989 and 1990. He was drafted in the second round by the Houston Oilers and made the NFL All-Rookie Team in 1991. He later made professional stops with the Dallas Cowboys and St. Louis Rams, winning a Super Bowl title as a member of the Rams in 1999. That same year, Flannery was named to Syracuse's All-Century Team.

CHRIS GEDNEY

Tight End • 1992 *

A native of nearby Liverpool, New York, Gedney set the standard for Orange tight ends. He held the school records for most receptions by a tight end in a season (34) and career (91) until 2011. His 34 catches and five touchdowns during the 1992 season helped propel Syracuse to a 10-2 record and a victory over Colorado in the Fiesta Bowl. Gedney played seven seasons in the NFL for the Chicago Bears and Arizona Cardinals. In 2008, he returned to his alma mater as the Orange Club's assistant athletics director for major gifts. He was appointed senior associate athletics director for the Orange Club in 2011, a position he held until his passing in 2018. A member of Syracuse's All-Century Team, Gedney was named a 2015 ACC Football Legend. He also served as the color analyst for Syracuse IMG Sports Network football broadcasts from 2007-2017.

DWIGHT FREENEY

Defensive End • 2001 *

Freeney terrorized opposing quarterbacks from 1998-2001. He holds the Orange records for most sacks in a game (4.5 vs. Virginia Tech in 2000) and season (17.5 in 2001). He finished his career with 34 quarterback takedowns, second only to Tim Green on the Syracuse all-time list. Freeney was team MVP his junior year. As a senior in 2001, he was an All-BIG EAST First Team selection and shared BIG EAST Defensive Player of the Year honors. He was also a finalist for the 2001 Lombardi, Bednarik and Nagurski awards. The Indianapolis Colts made Freeney the 11th overall pick in the 2002 NFL Draft. In 2004, Freeney led the NFL with 16 sacks. Two years later, he won a world championship when Indianapolis defeated the Chicago Bears in Super Bowl XLI. Freeney also played for the San Diego Chargers, Arizona Cardinals, Atlanta Falcons, Seattle Seahawks and Detroit Lions during his pro career. He retired in 2018 with 125.5 career sacks.

ANDRE SZMYT

Placekicker • 2018 *

Originally a walk-on, Szmyt authored the best season on record for an Orange specialist as a freshman in 2018. Szmyt became the first player in team history to win the Lou Groza Award as the nation's top kicker, connecting on 30-of-34 (.882) field goals and making all 61 of his extra-point attempts. He led the NCAA in almost every kicking category, including most field goals. Additionally, Szmyt became the second placekicker in FBS history to lead the country in scoring average with 11.6 points per game. Szmyt was a 2018 All-ACC First Team selection and received All-America honors from 14 different selectors, including 12 first-team citations.

 - *Unanimous selection

ALL-AMERICANS

The following roster of Syracuse All-Americans consists of only those players who were named to All-America teams that were selected for the national audience and that received nationwide circulation. Not included are the numerous Syracuse players who were selected by newspapers or agencies that were not primarily national and with viewpoints, therefore, they were not normally nationwide in scope.

Defensive tackle Joe Ehrmann (76) was an All-American in 1969, 1970 and 1972. He went on to play 10 seasons in the NFL, including eight with the Baltimore Colts.

JIM BROWN: ALL-TIME ALL-AMERICAN

In conjunction with the 150th anniversary of college football in 2019, ESPN selected an All-Time All-America Team comprised of the greatest players in intercollegiate football history. Among those named to the 25-man team was Syracuse great and 1956 unanimous All-American Jim Brown.

The All-Time All-America Team was derived from the votes of a blue-ribbon panel made up of current and former writers, broadcasters, administrators, sports information directors and ESPN personalities. The panel included Syracuse Executive Senior Associate AD for Communications Sue Edson.

NATIONAL HONORS & AWARDS

THE HEISMAN TROPHY

ERNIE DAVIS • 1961

In 1961, halfback Ernie Davis won the Heisman Trophy, given to the outstanding intercollegiate football player in the United States. Davis edged out Bill Ferguson of Ohio State, in what was at the time the closest vote in Heisman history (824 points to 771), to become the first African-American and only Syracuse player to win the coveted award. Davis rushed for 823 yards and 12 touchdowns to lead the Orange to an 8-3 record and the No. 14 ranking in the final Associated Press college football poll. Davis was selected first overall by the Washington Redskins in 1962 and traded to the Cleveland Browns. While preparing for the AFCA All-American Game in Buffalo, Davis was diagnosed with leukemia. He died in 1963, never getting the chance to realize his dream of teaming with former Syracuse great Jim Brown in the Cleveland Browns backfield. Davis' Heisman Trophy is kept on display in the Iocolano-Petty Football Complex for all to enjoy.

SOLADAY AWARD

It is fitting that the Soladay Award is the most prestigious award given to a student-athlete by the Department of Athletics. After all, Doris R. Soladay epitomized all of the positives in intercollegiate athletics. The Soladay Award is given annually to the top male and female student-athletes who best exemplify the essence of Doris.

From her appointment as the first, and only, Director of Women's Athletics at Syracuse University in 1975 until the day she retired as Associate Director of Athletics on May 31, 1995, Doris dedicated herself to student-athletes wearing the Orange. The Syracuse Department of Athletics and the world of intercollegiate sports lost a dear friend when Doris passed away in May, 2001.

Doris established scholarships for women, while increasing the budgets to run the programs. She worked with the late Chancellor Melvin Eggers and others who supported women's athletics to begin Orange Plus. Throughout her career, Doris made it a point to attend every home athletic contest of every Syracuse team whenever possible. She often cheered on one team in the morning, another in the afternoon and a third in the evening.

Her impact on athletics reaches far beyond "The Hill," however. Prior to the NCAA taking women's athletics into its fold, Doris held offices on numerous committees in the AIAW (Association for Intercollegiate Athletics for Women) on the state, regional and national levels. After the merger Doris directed her energy into the NCAA Council, serving from 1989 through 1995.

Doris was also influential regionally where she was an integral part of the expansion of The BIG EAST Conference to include women's athletics, as well as chairing various committees in the league. The ECAC also benefitted from her knowledge and savvy, where she was a member of the ECAC Women's Steering Committee from 1983-87. For her many outstanding contributions, the ECAC honored Doris with the 1995 Katherine Ley Award, presented annually to a women's athletics administrator who serves as a role model for her colleagues, as well as a strong proponent of women's issues.

It is no secret that since her retirement her presence in the corridors of Manley Field House has been missed, but it is clear that her legacy will remain a part of the Orange forever.

TEAM AWARDS

THE ZUNIC AWARD

Presented by the Syracuse Football Club, the Zunic Award was created in 2001 to honor Mike and Judy Zunic, who died tragically on July 18, 1989 when a United Airlines plane crashed in Sioux City, Iowa. The pilot, anticipating landing difficulties, requested if some strong passengers would volunteer to give up their seats and sit at the exit doors to assist passengers in the event of an emergency. Mike and Judy gave up their seats in first class to sit at one of the exit doors. They both died in the crash and those in the Zunics' original seats survived.

Mike was a four-year starter at linebacker and earned a B.A. ('81) and master's ('82) degree from Syracuse University in speech communication.

YEAR-BY-YEAR RESULTS

Game-by-game results for every Syracuse football season since 1889. Home games were played on campus at The Oval from 1895-1906 and at Archbold Stadium from 1907-1978. Home games in 1979 were played at various sites due to the construction of the Carrier Dome, which has served as the team's home venue since 1980.

Syracuse was a member of the BIG EAST Conference from 1991-2012. There were no BIG EAST standings for 1991 and 1992. The highest ranked team in the USA Today Coaches Poll those seasons was declared conference champion. In 2013, Syracuse joined the Atlantic Coast Conference.

Associated Press rankings at the time the game was played are listed under the headings "SU" and "Opp." The AP poll began in 1936. From 1961-67, the AP ranked only the nation's top 10 teams. Available game attendance figures are also listed.

NCAA STATISTICAL CHAMPIONS

The NCAA began producing its annual statistical rankings in 1937. From 1937 through 1969, all individual rankings were by season totals. Beginning in 1970, most season individual rankings were by per game averages. Punting has always been by average.

Beginning in 1970, passers were ranked on completions per game. Starting in 1979, they were ranked on efficiency rating points. The all-purpose running rankings have been compiled since 1970. Field goal rankings began when the goal posts were widened in 1959.

Before 2002, bowl games were not included in NCAA final football statistics or records. Beginning with the 2002 season, all postseason games were included.

The NCAA retroactively determined the leaders in kickoff return and punt return average from 1937 to 1969 and includes them in the official record book.

This listing includes national leaders in additional statistical categories if known.

Return man Quinton Spotwood electrified Syracuse fans in 1997. He ran back an NCAA-best four punts for touchdowns.

In 2001, Dwight Freeney authored the best season of any Orange defender, leading the nation in both sacks and forced fumbles.

OVERTIME GAMES & SPECIAL DATES

ORANGE IN OVERTIME (11-8)

Syracuse has played 19 extra-session games since the NCAA instituted overtime in 1996. In 2002, Syracuse became the first team in NCAA history to have two games settled in triple overtime in the same season.

The Associated Press college football poll was introduced in 1936. The poll ranked the top 20 teams in the nation until 1961 when it was revamped to include just the top 10 teams. The top-20 format returned in 1968 and was expanded to include the top 25 in 1989.

The coaches poll was a service of the United Press (UP) and United Press International (UPI) from 1950 to 1990. In 1991, the coaches poll was taken over and released by USA Today.

Bowl Championship Series (BCS) rankings were released from 1998-2013. The College Football Playoff (CFP) rankings debuted in 2014.

PRO FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME

JIM BROWN

Jim Brown is the player all running backs are measured against. He is the only person enshrined in the College Football, Pro Football and National Lacrosse Halls of Fame. He was a unanimous collegiate All-American in both sports. The 6-2, 232-pound Brown was the top draft choice of the Cleveland Browns in 1957. He is considered by many to be the finest runner to ever play the game. He led the NFL in rushing in eight of his nine professional seasons. When Brown retired in July of 1966, he held the NFL records for single-season (1,863 in 1963) and career (12,312) rushing yardage, rushing touchdowns (106), total touchdowns (126) and career all-purpose yardage (15,549). He was voted to the Pro Bowl every season he played and was named the greatest professional football player of all-time by Sporting News in 2002.

JIM RINGO

One of the greatest linemen in pro football history, Jim Ringo was the center for Vince Lombardi's great Green Bay Packers teams, and later in his career, the Philadelphia Eagles. Ringo earned All-NFL honors six times. He played in 10 Pro Bowls and three NFL championship games. Ringo was a member of Ben Schwartzwalder's 7-2 1952 squad that earned a trip to the Orange Bowl, Syracuse's first-ever bowl appearance.

LARRY CSONKA

Still considered the prototype for NFL fullbacks, Larry Csonka led the Miami Dolphins to an undefeated season and the Super Bowl title in 1972. He was the MVP of Super Bowl VIII after carrying 33 times for 145 yards and two touchdowns, as Miami defeated Minnesota, 24-7. A five-time Pro Bowl selection, Csonka put together three straight 1,000-yard campaigns from 1971-73, leading the Dolphins to the Super Bowl each season.

AL DAVIS

A 1950 Syracuse University graduate, Al Davis was the owner of the Oakland Raiders from 1972 to 2011. He served as commissioner of the AFL in 1966 and was the driving force behind the AFL-NFL merger. From 1967-85, Davis' Raiders won an AFL championship, three Super Bowl titles and 13 division championships.

Syracuse's legacy in the Pro Football Hall of Fame ranks among the finest of any college football program. The Orange boast eight inductees, tied for the seventh-most of any school. Jim Brown (1971) was the Orange's first representative enshrined in Canton. Marvin Harrison (2016) is Syracuse's most recent honoree. Three players (Art Monk, Floyd Little and Harrison) earned induction during the nine-year period from 2008 to 2016.

JOHN MACKEY

John Mackey is known as perhaps the greatest tight end of all-time. He played 10 seasons in the NFL from 1963-72, including nine with the Baltimore Colts. A five-time Pro Bowler, Mackey caught 331 career passes for 5,236 yards and scored 38 touchdowns. He was a member of the NFL's 1960s All-Decade Team and was named to the NFL 100 All-Time Team in 2019. Mackey served as president of the NFL Players Association toward the end of his career and helped fight to establish free agency.

ART MONK

Considered one of football's most reliable receivers, Art Monk played for the Washington Redskins, New York Jets and Philadelphia Eagles during his 16-year NFL career that spanned from 1980 to 1995. Monk was selected by the Redskins in the 1980 NFL Draft and helped the franchise win three Super Bowl titles. He was voted to the Pro Bowl after the 1984, 1985 and 1986 seasons. Monk was the first receiver in league history to amass 900 career receptions. He made at least one reception in 183 straight games and finished his career with 940 catches.

FLOYD LITTLE

A multi-dimensional player, Floyd Little combined his rushing talents with great hands and elusiveness in the return game to become a superstar for the Denver Broncos. A five-time Pro Bowler, Little recorded more than 12,000 all-purpose yards during his career, which lasted from 1967 to 1975. He led the AFC in rushing in 1970. The next year, Little posted the first 1,000-yard season in Denver history, gaining a league-best 1,133 yards. At the time of his retirement, Little ranked seventh on the NFL's career rushing list (6,323 yards). He was a charter member of the Broncos Ring of Fame in 1984.

MARVIN HARRISON

An All-American for the Orange in 1995, Marvin Harrison played 13 seasons for the Indianapolis Colts and earned eight Pro Bowl invitations. As Peyton Manning's favorite target, Harrison posted eight 1,000-yard receiving seasons, including 1,366 yards in 2006 to help the Colts win their first Super Bowl in 36 years. In 2002, Harrison set the NFL single-season record (since broken) with 143 catches. At the time of his retirement, Harrison ranked second in league history with 1,102 receptions for 14,580 yards and 128 touchdowns.

 - Territorial Draft*

NOTE

The USFL held a yearly "territorial" draft where teams could select players from protected schools in their geographic area without them being subjected to the league's annual collegiate draft.

In 1993, Glen Young was selected in the third round of the Canadian Football League Draft by the Hamilton Tiger-Cats.

XFL DRAFT PICKS

KENT SYVERUD

Chancellor & President

Chancellor Kent Syverud is the 12th chancellor and president of Syracuse University. A legal scholar and educator, Chancellor Syverud has earned distinction as a strategic thinker and visionary leader who has put forward a bold strategic plan to position the University for growth and recognition as a thriving global research university.

At Syracuse, Chancellor Syverud identified four key institutional priorities: providing an outstanding undergraduate experience; empowering research excellence; fostering and supporting change and innovation; and positioning Syracuse as the best university in the world for veterans. Chancellor Syverud also launched a three-pronged initiative, "Fast Forward Syracuse," to achieve these ambitious goals. Part of that initiative is an academic strategic planning process that builds on historic institutional strengths, positions the University to anticipate and quickly respond to emerging challenges and opportunities, and aligns the academic goals with a new framework for the physical transformation of the main campus.

A native of Irondequoit in Upstate New York, Chancellor Syverud came to Syracuse from Washington University in St. Louis, where he served as dean and the Ethan A.H. Shepley Distinguished University Professor at the School of Law. Prior to that, he served as dean at Vanderbilt Law School and as associate dean for academic affairs and a professor at the University of Michigan Law School. At Syracuse, he continues to teach each semester as a member of the College of Law and School of Education faculties. An elected member of the American Law Institute, Syverud's scholarship has addressed negotiation, civil litigation, dispute resolution and higher education.

Chancellor Syverud has a bachelor's degree from the Georgetown University School of Foreign Service and a law degree and master's in economics from the University of Michigan. He counts among his closest mentors retired U.S. Supreme Court Justice Sandra Day O'Connor, for whom he clerked shortly after she became the first woman named to the Supreme Court bench.

In addition to his higher education leadership, Chancellor Syverud was appointed in October 2016 to the U.S. Department of Homeland Security (DHS) Academic Advisory Council, where he, and other academic leaders, advise DHS on homeland security, career opportunities for graduates, campus resilience and academic research. In January 2017, Chancellor Syverud began a two-year term as commissioner for the Middle States Commission on Higher Education. In this role, Chancellor Syverud works with his colleagues to refine and implement accreditation standards and define the strategic direction and processes of the Commission. In 2016, he completed six years of service as one of the two trustees of the $20 billion Deepwater Horizon Oil Spill Trust.

Chancellor Syverud is married to Dr. Ruth Chen, an accomplished environmental toxicologist and professor of practice at Syracuse University's College of Engineering and Computer Science. They are the parents of three grown sons, Steven, Brian, and David; and they have one granddaughter.

"Our department is defined by integrity and a passion for all things Syracuse – the University, the student-athletes, all students, the community and the region. We will be known as a group that collaborates amongst one another in all facets and with all branches of the University. We want our program to be a point of pride for the entire University – our students, our alumni, the community and Orange fans worldwide."

– JOHN WILDHACK – DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

John Wildhack with head football coach Dino Babers. Wildhack was an executive at ESPN before taking the reins of Syracuse Athletics in 2016.

JOHN WILDHACK

Director of Athletics

A uniquely qualified leader with a vast knowledge of and passion for Syracuse University Athletics, former ESPN executive John Wildhack was named Syracuse's 11th director of athletics in July 2016.

At Syracuse, Wildhack leads the daily operations of a 20-sport athletics department with more than 600 student-athletes. During his tenure, he has worked diligently to create an environment that fosters academic and athletic excellence which prepares student-athletes to be leaders in our global society. Those efforts have resulted in tremendous success both on and off the field.

In Wildhack's four years, 42 teams have represented Syracuse at national championship events, including 39 NCAA competitions. In addition, the football team returned to the postseason in 2018 and captured its 16th bowl victory by defeating West Virginia in the Camping World Bowl. The Orange have won 23 conference championships (four team, 19 individual) in that span and two national championships. Both national titles were courtesy of Justyn Knight, who won the NCAA Cross Country Championship and the NCAA Indoor Championship in the 5,000-meter run during the 2017-18 academic year.

Syracuse student-athletes are succeeding at a high rate in the classroom, as well. The Orange have had at least five teams receive perfect four-year scores in the NCAA's Academic Progress Rate (APR) for three straight years. A record seven Orange teams (fourth-most among Power-Five schools) posted a perfect multi-year score of 1,000 in 2017-18. As a group, the Orange student-athlete body achieved better than a 3.0 cumulative GPA in 2019-20, the fourth year in a row it surpassed that benchmark.

Since his arrival on campus, Wildhack has overseen multiple strategic initiatives to ensure the future success of the department. Among the most impactful have been securing a $118 million investment from the University for enhancements to the Dome and the formation of an in-house production unit.

Authorized by the Board of Trustees in May 2018, the $118 million in funds enabled the University to move forward with improvements to the Dome. The upgrades include a new fixed roof, vertically-hung scoreboard, and state-of-the-art sound and lighting systems, which are scheduled for completion in September 2020.

The Syracuse Athletics Production team formed in the fall of 2017. In its first three years, the group broadcast 301 live events and was responsible for nearly 1,000 hours of content on ACC Network and the conference's digital platform – ACC Network Extra.

During his distinguished career at ESPN, which spanned more than 30 years, Wildhack held a number of leadership roles and was responsible for several firsts at the network. Those firsts included producing ESPN's first live regular-season college football game in September 1984 and its first live NFL game in August 1987.

Before joining the Orange, Wildhack most recently served as the network's executive vice president for programming and production. He was responsible for oversight of all ESPN and ABC game, event and studio production work for domestic and international television and radio, as well as programming acquisitions, rights-holder relationship management and scheduling. He managed all league and conference relationships, negotiated all live sports television rights and was responsible for 50,000 hours of on-air content annually.

From 2007 to 2012, Wildhack was ESPN's executive vice president for programming and acquisitions. In that role, he oversaw all rights negotiations and managed relationships with rights holders for all ESPN entities. These included ESPN, ESPN2, ESPN Classic, ESPNews, ESPN Deportes, ESPNU, ESPN International, ESPN Radio, ESPN.com, ESPN3, ESPN Mobile Properties, print and more. In 2009, he began leading strategic program planning for all ESPN television networks, ESPN on ABC and ESPN's digital platforms.

Wildhack's managerial role at the company began in 1990 when he was named director of event productions. In 1991, he was promoted to vice president for remote production, a position he held through 1993 when he became senior vice president for remote production. In September 1994, he moved to the programming department as senior vice president for programming, and in 2005 he became senior vice president for programming acquisitions & strategy. Wildhack was directly involved in the renewal and expansion of many ESPN and ESPN2 programming agreements for the NFL, MLB, NBA, Bowl Championship Series, NCAA, tennis' four Grand Slam events and a variety of major college conferences. His efforts were integral to the increase of live and original programming on ESPN and ESPN2. Under his direction, the evolution of ESPN2's programming lineup included an extensive commitment to auto racing and college football and basketball, leading to ESPN2 becoming the fastest growing network of the 1990s.

Wildhack first joined ESPN as a production assistant in 1980. He served in a number of production positions prior to his move to the management track, including production assistant, associate producer, senior associate producer, producer, coordinating producer and director of event productions. Among the sports he worked on were college football, NCAA basketball, boxing, golf and auto racing. He served as coordinating producer for ESPN's "Sunday Night Football" and NFL Draft telecasts in 1988 and 1989 and produced NFL games for the network – the first NFL games on cable – from 1987-89.

A native of Buffalo, New York and a 1980 alumnus of the S.I. Newhouse School of Public Communications with a degree in telecommunications, Wildhack joined ESPN in its first year of operation immediately following his graduation. An active alumnus of the University, he sits on the Advisory Board for the David B. Falk College of Sport and Human Dynamics and was an honoree at the "Newhouse at 40" Gala.

He and his wife, Amy, have two sons, Tommy and James. John is also the father of a son, M.J.

HERMAN FRAZIER

Senior Deputy Director of Athletics

Veteran athletics administrator Herman Frazier was promoted to senior deputy director of athletics in May 2016. Frazier joined the Syracuse staff as deputy athletics director/chief of staff in 2011.

A native of Philadelphia, Frazier boasts more than 40 years of experience in athletics administration, including eight years as an athletics director. He has overseen the participation of the Syracuse football team in three bowl games, including the 2018 Camping World Bowl. In 2012, Frazier received the NACDA Pioneer Award for his position as Chef de Mission for the 2004 Olympic Games.

Before coming to Syracuse, Frazier was the senior associate athletics director for sports administration at Temple. Prior to joining the Owls, Frazier served six years as the director of athletics at Hawaii. He was also previously the director of athletics at the University of Alabama at Birmingham (UAB).

At Temple, Frazier supervised the football, basketball, baseball, soccer and crew programs, and was the administrative liaison for budget, compliance, financial aid, coaching searches, scheduling, academic support, facility issues, event management, media relations and marketing. He was also responsible for administrative supervision of the equipment operation, facilities, event management, sports medicine and strength and conditioning. Frazier handled the administrative logistics for Temple's appearance in the 2009 Eagle Bank Bowl and the men's basketball team's 2010 and 2011 NCAA Tournament appearances.

Frazier was the athletics director at Hawaii from 2002 through 2008, where he guided the Warriors to unparalleled success. Under Frazier's direction, the football team earned a spot in the 2008 Sugar Bowl following an unbeaten regular season and garnered four consecutive bowl bids, while the volleyball program advanced to back-to-back Final Fours. During his tenure, Frazier created premium seat donations, established a five-year financial plan, negotiated head coaching contracts for football and women's basketball, and was instrumental in bringing an Olympic trials event to Honolulu.

Frazier's first athletics director post was at UAB in 2000. As the second director of athletics in the history of the school, Frazier started a $30 million facility improvement plan and was responsible for instituting new management concepts and a strategic master plan for athletics.

Frazier began his career in administration immediately upon graduation from Arizona State, joining the Sun Devils staff as a graduate assistant for the track & field program in 1977. In 1979, he was appointed assistant director of events and facilities. During his 23-year tenure at ASU, Frazier moved up the ranks to the position of senior associate athletics director for business operations. He was the administrator for 10 Olympic sports that won numerous national championships, and the football program, which earned two Rose Bowl berths. He also directed business affairs, operations and stadium management.

An eight-time All-American in track at ASU, Frazier was the leadoff runner for the 1976 Olympic gold medal-winning 4x400 relay team. From 1980 through 2004, Frazier served on various United States Olympic committees, including two stints as the U.S. Olympic Committee vice president from 1996 to 2004. In 2004, he was named Chef de Mission for the U.S. delegation at the Athens Olympics. Frazier presided over the most successful U.S. Olympic team in history, as the Americans won 103 medals.

Frazier is a current member of the NCAA Division I Track & Field Committee, representing both Syracuse University and the Atlantic Coast Conference. It's Frazier's second time serving on the committee, including a term as chairman from 1994-95 while at Arizona State.

ANDREW T. GOODRICH

Deputy AD/Chief Marketing Officer

Dr. Andrew T. Goodrich joined the Syracuse Athletics senior leadership team as the deputy athletics director/chief marketing officer in November 2018. Immediately prior to his appointment, Goodrich had served as the senior associate athletics director for external relations at South Florida since 2014. He has also worked at the University of Miami and Notre Dame.

In his short time at Syracuse, Goodrich has already made an impact. He and his external relations team directed the effort that resulted in a record 9,255 new football season tickets sold for 2019. In men's basketball, Syracuse has led the nation in average home attendance the past two seasons and drew an NCAA on-campus record crowd of 35,642 for its game against Duke on Feb.23, 2019. Additionally, Goodrich was integral to extending the department's relationship with Nike as the official apparel provider of Syracuse Athletics, a deal that was announced in June 2019.

At USF, Goodrich was responsible for leading the Bulls' business strategy, revenue generation, ticket operations, ticket sales, corporate sponsorship, merchandising and USF Athletics licensing (CLC) initiatives. Additionally, Goodrich supervised marketing and strategic communications, which included digital and social media strategy, Bulls Vision audio/video production, branding, as well as in-game presentation and fan experience enterprises.

Goodrich played a key role in several revenue-generating contracts, including multi-year deals with Adidas, Fanatics, the Aspire Group and Follett. He signed a multi-media rights agreement with Tampa Bay Entertainment Properties and secured naming rights for the Yuengling Center.

Goodrich worked as USF's assistant athletics director for administration from 2005 to 2010.

At Miami, Goodrich served as the associate athletics director for marketing and sales, where he established innovative advertising, promotional and sales strategies via e-commerce, digital, mobile and social media platforms. His forward-thinking approach helped the Hurricanes set attendance records in many sports, including football, men's basketball and volleyball.

A native of Owego, New York, Goodrich was the director of athletics at Owego Free Academy before working with the Hurricanes. His previous work experience also includes a stint as a financial analyst for IBM, where he managed the IBM Global Accounts Payable Business Data Warehouse.

A speaker at numerous college athletics conventions and events, Goodrich earned his doctorate in higher education administration from USF in 2015. He also holds an MBA in marketing management from Notre Dame, where he served as a marketing graduate assistant, and a bachelor's degree in business from Cumberland University.

At Cumberland, Goodrich earned academic all-conference honors in baseball and was a member of the 1998 team that reached the NAIA College World Series. Goodrich has previously taught business communications, sports marketing, fundraising and athletic administration courses during his career. He currently serves on the Collegiate Steering Committee for the Sports & Entertainment Alliance with Technology (SEAT) consortium and the InStadium Collegiate Team Advisory Council.

KRISTEN JONES KOLOD

Deputy AD/Chief Financial Officer

Kristen Jones Kolod moved to the Department of Athletics from Syracuse University's Division of Student Affairs in December 2016 to serve as deputy athletics director and chief financial officer.

Jones Kolod's primary responsibilities are to manage the department's budget and ensure fiscal responsibility. Additionally, she oversees the department's human resource processes and the facilities and event operations staff. In these roles, Jones Kolod works closely with multiple units within the University, including Budget and Planning, the Office of the Comptroller, Human Resources, Campus Planning, Design and Construction, and the Office of Advancement and External Affairs.

Prior to her current appointment, Jones Kolod was the executive director of budget and administrative operations for the Division of Student Affairs for eight years. Before that, she was the director of budget and operations for Student Affairs.

Jones Kolod has extensive experience in financial management and analysis, business process improvements and efficiencies, the development and implementation of policies and procedures, and project management.

Before joining the University, Jones Kolod was the manager of financial planning and analysis for the Division of Commercial Systems and Services at United Technologies Corporation. Her previous positions include manager of finance and accounting services at Carrier Corporation – North American Operations, and manager of corporate payroll for the Penn Traffic Company.

Jones Kolod holds a bachelor's degree in accounting and a master's degree in business administration – both from Le Moyne College. She resides in Pompey with her husband, Alex, and daughter, Sierra.

KIMBERLY KEENAN-KIRKPATRICK

Deputy AD/Senior Woman Administrator

Kimberly Keenan-Kirkpatrick joined the Syracuse Department of Athletics as the deputy athletics director/senior woman administrator in August 2015. She came to Syracuse from Seton Hall, where she worked as a member of the school's athletics administration since 2006.

At Syracuse, Keenan-Kirkpatrick is the sport supervisor for women's basketball, women's lacrosse, men's soccer and cross country/track & field. Additionally, she oversees the Syracuse Student-Athlete Development staff and serves as liaison with the University's Office of Equal Opportunity, Inclusion and Resolution Services.

Keenan-Kirkpatrick was associate director of athletics for compliance at Seton Hall for five years before her promotion to senior associate director of athletics in 2011. Her responsibilities included directing Seton Hall's compliance program and serving as the sport administrator for multiple teams. She also chaired the BIG EAST Track & Field and Cross Country Seeding committees during her time there.

Before working at Seton Hall, Keenan-Kirkpatrick was the associate athletics director and senior woman administrator at Lafayette College for four years. She served in the same capacities at Kutztown University from 1996-2002. Keenan-Kirkpatrick got her start in athletics administration as Drew University's business manager and head cross country coach.

A track & field standout at Kent State, Keenan-Kirkpatrick earned the Mid-American Conference's (MAC) Bob James Memorial Postgraduate Scholarship and placed second in the 5,000-meter run at the MAC Indoor Championship her senior year.

An accomplished coach, Keenan-Kirkpatrick has demonstrated her instructional acumen multiple times on the world stage. She was an assistant coach for the U.S. Track & Field team at the 2005 World Championship and 2008 Olympic Games in Beijing, China. In both instances, she worked with America's distance runners.

In 2011, Keenan-Kirkpatrick transitioned to a management role for USA Track & Field, serving as the head women's manager for the Pan Am Games in Guadalajara, Mexico. Most recently, she was the track & field event manager for the U.S. men and women at the 2015 Pan Am Games in Toronto.

Keenan-Kirkpatrick earned her law degree from Seton Hall in 1993. She also holds an undergraduate degree in psychology from Kent State. She and her husband, Brian, live in Manlius with their two daughters, Libbie and Madison. Libbie Kirkpatrick is a student at Syracuse University.

ANTHONY DI FINO

Associate AD/Business Development

Syracuse native Anthony Di Fino joined the Orange staff as associate athletics director for business development in March 2016.

Di Fino is responsible for developing strategic marketing campaigns to cultivate community relationships and build support for Syracuse Athletics. He is a member of the external relations team that steers decisions on marketing, fundraising, ticketing, sponsorship and communications initiatives. Upon his arrival, Di Fino implemented a new data-driven approach to revenue production and he is responsible for Syracuse's first dynamic pricing model.

During his four years, Di Fino and his sales staff have reached several milestones. A Syracuse-record 9,255 new season tickets were sold for the 2019 football season. Two years prior, the sales team was responsible for more than 4,200 new football season tickets sold, third-most all-time. Additionally, their efforts were the driving force behind Syracuse winning the men's basketball attendance crowns in 2018-19 and 2019-20. The highlight was an NCAA on-campus record crowd of 35,642 for the Duke game on Feb. 23, 2019. The Orange women's basketball team set the school attendance record on Di Fino's watch, drawing 11,021 fans for its 2017 game against Notre Dame.

Di Fino's previous experience includes positions at IMG Learfield (IMGL) Ticket Solutions and in the athletics departments at Army West Point, Columbia and Fordham.

The 2013 IMGL General Manager of the Year and 2014 IMGL Executive of the Year, Di Fino rose quickly through the company's ranks. He served as the IMGL general manager at Akron from 2011 to 2013, and worked as the general manager at Penn State from May 2013 to August 2014.

In August 2014, Di Fino was promoted to IMGL Northeast Regional Manager. In that capacity, he directed the sales efforts for 13 IMGL properties. Di Fino instituted pricing strategy, developed sales schedules and campaigns, directed overall marketing strategies and supervised the general managers at each location.

During his Akron tenure, Di Fino led a sales team that increased new revenues by 72 percent, highlighted by an 860 percent increase in partial plans and a 91 percent growth rate in group sales. At Penn State, he directed a sales force that sold more than 5,000 new seasons tickets for two consecutive years and oversaw a growth in group sales of more than 200 percent.

Prior to joining IMG Learfield, Di Fino served as the assistant athletics director for ticket sales and client services for Army West Point. He oversaw all ticket sales efforts, as well as tailgating and marketing strategies, for the Black Knights. Di Fino's previous experience also includes working as the ticket manager at Columbia and as a marketing assistant at Fordham.

An active member of the Syracuse community, Di Fino currently serves on the board of Young Leaders United. Part of the United Way of CNY, the group is comprised of Central New York professionals whose mission is to promote and encourage the spirit of philanthropy and volunteerism among young people in the area.

Di Fino was a member of the Fordham football team and graduated from the school in 2006. He earned his master's degree from Columbia in 2009.

SUE EDSON

Executive Senior Associate AD/ Communications

As the chief communications officer for Syracuse Athletics, Sue Edson is responsible for all public relations and media relations functions for the department.

Edson serves as a member of the department's senior leadership team and external relations team, which includes communications, marketing, tickets, fundraising, corporate sales, digital media and athletics production. She supervises the Athletic Communications Department and works closely with University Marketing and Communications on athletics-related matters.

The athletics communications staff is responsible for the dissemination of information for Syracuse's 20 intercollegiate sports teams to appropriate organizations. The unit manages the department's website (Cuse.com) and social media channels, acts as a liaison with external media, and educates administrators, coaches and student-athletes with regard to public speaking and interviewing skills.

A 31-year veteran of Syracuse Athletics, Edson was promoted to her current role in the spring of 2015. Previously, she served as associate director of athletics for communications (2006-14), assistant director of athletics for communications (2004-06) and director of athletic communications (1997-2004). Edson was inducted into the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA) Hall of Fame in 2012.

Prior to her appointment as director of athletic communications in 1997, Edson was an assistant director for seven years, including four years as the department's publications coordinator. As publications coordinator, she was responsible for the production of 16 media guides. In addition, she handled the day-to-day public relations duties for women's basketball.

Edson began her career at Syracuse in 1990 as an assistant sports information director where she was responsible for handling the public relations efforts for the Orange's 17 Olympic sports.

In 2006, Edson was honored with the Eastern College Athletic Conference-Sports Information Directors Association's (ECAC-SIDA) Irving T. Marsh Award for excellence in the field of sports information. The following year, she was recognized with the Greater Syracuse "40 Under 40" award for her contributions to the workplace and local community.

Edson has been the media coordinator for the NCAA Men's Basketball East Regional in Syracuse five times and served as the media coordinator for the first and second rounds of the NCAA Women's Basketball Championship at the Dome in 2016 and 2019. She served on the ECAC-SIDA Board of Directors for eight years and was the organization's president in 2002-03.

Previously an adjunct professor in Syracuse University's S.I. Newhouse School of Public Communications, Edson taught a class in sports public relations from 1994 through 2013.

Edson graduated from Syracuse in 1990 with a dual degree in broadcast journalism and policy studies.

Edson resides in Jamesville. She has two children. Her son, Thomas, is a senior at Ithaca College. Her daughter, Tracey, attended Jamesville-DeWitt High School and is a freshman at Syracuse University. Edson's late husband, Rob, was an athletics administrator at Syracuse and the director of athletics at Onondaga Community College before his passing in 2013.

Edson is a member of the Greater Syracuse Sports Hall of Fame Board of Directors and the Women's Fund of Central New York Leadership Council. Previously, she was co-president of the Jamesville-DeWitt Youth Athletic Association Board of Directors and served as co-coordinator of the basketball program.

ANDREW HURLEY

Executive Director/Athletics Development

A seasoned major-gift fundraiser with more than 25 years of experience at the Division I level, Andrew Hurley joined the Athletics Development staff in October of 2017. He was promoted to executive director in March 2019.

In his role, Hurley is responsible for the creation and implementation of all athletics fundraising efforts for the 20 men's and women's sports programs, including facilities projects. He oversees the day-to-day athletics development operations and staff, and was the driving force behind the launch of the Orange's Club's Donor Rank system in 2019-20.

Hurley's previous work experience includes closing multiple major gifts for schools like Cal State Fullerton, Cincinnati and Buffalo. In addition to his background in major gifts, Hurley's skill set includes experience in strategic planning, budgeting, operations, personnel, compliance, academic affairs, student-athlete welfare, sport supervision and facility planning.

As the senior associate athletic director for external relations at Cincinnati from 2006 to 2014, Hurley was a member of the senior staff. His focus was on external relations functions and revenue generation to support 18 teams and 547 student-athletes in a department with an approximate annual budget of $50 million.

Hurley served as the assistant athletic director for development at Buffalo from 1997 to 2006, managing all fund-development efforts within the department. He also spent several years as the director of development for Special Olympics New York.

Hurley holds an undergraduate degree from Buffalo and a master's degree in sport administration from UMass Amherst.

JORDAN KLIGERMAN

Assistant AD/Creative Services

Jordan Kligerman joined Syracuse Athletics as the department's creative media specialist in August 2016. He was promoted to assistant director of athletics for creative services in 2017.

Kligerman supervises the department's video production and design teams, which create assets for the Orange's social media platforms, as well as for commercial, fundraising and public service purposes. Additionally, he plays an integral role in the planning and execution of the gameday experience for football and men's basketball. Kligerman's other duties include producing special events such as the 'Cuse Awards, Letterwinner of Distinction Banquet and Hardwood Club Banquet.

Prior to joining the department full-time, Kligerman produced events, commercials and other content for Syracuse Athletics as the principal owner and operator of fireKmedia. Kligerman managed his own firm for 10 years with a client base that included NFL Films, the National Basketball Players Association and Aspen Dental.

In 2015-16, Kligerman was appointed a visiting assistant professor for broadcast production at SUNY Oswego.

A three-year lacrosse letterwinner, Kligerman graduated from the University of Delaware in 1996. He spent eight years with NFL Films as a production manager, coordinator and assistant. During that time, Kligerman helped produce content for ABC, FOX, NBC, ESPN and NFL Network.

In 2004, Kligerman enrolled in The City College of New York's graduate program in media arts. He was awarded a master's degree in media arts and documentary directing in 2006.

Mossovitz provides administrative support to University Vice President and Chief Facilities Officer Pete Sala and serves as the department's liaison with University Parking Services, the Department of Public Safety, EMS, Visit Syracuse, the Office of Government and Community Relations, and Recreation Services.

As game manager for all Olympic sporting events, and tournament manager for select Atlantic Coast Conference and NCAA Championship competitions, Mossovitz works with nearly every sport program on campus. He was the tournament manager for the 2015 NCAA Men's Basketball East Regional. In 2016, he was appointed the administrator in charge of overseeing Syracuse's camps and clinics.

Mossovitz earned his bachelor's degree in psychology with a minor in educational studies from Syracuse University in 2008. Two years later, he received his master's degree in student affairs counseling from the University. In May 2019, Mossovitz completed Drexel University's educational leadership and management doctoral program.

During his undergraduate and postgraduate career, Mossovitz served as team manager, graduate assistant and assistant director of camps for the Orange men's lacrosse program.

A native of Baltimore, Maryland, Mossovitz is an alumnus of St. Paul's School for Boys. He lives in Fayetteville with his wife, Elizabeth, their children Lucy and Graham, and their dog, Penny.

JAMIE MULLIN

Senior Associate AD/Administration

Jamie Mullin was promoted to senior associate athletics director for administration in July 2013 after serving in multiple roles during his time at Syracuse.

Mullin was hired as the Orange's director of compliance in July 2003. He was promoted to associate director of athletics for team services in 2006, and worked as associate director of athletics for administration prior to his current appointment.

Mullin is the department's liaison to Syracuse's Office of University Counsel, Office of Student Rights and Responsibilities, Admissions, and Financial Aid. In addition, he is responsible for athletics policy development and strategic planning. Mullin also provides managerial support to the equipment staff and video support services. He is the sport administrator for men's lacrosse, women's ice hockey, field hockey and women's rowing.

Before coming to Syracuse, Mullin worked at Fresno State for two years. He was named Fresno State's director of compliance in June 2001 and was promoted to assistant athletics director for compliance a year later. Mullin also previously worked in the compliance office at Central Michigan as an assistant from August 1999 through May 2001.

Mullin received his bachelor's degree in history from Northern Michigan. He holds a master's degree in sport administration from Central Michigan.

Jamie and his wife, Sara, reside in Jamesville with their sons, Tate and Quinn.

BRAD PIKE

Associate AD/Sports Medicine

A veteran sports medicine professional, Brad Pike was appointed associate athletics director for sports medicine in October 2016. Pike oversees all aspects of the Syracuse Sports Medicine Department and serves as the health care administrator for Syracuse Athletics.

Since 2000, Pike has worked with the men's basketball program and directed injury rehabilitation for all sports. In 2005, Pike was named head athletic trainer and director of sports medicine after serving as an associate athletic trainer for the Orange for five years. Pike previously worked as a graduate assistant athletic trainer at Syracuse from 1989-91. Before returning to the University in 2000, Pike spent nine years working in outpatient physical therapy centers.

A 1989 graduate of Marietta College in Ohio, Pike majored in sports medicine as an undergraduate and received his master's degree in education from Syracuse University in 1991. He was awarded a bachelor's degree in physical therapy from the SUNY Health Science Center in 1994.

Pike is proficient in full-body active release techniques (ART), sound-assisted soft tissue mobilization (SASTM), and is a certified National Academy of Sports Medicine Performance Specialist (PES) and Corrective Exercise Specialist (CES). His special interests include exercise recovery and strength training.

A certified member of the National Athletic Trainers Association (NATA), the College Athletic Trainers Society, the Eastern Athletic Trainers Association, and the New York State Athletic Trainers Association, Pike has presented at numerous symposiums and workshops.

Brad and his wife, Lynne, have two children – Ryan and Emily. Ryan Pike graduated from Syracuse University in 2018. The Pikes reside in Jamesville.

TOMMY POWELL

Assistant Provost/
Student-Athlete Academic Development

Tommy Powell came to Syracuse University as assistant provost for student-athlete academic development in August 2013. Powell has a strong history in guiding student-athletes to success in the classroom and in the community.

Under Powell's leadership, Syracuse has had at least five teams receive perfect four-year scores in the NCAA's Academic Progress Rate (APR) for three straight years. A record seven Orange teams (fourth-most among Power-Five schools) posted a perfect multi-year score of 1,000 in 2017-18. Additionally, 11 student-athletes have combined for 16 CoSIDA Academic All-America awards since Powell arrived on campus.

Powell joined the Orange staff from Iowa State, where he had served as the associate athletics director for academic services since 2008. While with the Cyclones, Powell implemented a standard comprehensive academic support program for all student-athletes. The program helped student-athletes attain a higher cumulative GPA than the general student population from 2011 to 2013. Iowa State's 79 percent federal graduation rate in 2010 was the highest in the Big 12 and seventh-best among FBS schools. In 2009, Iowa State's CHAMPS/Life Skills program earned the Division I-A Athletic Directors Association National Program of Excellence Award.

Prior to his time at Iowa State, Powell was the associate director of the LSU Academic Center for Student-Athletes from 2001 to 2008. In addition to serving as the academic coordinator for several teams, including football and basketball, Powell monitored the progress toward degree and eligibility requirements for at-risk student-athletes.

Powell began his academic support career at LSU, where he worked as an academic counselor for the College of Arts and Sciences for two years. He was the director of counseling services at River Parishes Community College from 1998 to 2000 before serving as director of the TRIO Dissemination Partnership Program at Southeastern Louisiana University in 2000 and 2001. The program trained and supervised college faculty on the implementation of supplemental instruction.

Powell earned his bachelor's degree in psychology in 1992 and his master's degree in counseling in 1995 from Southeastern Louisiana. He holds a second master's degree in entrepreneurship and emerging markets from Syracuse's Martin J. Whitman School of Management. Powell and his wife, Deborah, have two sons, Tyler and Ethan.

PETE SALA

University Vice President/Chief Facilities Officer

In addition to supervising all operations of Syracuse University's athletic facilities, including the Dome, Pete Sala oversees multiple departments on campus, including Campus Planning, Design and Construction, Business and Facilities Maintenance Services, Physical Plant, Housing and Food Services Maintenance, and Energy Systems & Sustainability Management.

A member of Chancellor Kent Syverud's executive team, Sala is the construction manager for the West Campus Project, which includes a $118 million investment by the University for enhancements to the Dome.

Sala started his career at the Dome in 1982 as a production assistant and advanced through the ranks to production manager in 1988 and operations manager in 1991. He served as assistant director of facility operations for the building from 1991 through June 2005 when he was promoted to associate director of athletics for facilities. In 2010, Sala assumed the role of managing director of the Dome. He served as the interim director of athletics from March 18, 2015 to July 6, 2015.

At the Dome, Sala is responsible for all day-to-day operations of the facility, including coordinating and scheduling events, managing the box office, maintaining the budget and overseeing building maintenance. He supervises a full-time staff of 35, a part-time staff of more than 400, and nearly 100 students who assist in Dome operations and facility changeovers.

Along with his Dome responsibilities, Sala is the construction manager for all athletics facility upgrades and new building projects, including recent additions such as the football weight room, five new outdoor synthetic turf fields, the Carmelo K. Anthony Basketball Center, Ensley Athletic Center, and the remodeling of Manley Field House into a new multi-use indoor practice facility.

A 1979 graduate of Jamesville-DeWitt High School, Sala attended Morrisville College before transferring to the University of Massachusetts, where he completed the school's turf management program.

Pete and his wife, Laurie, have a son, Jake. The Salas reside in Jamesville.

MARK TRUMBO

Assistant AD/Student-Athlete Engagement

Mark Trumbo joined the Orange as an academic coordinator in July 2013. He was promoted to assistant athletics director for student-athlete engagement in July 2019.

In June 2016, Trumbo launched "The S-Project." A unique, comprehensive program, "The S-Project" is designed to equip Orange student-athletes with the skills and knowledge they need to have successful careers at Syracuse University and beyond. The programming pyramid focuses on personal enhancement, social responsibility, leadership development, personal development and professional development.

Trumbo also advises the Student-Athlete Advisory Committee (SAAC), which is comprised of representatives from all 20 varsity sports. SAAC has earned the One University Award, recognizing the top student organization on campus in 2016, 2018 and 2019. The group is heavily involved in community outreach and engages in dialogue to improve the quality of life for Orange student-athletes. In 2018, Trumbo was named "Advisor of the Year" for his contributions to SAAC.

In 2017, Trumbo received the John Maxwell Transformational Leader Top 100 Award. The honor is presented to leaders across all industries for making a significant impact in their community and leadership initiatives. Additionally, he was named to Greater Syracuse's "40 Under 40" list, which recognizes local professionals under the age of 40 who exemplify leadership through their business accomplishments and community involvement.

Before becoming Syracuse's student-athlete engagement coordinator in 2016, Trumbo was Syracuse's academic coordinator for men's and women's soccer and cross country/track & field for three years.

Trumbo worked at Ball State University prior to joining the Orange. In his time at Ball State, he provided academic services to more than 450 student-athletes. Trumbo created the SASS Choice Award for upperclass male and female student-athletes who demonstrated a high rate of academic achievement. In addition, he started the "Take Flight" student-athlete development program, which focused on leadership, as well as career and personal development.

Trumbo is a member of the National Association of Academic Advisors and Student-Athlete Development Professionals for Athletes (N4A). He served as chair for the organization's research committee from 2014-2015. Currently, Trumbo is a member of the N4A Board of Directors as the division director for student-athlete enhancement.

Previously, Trumbo served as the head golf coach at Burris Laboratory School in Muncie, Indiana and worked as an intern for the Erie SeaWolves minor league baseball team.

Trumbo earned a bachelor's degree in personal finance and real estate from Clarion University. He holds a master's degree in physical education and sports management with a concentration in higher education from Ball State.

Trumbo lives in Liverpool with his wife, Kristy, and their three children.

ATHLETICS LEADERSHIP

MARK WHEELER

Associate AD/Compliance

Mark Wheeler was named Syracuse's director of compliance in October 2015 after previously serving in the same position at Boise State for two years. In April 2017, Wheeler was promoted to associate director of athletics for compliance.

Wheeler reports directly to the Office of University Counsel and works closely with Director of Athletics John Wildhack as the sport supervisor for tennis and women's soccer. He is responsible for managing all aspects of the University's compliance program, including educating coaches, student-athletes, boosters, athletic department staff and other University officials about NCAA, Atlantic Coast Conference, College Hockey America and Intercollegiate Rowing Association rules and regulations. He oversees all compliance processes and procedures dealing with the University's monitoring of recruiting, eligibility, financial aid and certification.

While at Boise State, Wheeler led the Broncos' compliance department. He created and delivered a comprehensive education curriculum for coaches, non-coaching staff, student-athletes, boosters and other constituents. Additionally, he provided NCAA and Mountain West Conference rules interpretations for coaches, staff and student-athletes.

Before joining the Broncos, Wheeler was the assistant director of compliance at Ohio State for one year, managing all areas of compliance for the men's and women's swimming & diving, men's and women's cross country, and men's and women's track & field programs.

Wheeler's previous experience includes serving as an athletic compliance coordinator at Pepperdine University in Malibu, California. While there, Wheeler was integral to rebuilding compliance processes and procedures in the aftermath of a major NCAA infractions case. Wheeler has also completed internships at Brigham Young University and Paradigm Sports Management during his career.

In 2012, Wheeler passed the bar exam in California. He received his Juris Doctorate from Pepperdine the same year. He earned his undergraduate degree in management from BYU in 2009.

Wheeler and his wife, Kaela, have three sons – Bennett, Anders and Theo – and one daughter, Fiona.

SALATHA WILLIS

Associate AD/Diversity, Culture and Climate

Salatha Willis was appointed associate athletic director of diversity, culture and climate, a newly established position within the Department of Athletics, in July 2020. Willis is charged with developing and implementing new approaches to creating a highly engaged, inclusive and equitable culture for all of the department's student-athletes, administrators, coaches and staff. Willis will provide oversight and effective delivery of diversity educational and developmental programming, evaluate and measure the effectiveness of existing programs and services, and serve on and support University-wide committees and community groups.

Willis has two decades of experience in higher education and most recently served as Syracuse's associate director of the Office of Student-Athlete Academic Development, where he monitored and tracked the initial and continuing eligibility of football and softball student-athletes. Willis assisted in all aspects of academic support, including arranging tutors, academic monitoring and reporting, advising and orientations. He was also responsible for keeping coaches informed of student-athletes' academic progress, the APR and eligibility concerns. Additionally, Willis worked with other Student-Athlete Academic Development staff members to implement life-skills programming.

A former collegiate student-athlete himself, Willis was a member of the Western Michigan basketball team for three seasons. He lettered for the Broncos in 1995 and 1996. Willis graduated from WMU with a bachelor's degree in computer science in 1999.

The following year, Willis stayed in Kalamazoo to begin his career in higher education. He started out as a residence hall director then rose up the ranks, ultimately serving as Western Michigan's student orientation coordinator and assistant director of admissions.

In 2007, Willis was hired as the director of first-year programs and university testing at Indiana State, a position he held until being named vice president of enrollment management and student affairs at Martin University (Ind.) in 2011.

Willis transitioned to college athletics in 2012, serving as an academic counselor and compliance assistant at Colgate for a year prior to joining the Orange in 2013.

In addition to his undergraduate degree, Willis holds a master's degree in educational leadership from Western Michigan. He earned his doctorate in educational leadership from Indiana State in 2013.

Willis and his wife, Sheila, live in DeWitt and have four children.

TRADITION OF EXCELLENCE

Consistency. It is the mark of true excellence in any endeavor.

In today's intercollegiate athletics, competition is so balanced and so competitive that it is virtually impossible to maintain a high level of consistency. Yet the Atlantic Coast Conference has defied the odds.

Established in 1953, the ACC has long enjoyed the reputation as one of the strongest and most competitive intercollegiate conferences in the nation. And that is not mere conjecture, the numbers support it.

Through 67 years of competition, ACC schools have captured 161 NCAA team championships, including 80 in women's competition, 79 in men's sports and two in fencing. In addition, NCAA individual titles have gone to ACC student-athletes 186 times in men's competition and 141 times in women's action.

FOOTBALL

The ACC has won three of the last seven football national championships, which ties for the most in the country during that time – Clemson in 2016 and 2018; Florida State in 2013. In addition, the ACC is one of just two conferences that has placed a team in the College Football Playoff (CFP) or the BCS Championship Game in each of the last seven years.

Clemson's victory over Alabama in the 2019 CFP National Championship marked the eighth national title by an ACC school since the league's inception in 1953, and the 15th by a school currently in the league. Of the current membership, Miami leads the way with five national titles, followed by Clemson (3), Florida State (3), Pittsburgh (2), Georgia Tech (1) and Syracuse (1).

The ACC landed a nation's best 10 bowl bids in 2019. It was the second consecutive season the ACC has had the most bowl teams of any conference (11 in 2018).

The ACC has the most bowl teams (42) among all conferences over the last four years (11 in 2016, 10 in 2017, 11 in 2018, 10 in 2019), and the ACC is the only league to send every team to at least one bowl game over the previous four seasons (2016-19).

The ACC led all Power-Five conferences with 24 games decided by one possession (eight points or less) in 2019. The Big 12 was second with 23, followed by the Pac-12 (21), Big Ten (20) and SEC (17). North Carolina and Pittsburgh led the nation in one-possession games with nine each.

Clemson won its fifth consecutive ACC title in 2019 with a 62-17 win over Virginia in the ACC Football Championship Game in Charlotte, North Carolina. The Tigers earned a berth in the CFP semifinals, where they defeated Ohio State 29-23 before falling to No. 1 LSU 42-25 in the CFP National Championship Game in New Orleans, Louisiana. Clemson finished 14-1 overall and No. 2 in the final Associated Press Top 25 poll.

Syracuse joined the Atlantic Coast Conference on July 1, 2013. Head men's basketball coach Jim Boeheim and Commissioner John Swofford were on hand in Times Square to ring the NASDAQ closing bell to mark the occasion.

Virginia became the seventh different team in the last seven years to win the Coastal Division. The Cavaliers earned their first bid to the ACC Football Championship Game and played in the Capital One Orange Bowl. Virginia is the 11th different ACC team to play in the championship game since the game began in 2005.

Nine ACC head coaches have won at least 50 career games, including five with more than 100 victories. The five 100-win coaches are North Carolina's Mack Brown (251), Clemson's Dabo Swinney (130), Wake Forest's Dave Clawson (126), Virginia's Bronco Mendenhall (124) and Duke's David Cutcliffe (116). No other conference has as many coaches with 100 career wins.

Swinney and Brown are two of the five active coaches to win a national title. Swinney led Clemson to national championships in 2016 and 2018. Brown won a national title at Texas in 2005.

2019-20 IN REVIEW

The 2019-20 academic year saw all athletic competition come to an abrupt halt on March 12 due to the outbreak of the COVID-19 pandemic. Prior to competition being canceled, the ACC completed championship competition in 15 sports – seven for men and eight for women. The fall season also saw North Carolina's field hockey team capture its second consecutive NCAA title, and ACC teams were national contenders in numerous fall and winter sports. The ACC has averaged four national titles per year over the past two-plus decades (92 in 23 years) and has claimed multiple NCAA titles in 36 of the past 39 years.

Academically, the member institutions of the ACC again led the way among Power-Five conferences in the latest "Best Colleges" rankings released by U.S. News & World Report. ACC member schools combined for an average rank of 54.7, marking the 13th straight year that the ACC led all Power-Five conferences.

THE CHAMPIONSHIPS

The ACC conducts championship competition in all 27 sports – 13 for men and 14 for women. The first ACC championship was held in swimming at NC State on February 25, 1954.

The 13 sports for men include football, cross country, soccer, basketball, fencing, swimming & diving, indoor and outdoor track & field, wrestling, baseball, tennis, golf and lacrosse. Women's sports were initiated in 1977 with the first championship meet held in tennis from October 6-8 at Wake Forest. Championships for women are currently conducted in cross country, field hockey, soccer, basketball, fencing, swimming & diving, indoor and outdoor track & field, tennis, golf, lacrosse, softball and rowing, with volleyball deciding its champion by regular-season play.

HISTORY

The Atlantic Coast Conference was founded on May 8, 1953 at the Sedgefield Inn near Greensboro, North Carolina with seven charter members – Clemson, Duke, Maryland, North Carolina, NC State, South Carolina and Wake Forest – drawing up the conference by-laws.

The withdrawal of seven schools from the Southern Conference came early on the morning of May 8, 1953, during the Southern Conference's annual spring meeting. On June 14, 1953, the seven members met in Raleigh, North Carolina, where a set of by-laws was adopted and the name officially became the Atlantic Coast Conference.

Suggestions from fans for the name of the new conference appeared in the region's newspapers prior to the meeting in Raleigh. Some of the names suggested were: Dixie, Mid-South, Mid-Atlantic, East Coast, Seaboard, Colonial, Tobacco, Blue-Gray, Piedmont, Southern Seven and the Shoreline. Duke's Eddie Cameron recommended that the name of the conference be the Atlantic Coast Conference, and the motion was passed unanimously. The meeting concluded with each member institution assessed $200 to pay for conference expenses.

On Dec. 4, 1953, conference officials met again at Sedgefield and officially admitted Virginia as the league's eighth member. The first withdrawal of a school from the ACC came on June 30, 1971 when South Carolina tendered its resignation.

The ACC operated with seven members until April 3, 1978 when Georgia Tech was admitted. The Atlanta school had withdrawn from the Southeastern Conference in January of 1964.

The ACC expanded to nine members on July 1,1991 with the addition of Florida State.

The conference expanded to 11 members on July 1, 2004 with the addition of Miami (Fla.) and Virginia Tech. On Oct. 17, 2003, Boston College accepted an invitation to become the league's 12th member starting on July 1, 2005.

The ACC added its 13th and 14th members on Sept. 18, 2011 when Pittsburgh and Syracuse accepted invitations to join the conference. The two schools officially joined the ACC on July 1, 2013. Notre Dame also officially joined the ACC that day after announcing on Sept. 12, 2012 its intention to enter the league for competition in all sports but football, bringing the membership of the conference to 15.

On July 1, 2014, Louisville entered the ACC on the same day Maryland withdrew, keeping the conference's membership at 15 institutions.
